THE INFALLIBLE CURE

The Greatest Remedy in the World.

It is often asserted that the age of miracles is past, but that this is comparatively untrue will be apparent to all who observe the remarkable results following the use and application of the "Infallible Cure."

In fact, this potent remedy has wrought wonders in this lower world for nearly two thousand years, and its virtue as a Specific is as great today as when first discovered.

Those destructive conditions of body, mind and soul into which all mankind are naturally fallen, and which are greatly augmented by an adherence to injurious customs and practices are successfully treated and effectually cured by this wonderful agent.

This Great Remedy is warranted to effect a permanent cure in every case when the directions given are accepted and acted upon in good faith. The following list contains but a few of the many maladies it is positively guaranteed to cure.

It opens the eyes of those that are blind.

It makes the deaf to hear and understand.

It enables the dumb to speak, and causes the lame and rheumatic to leap for joy.

It takes away all appetite for strong drink, and is the only sure remedy that will save a drunkard from his cups, and the moderate drinker from a drunkard's grave.

It destroys at once all desire for tobacco, opium and other narcotics, and liberates all who are under bondage to them.

It will cure a person of swearing, lying and the using of obscene language.

It keeps those who use it from associating with wicked company in brothels, beer gardens and tobacco shops.

It instantly destroys all love for billiards, card playing, horse racing, gambling, fairs, dancing parties, novel reading, etc.

It removes pride from the heart, and those external fruits of it as seen in the wearing of gold, jewelry, feathers, ruffles, laces, silks and display of costly furniture and equipage.

It will make a man pay his honest debts.

It cures diseases of the body.

It cures diseases of the mind, especially infidelity, skepticism, fanaticism and unbelief.

It cures diseases of the heart, such as love of the world, love of self, love of sin and hatred of God and of His holy requirements. In conclusion, it will make all who accept it happy, now and forever, by saving them from sin here, and the fearful consequences of sin hereafter.

Reader, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ is the only perfect cure for all our diseases. As you value your present and eternal good, we beseech you to accept at once, this great salvation, the only true "Infallible Cure."—Perfect Love.

FOLLOW ME.

As I read the deeds of Esther,

Like a vision I can see

A lowly Galilean

Whispering softly, "Follow Me.

"Do not heed the work you're doing,

Leave your ploughshare in the field,

Just across the way are lost ones

To be found, and taught, and healed.

"Men are starving, yearning, dying,

For the love that sets them free;

While the fields are ripe for harvest;

Lift your cross and follow Me."
