

CORRESPONDENCE

Mouth Keswick.

Dear Editor and Readers of The Highway:

I want to add my testimony with others to the saving blood of Jesus. Praise His holy name. He keeps and saves me today and every day. May God bless and help us in the saving of precious souls.

MRS. FRED BARR

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed you will find money for Highway. I enjoy your letters on your travels and hope you will receive much benefit from your rest. I visited my brother Harleigh Clark in Jones Port quite recently. My son and wife accompanied me. We went on Sunday 119 miles so as to hear him preach. It was the first sermon I ever heard him preach and he has been preaching about thirty years. We all enjoyed his sermon and our visit with him was very pleasant. I found my brother feeling better than I expected and do hope he will keep well through the winter. I also had a trip in the summer back to my old home in Millville, after sixteen years; found only a very few of the old friends there that I knew forty-one years ago. Things have changed very much. One can only realize it as they go back after years of absence how great the change.

Sincerely,

BERTHA CLARK HOUGHTON.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed please find money order for renewal of the Highway for two years. Glad to report that we are still on the Highway of Holiness and enjoying the blessings of salvation.

We are planning on a busy time in evangelistic work this winter. Our work is in various denominations. Last Sunday we closed a meeting with the Nazarene Church, here in Ft. Wayne, and Nov. 3rd we start a meeting in an Evangelical church in northern Mich.

Pray for us that we may be kept in the centre of God's will.

Yours sincerely

MR. AND MRS. CARL S. PARLEE.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed please find renewal of my subscription, and also of my sister's. We both enjoy reading the Highway and always look forward to the day it is due to arrive.

I missed being at Beulah very much, but could not get there because my work with the Massachusetts Bible Society started as soon as school was out in June. I had a good summer. I spent nearly three months with them, and earned enough to start me back in school this fall. I am looking forward to going to Beulah next year, and have already started to pray that God will give us the most gracious outpouring of His Spirit we have ever known.

God is exceedingly precious to me. I do not know of a time when I was more conscious of sweet fellowship with Him than at this present moment. Glory, glory, glory to His precious name. I love Him as none other, and have a stronger determination than ever to do His blessed will.

The addresses to which to send the Highway is the same as that to which you have been sending them. May God's blessing rest upon you and your work. I shall write to you in the near future concerning placing an ad. for Beulah in this year's Nautilus. I think it would be a splendid way to get our Camp-Meeting before the mind of some new folk. We publish about 700 copies of the book, and they are distributed throughout most of the States and parts of Canada.

Yours for the Master's use,

Dear Highway:

Just a word from this corner of God's vineyard. We have just had the privilege of having H. E. Mullen for a two week's meeting. He sure did some great preaching. God did bless him and also made him a blessing. We feel sure that all were blessed who were in a blessing condition. The truth came very forcefully. A few made the best of their opportunity, found their way to the Altar, touched Heaven and went away rejoicing; while the masses let the service go on and close, finding them a little ways further away from God than ever. Our meetings are good and we are praising God for the faithful few who stand by so loyally. God bless them and help us to feed the flock of God. We love Him tonight. He saves and sanctifies. Praise His dear name.

Yours for Holiness,

H. S. AND MRS. MULLEN

Havelock, N. S. Nov. 4th, 1929.

Dear Highway:

We have reported the spiritual blessing God has given us since our coming to Havelock, and now we want to tell of the temporal blessings which the people have helped to bring.

Before our arrival a number of brothers and sisters met at the parsonage and did a considerable amount of cleaning and getting it ready for occupation. One brother trucked our furniture from Weymouth without charge. Through the kindness of several brethren we have our winter's fuel in store at very little expense, some giving the wood and others the means of conveyance. Then to tell of all the many ways in which the people have helped, would take too long, as they have thoughtfully sent in such things as butter, eggs, milk, meat, apples and vegetables.

But all these helpful acts were crowned on the evening of October 14, when over sixty of the church members and friends gathered at the parsonage and piled the dining table high with groceries and other good and useful articles. The value of the goods, including a cash offering of $14.45, must have reached the amount of $35. The evening was spent in a social way with music and singing, followed by refreshments and closing with prayer.

We tried to express our gratitude to the people and to our Heavenly Father who "knoweth what things ye have need of," and we hope that in spiritual things their hearts may abound with the blessing of God, as richly as their gifts have abounded toward us.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Thought I would like to write a letter to the Highway. We feel rather lonely here in Sussex having moved here from Fredericton in early spring. We surely miss the little Reformed Church as there is no Reformed Baptist Church here. It is a very true saying "You never miss the water till the well goes dry." We did enjoy our stay of three years in Fredericton and hope some day we may be able to attend the little church there once more. We also miss the Tuesday night cottage-meetings very much. I was just reading where Brother Trafton said it was a joy to meet loved ones after a long separation. Well I had the pleasure of meeting my sister this summer for the first time in thirty-three years, having been parted when I was only three years of age.

So you can imagine the joy of our meeting after so many years of separation. I also had the pleasure of meeting my sister's husband. They made us a short visit of four very happy days, being unable to stay longer, as their time was limited. They made the trip, which was a very enjoyable one, by train from Oakland, California. They stopped at beautiful Niagara Falls and many other points of interest.

Please find enclosed a payment for our paper.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Brother Trafton:

You will find enclosed my renewal for the King's Highway.

I am still trusting in the Lord day by day. He is very precious to me. He is dearer every day.

Yours in Him,
