Evelyn Ellen Weymouth, wife of Fred Grant, died at Community Hospital Tuesday morning at three o'clock. Mrs. Grant had been a patient at the hospital for the past three months and had been in failing health for a long time. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Weymouth, of Easton, and was born Feb. 8, 1893, which made her 37 years, six months and four days old at the time of her death. She was married to Fred Grant in 1909. Seven children were born to this union, four of whom survive as follows: Frances, Mrs. Barnes, Marguerite, Lillian and Delvena, all of Fort Fairfield. Besides her husband and children, she is also survived by one half-brother and one half-sister, Charles Weymouth, Pittsburg, N. Y., and Mrs. Harley Pierce, Wells, and two grandchildren.

Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Herbert McBride, John McBride and James McBride, of Easton, and George P. Findlen, of Fort Fairfield. The bearers were Percy Fields, Tom Fitzherbert, Merton Roberts and Frank Davis. The flowers were very abundant and beautiful. Interment was made in the family lot at Riverside cemetery.

F. C. Brown

After a brief illness at his home in Woodstock, N. B., F. C. Brown departed this life Friday, July 18th, 1930. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his wife, one son, Dr. J. F. L. Brown, of Woodstock, and two daughters, Mrs. Allen Sewall, of Devon, N. B., and Miss Flora Brown, at home, besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were on the following Sunday afternoon at his home, conducted by Rev. E. W. Lester, interment taking place in Middle Southampton cemetery.

The many and beautiful floral tributes, as well as the great number who attended the services bore silent but effective testimony to the esteem in which he was held, both in this town, and in fact wherever he was known, and among the many with whom he had business dealings. He lived for many years and carried on a general business in Middle Southampton, N. B., later moving to Woodstock, engaging in farm machinery and potato business. He will not only be missed in his home and by his own immediate family, who have the sincerest sympathy of their many friends, but by the many who knew him.

Andrew Glidden

Mr. Andrew Glidden, of Island Falls, Me., died at the Aroostook Hospital, Houlton, Me., on Sunday afternoon, August 10th. The body was taken from Houlton to Prentiss on Aug. 13th. The funeral was held at the Prentiss schoolhouse at one o'clock. Misses Daisy and Doris Worster and Miss Dorothy Wescott rendered two beautiful selections. The writer was in charge of the service at the schoolhouse and at the grave. The texts were found in Ps. 23:1-4 and John 10:9. Interment was made at the cemetery at Prentiss, Me.

Mr. Glidden was seventy-seven years of age. During the last years of his life he gave his heart to Christ, and faithfully attended the church services when he was able to get there. I baptized Brother Glidden a little over a year ago and gave him the right hand of fellowship into the R. B. Church at Belvedere. During his last illness we had the privilege of reading and praying with our Brother Glidden and he told us that Christ saved him.

The following are left to mourn: three sons, Asa, of Derby, Vermont; Raymond, of Houlton, Me.; and Claude, of Island Falls, Me.; one daughter, Mrs. Chas. Stintson, of Prentiss, Me.; six grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and many friends at Island Falls and Prentiss.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

The following are left to mourn: her beloved husband, Norman Grant; eight sons, Harry, Carl, Roger, Paul, Donald, Kenneth, Norman, jr., and David, all at home; five daughters, Mrs. Helen Lindsay, of Ludlow, Me., Doris, Freda, Letha and Marjorie, at home; her mother, Mrs. Effie Hersey, Island Falls, Me.; three brothers, Scott, Joseph and Vaughn, of Michigan; and one sister, Mrs. Olive Glidden, Oakfield, Me.

The large attendance and the many beautiful flowers showed the place that Mrs. Grant held among the people of the town. The writer was in charge and spoke from John 11:35. Rev. A. The Church passed a unanimous vote of thanks to Miss Sterritt for the beautiful photo presented.

Greys Mills, Kings Co., N.B., July 30, 1930
Rev. P. J. Trafton:

Dear Brother Trafton,—Just a few lines from Greys Mills. On August 8th I arrived home from Deer Island, after finishing the work for the New Brunswick Bible Society allotted to me as colporteur, among the islands of the sea, i.e., Grand Manan, Wood Islands, White Head Island, Gannett Rock—lighthouse and fog whistle station—Campello Island and Deer Islands, including about two weeks at Beulah Camp Ground, during the meetings, making in all about ten weeks work, visiting about 1150 homes. The work of colporteur, or the distributing the word of God throughout the country in the various homes making house to house calls, is a great work affording the opportunity of "speaking a word in season" to the one "who is weary," as well as distributing the word of life. In this way the British and Foreign Bible Societies through their colporteurs are doing a grand work throughout the world, as well as in the translation of the Scriptures in the various languages and dialects.

I feel the work and the change did me a lot of good, both spiritually and physically.

I remain, yours in the Master's service,
S. H. BRADLEY.

It is one thing to talk about the Lord's coming, another to be ready to meet Him. You would be ashamed to see Him, should He find you in a quarrel with a neighbor. True holiness is the only preparation.
