

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. I. F. Kierstead of Saint John, went to Sussex on March 5th to see his brother who was seriously ill.

Rev. George A. Rogers has resigned at Crystal and Belvidere, Maine.

Rev. H. S. Dow has resigned at Hartland, N. B.

Brother Burrell Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, has been assisting in the revival meetings at Perth, and on Sundays others of the praying band go over to assist.

Rev. H. S. Mullen has resigned at Westchester, Nova Scotia. He reports the work as going on well.

Rev. F. A. Watson, of Fredericton, assisted Evangelist E. S. Cosman at Perth in the special meetings March 2nd to 9th.

Rev. G. W. Henderson of Amherst, went to his home in County Harbour, N. S., this week. He accompanied his daughter, who has been in the hospital, and will see his youngest son who is in the hospital at Antigonish, N. S.

Rev. I. F. Kierstead will begin special services in the Reformed Baptist Church, Carleton St., St. John, on Tuesday evening, March 17th, and continue to April 5th. Rev. C. P. Lanpher, of Portland, Maine, will be the evangelist. If you are in St. John any time, don't forget these services. You will be made welcome.

Rev. G. W. Henderson spent Sunday March 1st at Cape Tormentine, N. B., and held two services. Bro. F. H. Lock had charge of the services at Amherst in his absence.

Miss Hazel Mullen is able to take the services again at Black's Harbour, N. B., after an illness of three weeks.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moores who have been spending the fall and winter in Cambridge, Mass., expect to return to Hartland, N. B., the 9th of this month.

Miss Daisy Williams who was operated on for appendicitis at the Saint John Hospital, is convalescing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Flanders, Sheriff St., Saint John.

Mrs. W. C. Wright of Southampton who has been sick in Woodstock, was able to be moved to her home recently.

Mrs. Geo. True and daughter Julia, have returned from Montreal to their home in Woodstock, N. B.

Ziba Orser, of Hartland, met with an accident recently which has confined him to his home.

The ever faithful Sunday School class, of the Moncton Reformed Baptist Church gave Norman E. Trafton a surprise the evening of his birthday, March 3rd, and presented him with a nice gift.

The friends in St. John, N. B., met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Ingersol, and presented Percy Foley with a nice club bag, before his leaving for New York.

Mrs. Charles Beesley, of St. John, who has been very ill recently, is recovering in answer to prayer.

Mrs. Kenneth Northrup, who is a patient at the hospital in East Saint John, is improving.

Jacob Maddison of Moncton, passed his 85th milestone on March 1st. He is hale and hearty.

The man who gets no glimpse of heaven before he dies is not liable to be very much surprised after death. Eternity simply intensifies life. Those who delight in evil here take along their same characters when they pass into the hereafter.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The tenth Quarterly Convention of our Sunday School Association met with the Church at Woodstock, March 6th. The devotional service was in charge of William Rideout, of Hartland.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. F. R. Pickel and was responded to by Earl Sharp, of Maple Ridge.

The following delegates registered:—

Fort Fairfield, Me.—Rev. Ella M. Slipp.

Gordonsville—Mrs. Wm. Waugh.

Lower Brighton—F. K. Brown.

Woodstock—O. R. Estey.

Maple Ridge—Earl Sharp.

Marysville—N. C. Cochrane.

Encouraging reports were read from Fort Fairfield, Belvidere, Gordonsville, Hartland, Lower Brighton, Woodstock, Millville, Maple Ridge, Fredericton, Marysville and Royalton.

Bro. N. C. Cochrane gave a report of Marysville school. Our school is doing wonderful. Many of our scholars give a definite testimony to the experience of holiness. The greater percent of our scholars are young men and women.

Have lost three of our workers by death, but the vacancy has already been filled. Our church is being recruited from the Sunday School. Mrs. Ross Carr, Minnie Estabrooks, Flora Brown and Muriel Lester rendered a beautiful quartette, "I Will Be True to Thee". Mrs. P. W. Burk said of Royalton, we have a devoted lot of teachers, school small but good. O. R. Estey for Woodstock, good interest. Our teachers are doing well. Attendance is increasing. Miss Ella Slipp for Fort Fairfield. Our school has not been large but the attendance is picking up, as well as the spiritual interest. Last Sunday's attendance was 101. Several have been saved of late.

Sup. Harry Clowes spoke on "Things that encourage the Superintendent". The subject is interesting and encouraging. Would rather talk of encouraging things than the opposite. A kind word helps, everyone helping makes a good school. Better a small school with interest, than a large one without. Co-operation is needed. Good attendance, lessons prepared, scholars taking part in discussions, seeing members bringing in new members, and most of all seeing scholars saved.

Rev. H. S. Dow reported being at the Temperance Alliance. The discouraging feature is the government in the rum selling business. The need of a man to take the lead. One great help would be for the preachers to take a stand, preach and cry out against it. Many preachers have been a failure in declaring against the evil. Make it a live question.

Scholars reported 728, teachers 63, average attendance 536, converted during quarter 17.

Had a report from every school in the district with the exception of two that are closed till the first of April.

The secretary had visited several small schools and found the interest beyond what he looked for in some cases, where they had to battle against the cold and snowdrifts.

The reports were more encouraging than we have had at any Convention since organizing. The spiritual element was wonderful. God's benediction was on everything that was said and done. A lot of solid truth was brought forward on holiness lines that was encouraging and uplifting; real food for the soul.

The next convention will be June 5th at Millville.

B. M. COLPITTS, Secretary.

P. J. TRAFTON

O, ye that regard pleasure, profit and honor more than justice, mercy and fear of God; ye that, far from embracing divine truth at the hazard of your reputation spread abroad scandalous untruths to the ruin of other people's reputations; ye who try to persuade yourselves that religion is nothing but a monstrous compound of superstition, enthusiasm and priestcraft; ye who can violate the law of temperance or honesty without one fearful remorse, breaking through promises, oaths and matrimonial or sacramental engagements as if there were no future state, no supreme Judge, no day of retribution, no divine law enacting that "whosoever loveth or maketh a lie shall be cast into the lake of fire," that "the wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God," ye are the persons whom I beg leave to call baptized heathens.—John Fletcher.

If the people who are perpetually running about to meetings for crumbs of help and comfort, would only stay at home and search their Bibles, there would be more happiness in the Church, and more blessing to the world.—F. B. Meyer.
