GOD'S FAVORITE MAN.

When the Scriptures tell us to mark the perfect man the question may arise, how can we mark a man who does not exist. Once we heard an old style preacher say in preaching to farmers, "You can not mark pigs when you have none."

The conclusion is, there must be such a being as a perfect man. No one supposes that we will find this man perfect in his judgment or even perfect in his conduct and the standard of service he renders to God and man. Perfection is a thing of the heart. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and thy neighbor as thyself." He who measures up to this is perfect in the Scriptural sense, though he may be illiterate, unattractive, frail, and though he may have tottering feet and a stammering tongue. God looks deeper than the outer surface for perfection.

WHEN TO PREACH

An old time English bishop sent for John Berridge to reprove him for preaching at all hours and on all days. "My lord," said he modestly, "I preach only at two times." "Which are they, Mr. Berridge?" "In season and out of season, my lord." (2 Tim. 4:2).—Moody Monthly.

No day is commonplace, if only we have eyes to see its splendor. There is no duty that comes to hand that does not bring with it the possibility of kingly service.—Selected.

Myers-Ferguson

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 8—A wedding of interest took place this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ferguson, George street, when their daughter, Nellie Baird, became the bride of Ernest M. Myers, of Moose Jaw. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George R. Ferguson, of Evansville, Indiana, a brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. H. H. Ferguson, of Saint John, an uncle of the bride.

The bride was unattended and given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette with long sleeves, bridal veil with bandeau of pearls and orange blossoms, and carried Ophelia roses and sweet peas. The bridal chorus was played by Mrs. George R. Ferguson, of Evansville, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Ferguson sang. Directly following the ceremony a reception was held and a buffet lunch served by girl friends of the bride.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Myers left by automobile for Norton, Sussex and Saint John, returning to Fredericton to spend a week before leaving for Moosejaw. Going away the bride wore a navy and fawn ensemble, hat and shoes to match.

The bride has been for the past six years on the office staff of the Fredericton Board of School Trustees.

Frank Watson performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The bride wore a dress of wedgewood blue georgette trimmed with silver lace and a lace coat, grey mohair hat trimmed with blue and carried a bouquet of delphinium and sweet peas. She had as maid of honor Miss Helen Morehouse, sister of the groom, who wore a dress of pale green silk and hat to match and carried a bouquet of snap-dragon.
