CORRESPONDENCE

Woodstock, N. B. April 11th, 1929.

On Mar. 26 about fifty members of the church and congregation, had possession of the parsonage, when we returned home in the evening, having been invited out to tea; to say the least we were surprised, and that is putting it very mildly, for we had never gotten a whisper anywhere; but after the first effects of the surprise had passed away, we tried to make them feel they were welcome.

The first part of the evening was spent in singing. Deacon Clowes on behalf of the donors, presented us with an appreciable sum of money. We tried to thank those who were present, and in the midst of the people, tried to thank our Heavenly Father, for His people, and for His manifest care for us through His people.

This is only one of the many times, since we have been here, that the good folk have shown their care in a material way for us. Again we wish to thank all those, who not only have contributed in these special ways, to help the cause of holiness along, but have stood by it in prayer, purse and person, not only while we have been here, but now for over forty years, and feel they will stand by it, until they are called to serve Higher.

Yours in Christian service,

E. W. and MRS LESTER

Dear Highway: Moncton, N. B.

We feel to thank God for all His benefits and blessings to us during the past months. He has sustained us by His grace and gives us victory in spite of the combined forces of the evil one. We held two weeks of special meetings, recently, beginning March 24th and Closing April 7th. Rev. Peter Wiseman, D.D., of Ottawa, Can. was the evangelist for the first eight days, we were sorry indeed that he could not be with us for a longer time. He proved himself a true yoke-fellow indeed. He manifested a beautiful spirit and preached with unction and power the double cure for sin. It was the only time that we could secure him, but it was far too short; the meeting just got under way when he had to leave for another engagement. All the churches in the city were engaged in special services that week, but the congregations were good, a number were at the altar and some prayed through. We feel that Brother Wiseman is among the best of the holiness evangelists today. We hope to have him again sometime. Rev. H. S. Dow of Hartland, N. B., came on April 2nd to help us continue the meetings. The Lord certainly blessed him, and he did some great preaching, some others found help by walking in the light. We are more convinced than ever that God has called us to preach the truth as taught in His word, that delivers men from sin, through the baptism with the Holy Ghost, to sanctify the soul, and give power to live the life of holiness.

Miss Hazel Mullen was the special singer from the first till April 6th, when she had to return to Westchester, N. S. to the work. Her singing certainly was in the spirit and owned of God. Many were blessed through her ministry of song. She also preached twice as Brother Wiseman was laid up with a cold two days. The finances came easily and we are encouraged to keep on. Miss Mullen and Brother Dow were entertained at the pastor's home while Brother Wiseman was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tuck, as Mr. Wiseman and Mrs. Tuck were first cousins. We appreciated very much their kindness in doing this. We believe lasting results will follow this meeting.

Yours for true holiness,

P. J. TRAFTON
