

OBITUARY

Mrs. Thomas H. Martin

Ellen M., wife of Thomas H. Martin, of Salem, Kings Co., N. B., departed this life, after a few days illness, with pneumonia, Sunday at 12.40 a. m., aged 56 years. She was fully conscious up to the last, and gave testimony to her faith in the Saviour, and her readiness to depart and be with him. Brother and Sister Martin were married 22 years last December. She became a follower of the Lord in her early girlhood and professed to receive the experience of entire sanctification over two years ago. She has been a loyal and true wife. Her home was always open to the servants of God and many have enjoyed her Christian hospitality. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, two foster daughters: (Hazel) Mrs. A. Brace, Newton Heights, N.B.; (Eva) Mrs. A. P. Alward, Canaan, N. B.; three sisters: Mrs. Legusta Fowlie, White Plains, N. Y.; Mrs. Martha Alcorn, Chelmsford, Me.; Mrs. Talbert Arnold, Sussex, N. B.; one brother, Isaac B. Cromwell, Hunter's Home, N. B.; a number of other relatives and a host of friends. The funeral was held Monday at 1.45 p. m. from the home to the Reformed Baptist Church nearby, where a very large congregation assembled from many different sections, to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. Mrs. Mont G. Thorne presided at the organ and a choir rendered appropriate hymns. Rev. P. J. Trafton, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church of Moncton, was the officiating clergyman. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church. There were several floral tributes and the large congregation present showed the high esteem in which she was held. To the sorrowing ones we extend our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Alderaida Nason Jones

The death of Mrs. Alderaida Nason Jones, wife of Thomas A. Jones, took place at Knoxville, Carleton Co., N. B., on May 5th. Sister Jones had been suffering for about six months with cancer of the stomach. She was a great sufferer, but bore it patiently, and died in the triumphs of the faith once delivered to the saints. The writer was privileged to call at her home different times, and always found her serving God.

Sister Jones was a woman who took a deep interest in the welfare of the community, and when sick at her home, had many friends to call and see her. She leaves to mourn their loss her husband, and son, Ervine, at home, two boys, Wendell and Linwood in Arizona, and Dean in Mass. The service was held at the Baptist Church at Knoxville by the writer, assisted by Rev. L. C. Good, of Monticello, Me. The remains were laid to rest in the community cemetery. To the bereaved ones we offer our heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. Hartley Harris

Mr. Hartley Harris departed this life on May 14th at his home in Short Beach, N. S. Mr. Harris had been a great sufferer. He had been away to Boston for treatment. Everything that loved ones and medical skill could do had been done to try to restore his health. He gradually grew weaker until he fell asleep to awake no more in this life. During his illness he sought Jesus as his Saviour and he never tired of talking about Salvation.

The funeral service was on Sunday, May 18th. It was one of the largest funerals I have attended. The service was at his home. The floral tributes were beautiful, showing the high esteem in which he was held. He was laid to rest in the cemetery at Darling's Lake. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow, one son, Bernard, at Boston, and one brother in Australia, besides a host of relatives and friends. To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy. The service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. L. J. Sears.

Mr. James Humphrey

A very sad accident occurred in Crystal, Me., on Wednesday evening, May 14th, when Mr. James Humphrey, a man 87 years of age, was struck and killed by a passing automobile. Mr. Humphrey was here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Colin Campbell. Prayer was offered at Mr. Campbell's home on Thursday. Mrs. Campbell and her brother, Christopher, accompanied the remains to Portland on Thursday evening. The funeral was held in the funeral parlor on Friday in charge of the assistant pastor of the Baptist Church of Portland, Me. Burial was made at the South Portland cemetery. He is survived by one sister, of Prince Edward Island; four sons, Christopher, of Patten, Me.; Rufus, of Palmyra, Maine; Wesley, of Lawrence, Mass., and Edward, of Somerville, Mass.; three daughters, Mrs. Lyman Hulbert, of Etna, Maine; Mrs. Colin Campbell, of Crystal, Maine; and Mrs. Douglas Brunt, of Fitchburg, Mass. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing ones.

Mr. Roscoe Noyes

Mr. Roscoe Noyes died at the Farmington Hospital on April 27th. He was seventy-nine years of age. He was once a deacon of the old Baptist Church at Belvidere, Maine. He leaves many relatives and friends. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Perley Gardiner, of Maine, and Mrs. Roscoe Ordway, of Rhode Island; four sons, Fred, of Island Falls, Me.; Peter, Herbert, and Carol, of Berry's Mills, Maine; six daughters, Mrs. Daniel MacFarland, of Island Falls, Me.; Mrs. Leeman Langley, of Rockland, Me.; Mrs. Adam Hatto, of Crystal, Me.; Mrs. Harris Schilenger, of New Limerick, Me.; Mrs. Charles Porter, of San Francisco, Calif.; and Mrs. Vern Hardy, of Farmington, Me. The funeral was held on April 30th, at the R. B. Church of Belvidere, Me. The writer was in charge and spoke from James 4:14. He was assisted by Rev. George E. Huff (Church of God) and Rev. S. A. Mullen (Reformed Baptist). Miss Marion Longstaff played the organ. Mr. Frank Longstaff, Miss Luna Thorne and Mr. Bennett Cochrane sang. The body was placed in the cemetery at Crystal, Me. To the bereaved ones we offer our sympathy.

Though Love repine, and Reason chafe,
There came a voice without reply—
'Tis a man's perdition to be safe,
When for the truth he ought to die.

THE SUCCESS FAMILY

The Father of success is Work. The Oldest Son is Common Sense. Some of the other boys are: Perseverance, Honesty, Thoroughness, Foresight, Enthusiasm, Cooperation.

The Mother of success is Ambition. The Oldest Daughter is Character. Some of the sisters are: Cheerfulness, Loyalty, Courtesy, Care, Economy, Sincerity. The Baby is Opportunity. Get acquainted with the father and you will be able to get along pretty well with the rest of the family.—Hammermill Bond.
