CORRESPONDENCE

Caribou, Me., May 8th, 1930.

Rev. P. J. Trafton:

Enclosed find money order for the Highway; I don't feel as I want to get along without it. It is a good paper.

MRS. J. H. ROBERTS

Dear Highway:

Just a few words of acknowledgement through your columns, to the friends who remembered me on my birthday. It surely was a surprise to me when about 50 members and friends of the church invaded the parsonage on Monday evening, April 28th, to celebrate my birthday, which was on Sunday previous. These friends had prepared a nice programme of readings, music and song. They also brought a beautiful, as well as delicious birthday cake, decorated with quite a large number of candles. A part of the programme was the presentation of a generous gift of money on behalf of those present by Alderman Clarence Goodspeed. We truly appreciate the kindness of these dear people, and pray that God will make us a blessing to them.

Yours in His service

F. A. WATSON.

North Head, Grand Manan.

Dear Brother Trafton:

My last report gave fourteen as baptised, instead of thirteen. Sunday, the 27th, Brother Dunlap baptized three more for us, and kindly gave three sermons on second blessing holiness. His help was much appreciated by all, four seeking the Blessing in the evening service. Eleven were received into church fellowship.

Last evening, in our regular prayer meeting, the Spirit of revival was strongly manifest, burning away the mist of doubt.

Yours in His service

H. C. SANDERS

A GOOD LESSON

A boy was sitting on the steps of a house. He had a broom in one hand, a large piece of bread and butter in the other. While he was eating he saw a poor little dog not far from him. He called out to him, "Come here, poor fellow!" Seeing the boy eating, he came near. The boy held out to him a piece of his bread and butter. As the dog stretched out his head to take it, the boy drew back his hand and hit him a hard rap on the nose.

A gentleman who was looking from a window on the other side of the street saw what the boy had done. Opening the street door, he called out to him to come over, at the same time holding a sixpence between his thumb and finger. "Would you like this?" said the gentleman. "Yes, if you please, sir," said the boy smiling. Just at that moment he got so severe a rap on the knuckles, from a cane which the gentleman had behind him, that he cried out with pain. "What did you do that for?" said he, making a long face and rubbing his hand. "I didn't ask you for the sixpence." "What did you hurt that dog for just now?" asked the gentleman. "He didn't ask you for the bread and butter. As you served him, I served you. Now, remember hereafter that dogs can feel as well as boys."—Boston Budget.
