HONEST WORK

Calvin Coolidge says:

"I cannot think of any American man or woman pre-eminent in the history of the nation who did not reach their place through toil. I cannot think of anything that represents the American people as a whole so adequately as honest work.

"We perform different tasks, but the spirit is the same. We are proud of work and ashamed of idleness. With us there is no task which is menial, no service which is degrading. All work is ennobling and all workers are ennobled."

Ramsay MacDonald says:

"Get yourself into your work, whatever it may be, for work without heart is dead.

"Discipline yourself to drudgery for by that you gain a mastery both over yourself and the world."

NOTES

Do not forget, please, that we need your renewals in order to meet the expenses. Let everybody boost The Highway.

MARRIED

Gross-Betst

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage at Hartland, N. B., on Nov. 23rd, 1929, Eben Bliss Gross and Geneva Mae Betts, both of Houlton, Maine, were united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Dow.

Martin-Hillman

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Hillman at Hartland, N. B., was the scene of a quiet wedding on the 30th day of November, 1929, when their eldest daughter, Beulah, was united in marriage by her uncle, Rev. H. S. Dow, to Mr. John Martin, of Saint John. The bridegroom who is a mechanic by trade, is employed with a construction company near Saint John. Only the immediate relatives of the bride were present at the ceremony. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for St. John, where they will reside.

Campbell-Farnham

A quiet but interesting wedding took place at the home of Mrs. A. Campbell at Upper Brighton, N. B., on Dec. 3rd, when her youngest son, Samuel, was united in marriage to Miss Naoma Farnham. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Moses Hillman, of Hartland. The single ring ceremony was used. Only the near relatives and friends of the happy couple were present at the ceremony, which was solemnized by Rev. H. S. Dow. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will live at Upper Brighton, where he is a farmer, and has a very comfortable home already to move into, where their many friends made them a reception on the following Friday night.

SATAN NOT RETIRED

The devil has not yet given up the battle. In some places he is seemingly triumphant. A dispatch from Leningrad, Russia, dated on the 10th instant, is as follows:

The first anti-religious university in the world was opened here today with elaborate ceremonies in the huge building of the house of culture.

Named after Stepanoff Skvortsoff, pioneer atheist in Russia, the anniversary of whose death was today, the new university began its sessions with 300 students, 47 of whom were women.

It would be interesting to read the curriculum of that university and to know the miserable stuff, blasphemous in character, that is given those students.

Who can measure arms with the Almighty? "He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision."

Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.—Benjamin Franklin.

"The first step toward becoming a gambler is to take just one chance in a church raffle."—Christian Witness.
