

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. H. C. Archer and C. R. Hagerman spent Sept. 1st and 2nd at Beulah Camp Ground. They were there in connection with closing up for the winter.

The Quarterly Meeting at Jonesport, Me., was cancelled as the brethren were unable to attend.

Rev. and Mrs. Hollis Kimball, of Royalton, N. B., were guests recently of Mr. Kimball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Kimball, Fort Fairfield, Me.

The special services at Mercer have been going on well. Some have sought and found the Lord.

Rev. S. A. Mullen expects to begin special services at Salem, Kings Co., on Sunday evening, Sept., 21st. He will be assisted by Miss Hazel Mullen.

Rev. H. S. Mullen and family were called to New Tuskett, N. S., the last of August on account of the serious illness of his father, Levi Mullen, who has since died. Brother Mullen and family returned to Westchester, Sept. 13th.

Lic. Howard Robertson spent a few days visiting at the close of the quarterly meeting. He expects to return to Ashbury College the middle of this month.

Rev. P. J. Trafton:

My Dear Brother Trafton: I am writing you to ask if you would not extend to the ministers and evangelists of the Reformed Baptist Church through the very next issue of the Highway an invitation on behalf of Eastern Nazarene College for all of them to attend our Opening Convention September 17-21. We shall be very happy to entertain free of charge during that period all of your ministers who are actively engaged in Christian work.

On Friday, the 19th, we will dedicate the new Fowler Memorial Administration Building and expect that this will be the greatest event in our history.

Your brother in Christ,

FLOYD W. NEASE,

President

NOTICE

The Minutes of Alliance should reach the people soon. The copy for same has been in the hands of the printer for several weeks.

If you do not receive your copy in due time, write us.

REV. H. C. ARCHER,
Secretary

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clowes Patterson.....$3.25

NOTES

Workers are still needed in the harvest field. Let us continue to pray the Lord of the harvest. Our responsibility is great in this matter.

Your renewals will be much appreciated by the editor.

BORN

At Hartland, Natal, South Africa, July 17, 1930, to Rev. and Mrs. D. M. MacDonald, a son.

PERSONALS

Mr. N. C. Cochrane, of Marysville, was a recent visitor at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Hartland, N. B.

Miss Bessie Watson, of Perth, has been visiting with Mrs. Perley Briggs, Fort Fairfield, Me.

Otis, son of Rev. and Mrs. Fred T. Wright, Fort Fairfield, underwent an operation Aug. 27th for adenoids and tonsils at the Presque Isle Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Cogswell and three sons, Fort Fairfield, were visiting relatives in Hartland, N. B., recently.

A farewell party was held Friday evening, August 29th, at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, in honor of Edward Dow, who left this week for Fredericton to attend Normal School. On behalf of those present, Mr. Orser presented him with ten dollars in gold. After a pleasant social evening, a buffet lunch was served by some of the ladies.

On Sunday, after the regular service, George Farnham presented Edward Dow with a fountain pen and pencil set, on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tilley, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Will Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George Farnham, Victoria, N. B.

Mrs. John Doyle, who was visiting in Westchester, N. S., has returned to Cambridge, Mass.

Miss Hattie Caldwell, R. N., who spent the month of August with her mother at Westchester, has returned to the Newton Hospital, Mass.

Mrs. George MacCallum, of Moncton, N. B., was operated on for appendicitis at the Moncton City Hospital, Thursday morning, Sept. 11th. She is doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Alice Bradley, of Gray's Mills, Kings Co., has returned to Moncton to continue her studies at the High School.

Mrs. Bertha Flemming, of Westchester, has somewhat improved in health, but she is not able to walk yet.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Good, of Moncton, N. B., spent two weeks visiting with Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Archer at Beals, Me. They returned home on the 8th inst.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, Chester Cochrane, Cecil McDonald, Donald Charters and Mr. White, of Marysville, were callers at the Reformed Baptist parsonage on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bookmiller and Claud McMullin, of Royal Oak, Michigan, are spending a few days here with friends and relatives.

Otis Ames and Bertha Ames were week end guests at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Hartland, N. B., recently.

QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 3

The meetings were opened Thursday evening with Rev. I. F. Keirstead as president. Brother Keirstead preached from the text Act 3:19. Prayer was offered by Rev. P. J. Trafton.

Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. a prayer and praise service was held. Scripture reading by Lic. Howard Robertson. A song and preaching service was held Friday night, preaching by the pastor, Rev. S. A. Mullen.

Saturday at 10.30 a. m. a prayer meeting was held. Rev. I. F. Keirstead gave some helpful comments from the text as found in Hebrews 12:15.

The business session was held at 3 p. m. Opened by singing hymn No. 69, Rev. I. F. Keirstead in the chair. Prayer was offered by Brother Noah Hicks. It was moved and seconded by Rev. P. J. Trafton and S. A. Mullen to organize a Sunday School convention. It was agreed to adopt the constitution and by-laws of District No. 1 with necessary alterations.

It was moved and seconded that Brother S. H. Bradley be district Sunday School president.

Moved and seconded that Brother H. K. Ingersol be secretary treasurer.

It was moved and seconded that there be a S. S. convention held in connection with the next Quarterly Meeting.

Moved also that Rev. I. F. Keirstead prepare a paper on the need of our Sunday School.

Moved and seconded that Rev. I. F. Keirstead be vice-president of this association.

Officers elected for the Quarterly Meeting were as follows:

It was moved and seconded that Rev. S. A. Mullen be president of the Quarterly Meeting.

Moved and seconded that Lic. Howard Robertson be secretary. Moved and seconded that Perry Alward be treasurer of the Quarterly Meeting. Moved and seconded that Rev. P. J. Trafton be Highway Agent.

There were no written reports.

Verbal reports:

Brother O. Trites, Lutes Mountain. Interest good in summer. Rev. P. J. Trafton giving his services at times.

Salem Church—Brother F. C. Lutes.

Moncton Church—Brother A. Hopper.

Mercer Settlement and Lower Millstream—Noah Hicks.

Ministers of the District present:

Moncton—Rev. P. J. Trafton.

Salem Circuit—Rev. Stillman Mullen.

Saint John—Rev. I. F. Keirstead.

Salem—Lic. H. L. Robertson.

Delegates present:

Moncton—Mr. and Mrs. Abner Hopper.

Grey's Mills—Miss Lucy Bradley.

Salem Church—Mr. F. C. Lutes, Thos. Martin and Howard Robertson.

Lutes Mountain—Mr. O. Trites.

Mercer Settlement—Noah Hicks.

Head of Millstream—Mrs. Walter Long, Miss Eva Long, Mr. Ensley Keith.

The Saturday night and Sunday services were well attended. Large congregations especially Sunday afternoon and evening. Rev. P. J. Trafton was the preacher Saturday night. His subject was "Worship."

Sunday morning at 9.30 the Love Feast was lead by Brother Oliver Trites and was a wonderful season of refreshing, praise and testimony. Licentiate Howard Robertson was the preacher at the morning service, his text in Job 23: 10: "But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold." Rev. S. A. Mullen was the preacher at the afternoon service and gave a very strong address from the theme, "The sins that crucified Jesus." Rev. P. J. Trafton preached at the evening service. His subject was "Man's will in relation to his salvation." At the close of this message some raised their hand for prayer, then the meeting was thrown open for testimony.

The Quarterly Meetings were a blessing to the church and surrounding country. The services were well attended. Good interest was shown and several requested prayers.