Dear Brother Trafton and the Alliance in Session:
S:tu.entp-SihcvaJFETAOIN ETAON TEI
As another year draws to a close and we look back all the way the Lord has led us, there is in our souls a song of praise to Him. This does not mean that we understand all His doings but what is veiled from our eyes we gladly trust to Him, and rest peacefully in the knowledge that He doeth all things well.

As we examine our hearts we find that we love Him more than ever before. His sanctifying Spirit is our secret of peace and happiness in this world, and an assurance of a welcome Home in the next.

Together we say it is good to be here in the will of God. What the future holds is hidden from our understanding. He willed it so and knows best.

The call grows stronger in our hearts to proclaim the cleansing power of Jesus' Blood. Praise His name for it. That blood has never lost its power; it avails today.

Jesus draws men, women and children to Himself and purges away their sins, praise His matchless name!

Please hold us up in prayer that God may have His will in us, in every way and every day.

We feel to thank those dear faithful co-workers in the homeland who have upheld us by prayer during this past year. We truly appreciate your help more than we can tell. The knowledge that we're upheld by true praying children of God in the homeland gives us courage.

We face the new year with all it holds and all it hides, unafraid. May God have His own way and we will praise Him.

With kindest Christian greetings.
Yours for the salvation and sanctification of lost souls.

H. P. SANDERS,
R. A. SANDERS
