RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING

We were in hopes some one who was through the entire camp at Riverside would report the same for the Highway. The writer was there only part of the time and about all of that was spent in bed. We are very glad however for the encouraging reports that came to us from different sources, and they were all agreed that it was a good and profitable meeting. There was not a large number of preachers present, but they all worked willingly and gladly. The weather was not the best at times, but the attendance was very good throughout. The President, Rev. C. R. Hagerman was on hand at the opening and presided at all the services. Bro. Emery Cosman had charge of the singing and was assisted in leading by Bro. Burrell Kimball. The special singing was good, Miss Hazel Mullen was assisted by a number of the young people, so there was a good variety, solos, duets, and quartettes. Bro. J. F. Bullock, presided at the organ.

The grounds committee had their work well in hand and the hotel committee were right on the job. Bro. Sewell Hilyard assumed the responsibility of carrying on and he was assisted by Bro. Emery Cosman. We think we can safely say that we never had better board at Riverside. Mrs. Lewis Saunders and daughter of Perth, N. B., were the cooks and they certainly satisfied all.

We are now coming to the most important part of the camp and that is the meetings. The evangelist this year was Rev. A. E. Wachtel, D. D., of Clarendon, Virginia. He was a strong preacher, on the old time line of full salvation, entire sanctification as a second work of grace. He won the hearts of the people, and was a great favorite of the young people. His messages run true and a goodly number were at the altar and we trust a number of souls got anchored in Jesus. Our own brethren were abundant in labours and those who preached were blessed of the Lord and helped by Him.

Mrs. H. C. Sanders had charge of the children's meetings and Dr. Sanders, Miss Hazel Mullen and others looked after the young people's meetings. There was considerable rain and dull weather during the meeting and of course kept a goodly number away from the meeting, but the Sunday crowds were good especially in the afternoon. Bro. Dow had charge of raising the finances and it was wonderful how all the expenses were fully met. If we are working for the good of souls, the Lord will look after the finances. We feel to praise the Lord for the meeting this year at Riverside. God help us to keep on the Bible line of holiness unto the Lord.

We would not want to close this account without making reference to the ordination service that was held on Friday afternoon Aug. 15th, when two of our young ministers, Hollis Kimball and Sewell Hilyard were set apart to the gospel ministry by the laying on of hands and prayer. It was a very impressive service, all the ordained elders present taking part in the service. Bro. Kimball is pastor on the Royalton, Gordonsville Circuit and Bro. Hilyard is on the Millville circuit. These young brethren go forth to the work with the prayers and good wishes of our people. Prayer is a great factor in the success of a camp meeting and there was some real praying at Riverside this year. Let us keep up this prayer spirit throughout the year and note the success. Praise God for the infinite resources that are ours.

ORIGINAL SIN

gressions spring from it. It was called "inbred leprosy" by Charles Wesley, who likened it to a disease deep-seated in the soul.

"Jesus, a word, a look from Thee,
Can turn my heart and make it clean;
Purge out the inbred leprosy
And save me from my bosom sin."

It is this principle that makes people an easy prey to the temptations of the devil. It is the source of all sorrow and sin. It is because of this condition that arises opposition to a godly life. It led men to crucify the Son of God. The apostle was right in saying: "The carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." Provision was made for its cleansing in the blood of Christ.—Ephesians 5:25-27.—The Free Methodist.

BEULAH-ON-THE-SAINT-JOHN

Many changes have taken place here during the past two months—there have been times of joy and of sorrow.

The camp meeting had scarcely begun when Rev. S. H. Clark was brought here, having suffered for several weeks with paralysis of the throat. I was with him much of the time before he passed away. He could only whisper, but would raise his hand, and say, Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! We believe he had an abundant entrance into the Kingdom.

He has been greatly missed this summer. All remember how often he sang the praises of God about his work in the past.

Mrs. Clark and son John have bravely carried on the work at the Beulah store in their accommodating way.

The services have been well attended, conducted by Licentiate Ernest Bradley, whom we believe did his best, which was appreciated. Prayer services have been seasons of blessing, the spirit of fellowship being beautifully maintained. The Sunday School has been an important feature of interest, with an average attendance of about fifty.

Every available cottage has been occupied, besides many rooms at the Riverview Dormitory. Day after day, visitors passed through the grounds, who expressed their admiration of the beauties of Beulah. They seemed deeply impressed with the inscriptions on the stones, which speak of praise to God. Then Jacob's Well and the Lake of Galilee attracted their attention. Many spoke of the spiritual atmosphere which prevailed. One man said, "I have been here a week, walked through the grounds and about the beach, and have never heard even a bad word. I want to come back next year and bring my family."

A very enjoyable Sunday School picnic was held Thursday the 21st. The weather was ideal, about 130 sat down at well laden tables of good things provided by the parents and those who have attended the services. Then ice cream was served. The children were royally entertained, after which they were taken for auto rides.

Rev. F. A. Watson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hanford MacDonald, Rev. I. F. Keirstead and Rev. Dr. Thomas were present also.

The following day a sad drowning accident occurred at Brodie's Beach when Cleo Gertrude Weatherhead, of Saint John, granddaughter of Mrs. A. L. Bubar, while swimming became exhausted through heart failure and sank before aid could reach her. This cast a gloom over the whole place. We extend sympathy to the bereaved. The last Sunday was a profitable day, the morning service was especially well attended, while the Sunday School was of unusual interest. After the lessons were taught, Brother Bullock presented every one present with an appropriate gift, which was indeed appreciated. A unanimous vote of thanks was extended to J. F. and Mrs. Bullock and family for assisting so generously in making the picnic a success.

Eugene Keirstead and wife built a cosy cottage on Bullock Avenue near the lake. All were interested in this addition.

Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, Miss Hilda Cummings and Miss Marjorie Sanphier left for their homes on Monday. Mrs. S. A. Baker, Mrs. Robt. Barr, Mrs. Bates and many others are leaving this week.

We want to praise the Lord for the privilege of staying here this summer, for the wonderful rest for the body, and for all spiritual blessings received. All nature seems to be joining with us this beautiful day, in praise and adoration to our God, who liveth for evermore.

MISSIONARY MEETING

A very interesting missionary meeting was held during the Camp Meeting at Robinson, Maine, on Saturday night, August 16th, at which a most enjoyable program was carried out. The opening hymn, sung by the congregation, was followed by a Bible reading by the evangelist, Dr. Wachtel, after which prayer was offered by Rev. I. F. Kierstead. The Sanders choir then sang a selection, followed by a short talk from Miriam Judson and Charley Sanders. The Sanders choir then sang a song in Zulu, which was greatly enjoyed by all. Rev. I. F. Kierstead gave a short address, also Norman and Grace Sanders. After the offering was received, both Dr. and Mrs. Sanders gave a very interesting talk on different phases of the missionary work. All joined in singing the closing hymn.
