CORRESPONDENCE

North Head, Grand Manan, August 26th, 1930.

Dear Highway,

After Riverside Camp we were privileged to hold missionary meetings at Belvedere and Crystal, where Rev. George Rogers is faithfully labouring and with God's blessing, is building up the work. And now he has persuaded his people to support a native worker on our Mission field.

Rev. Everett Crabtree, pastor of Washburn M. E. Church, gave us a pressing invitation to speak to his congregation, who responded with a collection, $8.23, to help our African work.

At all these places we met a number of people who are much interested in our African Mission work, having kept themselves informed through the King's Highway.

It seems significant that last mail brought us a letter from Africa wishing for enough to support one more native worker.

Yours in Jesus,

H. C. SANDERS.

GOD'S WILL

Henry Drummond threw a searchlight beam into the heart of the problem of surrender when he said this: "There is a difference between doing God's work and God's will." It is not enough to do God's work in general; it is essential that we find out and carry out God's will in particular as it applies to us.—The Christian Layman.

It means much to retain either justifying or sanctifying grace in the heart. Those who retain it must live very low at the feet of Jesus. They must walk in love even as Jesus walked, be swift to hear and slow to speak. They must have their conversation in heaven. The tongues of all the saints are bridled. It is a mistake for men to suppose that they have the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ while they are unholy in conversation. The mouth of the regenerated man is filled with the praises of God. When he drifts into light, trifling conversation he is destitute of the saving grace of God. The Spirit is grieved and will not return until he repents.
