

Highway for 1928 and 1929. I like the Highway fine. You are doing fine with it. My testimony this first day of January 1929 is: Jesus is very precious to me these days and his blood cleanses my heart from all sin. Bless his dear name forever. It is just wonderful what the Lord will do for every soul that will trust him, I just trust Him. Amen.

Dear Brother:

Enclosed find my renewal to the King's Highway for another year. I have been a reader of the Highway ever since it was first published. I enjoy it more than ever now that I do not have the privilege of meeting with the dear people of God very often. I love to read the testimonies, they are so helpful. Jesus is very precious to me these days.

Wishing the Highway a very prosperous year, I remain,

Yours in Christ

Dear Highway:

We wish through your columns to acknowledge the kindness of the friends here, who during the Christmas season presented us with a purse of money for which we were very thankful indeed.

The Ruth Class of the Sunday School also presented Mrs. Archer with a very handsome quilt. Mrs. Naves, the organist of the church, also was remembered with a gift of money. We feel that we are deeply indebted to these kind people for all these acts of kindness.

Dear Friends of The Highway:

Just a line at this season of the year from a fellow-traveler. I want to say that I am glad I ever started in the Highway of Holiness. The past year has brought new and precious experiences: times of testing and also times of refreshing. I believe that I can truly say that it has been a year of progress. Many times I am led to marvel at all the wonders He hath wrought. So far as the New Year is concerned I have no new resolutions to make but do feel like again expressing my determination to be true to the vows already made.

I wish to publicly thank the kind friends of the church here who have been so kind to us as we have labored with them. At Christmas they again remembered their pastor and his wife with many personal gifts, also a purse of money from the church. During the fall the church installed a new furnace in the parsonage which is very much appreciated.

Brother Edmund Beal replaced the old windows of plain glass with colored plate during the summer. Brother C. H. Beal with his son Esten had the church and parsonage painted.

These friends believe in keeping God's house in good repair. May the Lord richly bless them.

We are praying and believing that God will visit us with a Holy Ghost revival. I believe that we are facing a crisis. We must either take advance steps and some new territory for God or retreat.

Well by the grace of God we are not going to retreat.

Yours in the Holy War

SOUL-SATISFACTION IN CHRIST

folks exhaust their emotions in patronizing the sham and the unreal and they have little genuine emotion left for God and the fulness of his blessing. No wonder to them religion is an austere thing; something they have to do when they had rather do something else. They have not yet found the real Jesus who alone can satisfy. But finding Him they may sing:

"Thou O Christ art all I want;

More than all in Thee I find;

Raise the fallen cheer the faint,

Heal the sick and lead the blind."

They indeed find in Jesus the fountain of living water.

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE DAVID F. BURNS BY HIS BROTHER

On the 11th day of December and in the 78th year of his age, Rev. D. F. Burns, of Cambridge, Mass., passed onward from this life to add one more to that ever swelling host which no man can number. After a busy day in the office he attended prayer meeting and went home and retired in apparently good health, fell into a peaceful sleep which lasted for three days and then passed onward to an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled and that fadeth not away. He was born in Upham, Kings Co., New Brunswick, but spent the most of his life in Cambridge. He loved the Church and the church loved him. He was a leader of the Holiness movement in New England and will be much missed. Sweet is the breath of roses over his good gray head.

He passed through fruitful autumn

Without a yellow leaf,

Yet profuse with the blossoms

Plucked from the tree of life.

He did not climb the mountain Deut. 15-23

To view the promised land,

He drank at life's clear fountain Rev. 21-6

Far past the Jordan strand.

He fed on hidden manna Rev. 2-17

The overcomers prize,

And left a glad Hosanna

Whose echo never dies.

He crossed the shining portal

Beside the boundless sea,

And laid aside the mortal

For immortality.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Looking back over the past year we find much to praise the Lord for. Surely He has verified His promises to us all along the way, supplying our temporal as well as spiritual needs, and has given us numberless blessings to enjoy. For all these we are truly grateful.

To be sure all has not been sunshine, the testings came, and the enemy of our souls was arrayed against us, but we found the arm of the Lord strong to deliver.

We are conscious of many failures and blunders, some good resolutions failed to materialize, and we could wish for the privilege of living the past year all over again, to rectify the mistakes and grasp lost opportunities, but how futile! The year has passed into eternity never to be recalled, all we can do is to try again, for it is better to try and fail than never to try at all. Therefore LET US resolve to "forget those things that are behind and reach forth unto those things which are before, and press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

In order to do this we must lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, keep looking unto Jesus"

Again LET US resolve to pray more earnestly with greater faith, yet let us pray without ceasing and LET US be obedient to all the known will of God. LET US be more teachable to learn the lessons that HE has for us. LET US live in such vital touch with Jesus day by day that we will have the approval and smile of Jesus upon us.

If these resolutions are kept through His grace, we shall have a victorious year of 1929.

MARRIED

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McCrea, Perth, N. B., when in the presence of a few immediate friends, their daughter, Kathleen Althea, was united in marriage to C. Rainsford Larlee, of Millinocket, Me. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of sky blue georgette, appearing very charming. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Mullen, of Centreville, N. B. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, which was much enjoyed by all. The bride will be much missed as she was one who had won for herself many friends. She had been employed for some time in the post office of said town, but what she is missed there will be made up elsewhere.

The groom is a paper finisher in the Great Northern Pulp and Paper mill in Millinocket, Me.

They took train at Fort Fairfield, Me., for Millinocket, where they will reside. We wish them every happiness. May their joys be many and their sorrows few.

Alley—Carver

The Reformed Baptist Church at Beals Me., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the evening of December, twenty-fifth when Sylvia, eldest daughter of Captain and Mrs. G. H. Carver, was united in marriage to Harold Alley.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by the church orchestra. She was attended by Mrs. Harleigh Norton and Mrs. Malcolm Naves, matrons of honor. The little Misses Mina Carver and Martha Alley acted as flower girls. The groom was supported by his brother, Donald Alley. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the wedding taking place under a floral arch. The double ringed ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Watson.

After a wedding tour to Bangor, Portland and Boston the happy couple will reside at Beals.

McGaw—Walsh

Mrs. C. B. Houghton has received word of the marriage of her niece, Miss Ruby Walsh of Calais, to Mr. Kenneth McGaw of Lynn Mass., formerly of St. Stephen, N. B. The marriage took place in Lynn, Mass. Dec. 26, 1928 and Mr. and Mrs. McGaw will make their home in that city.
