OBITUARY

John N. Belmain died at Community Hospital, Fort Fairfield, Me., Sunday morning, Feb. 24th, 1929. He had been in poor health for some time owing to high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries, but was able to be around and worked until within a few weeks of his death. He was born in Wasburn, Me., and lived there until sixteen years ago, when he moved to Fort Fairfield, where he has lived ever since. His wife predeceased him eleven years. He is survived by one grother, two sons and three daughters. The funeral service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon, the writer officiating, assisted by Rev. F. T. Wright. His remains were placed in the vault at Riverside cemetery. We sympathize with the bereaved family.

HAPPINESS OF FAITH

Christians might avoid much trouble and inconvenience if they would only believe what they profess,—that God is able to make them happy without anything else. They imagine if such a dear friend were to die, or such and such a blessing to be removed, they should be miserable; whereas God can make them a thousand times happier without them. To mention my own case. God has been depriving me of one blessing after another; but, as every one was removed, He has come in, and now, when I am a cripple, and not able to move, I am happier than ever I was in my life before, or ever expected to be. And, if I had believed this twenty years ago, I might have been spared much anxiety.—Dr. Payson.

ST. CHRYSOSTOM'S FAITH

There is scarcely a more beautiful illustration of Christian faith and fearlessness than that exhibited by Chrysostom on the day of his trial. Speaking to the proconsul he said, "What can I fear? Will it be death? But you know that 'Christ is my life,' and that I shall gain by death. Will it be exile? But 'the earth with all its fullness is the Lord's'. Will it be the loss of wealth? But, 'we brought nothing into this world, and we can carry nothing out.' Thus, all the terrors of the world are contemptible in my eyes, and I smile at all its good things. Poverty I do not fear; riches I do not sigh for; from death I do not shrink; and life I do not desire except for the progress of your souls."—Heart & Life Bulletin.

Time is the chrysalis of eternity.—Richter.
