MUSIC

The music this year we expect to surpass that of former years.

"Great Gospel Songs" will be the song-book used. J. F. Bullock will preside at the organ. A fine programme of special music will be arranged under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Mullen, Miss Hazel Mullen and others. We have several good song leaders among our brethren who will be on hand to render service in this capacity.

RAILROAD AND STEAM- BOAT FARES

If going by rail, buy regular return ticket to Grand View on the St. John Valley Railroad.
The steamers sailing from Fredericton will give one fare return from June 23, good to return July 9. Boats sailing from Saint John up-river will sell return tickets to those attending the Camp Meeting, for $1.00.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Beulah Camp Ground is situated 20 miles above the City of Saint John on the Saint John River. A large hotel and three dormitories provide accommodation for this large gathering.
Its natural beauty is wonderful. Modern conveniences, pure spring water. Walks and rocks speak of God.

If you want your spiritual strength renewed,
this is the place to come for ten days.

The use of tobacco on the grounds is prohibited. Dogs, cats, gramophones, must be left at home.

HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD IS OUR WATCHWORD AND SONG
