

CORRESPONDENCE

Gordonsville, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed renewal for the King's Highway. I praise the Lord for his goodness to me, and I love the way of the Lord.

Yours in Jesus' name,

MRS. J. T. CAMPBELL

Royalton, Car. Co., N. B.

As there has been no report from this part of God's vineyard in regard to mission work, I thought at the beginning of this New Year that perhaps the readers of The Highway would like to hear what the Church at Royalton is doing in missionary work.

We meet the last Thursday of each month in the evening. We open our meetings by singing missionary hymns. Our president then reads a Scripture lesson from God's Word. This is followed by prayer in which all the way from five to ten take part, calling on God to bless the missionaries both at home and abroad. This is followed by more singing, and then after the roll is called we have one or more missionary readings or recitations.

The President then throws the meeting open for testimonies or song, and we all have a good time praising the Lord. The Holy Spirit is present all through our meeting and everyone goes away feeling it was good to have been there.

We do not have a large membership, and many do not live here, but the young people come to our meetings and we hope to stamp the need of missions on their young hearts. At these meetings we bring our offerings and the Sunday school also give their last Sunday offering of each month to missions, so by our prayers and offerings we are trying to do our little bit for the heathen in the foreign land.

Dear Highway Friends:

I want to praise my Lord today for His wondrous love, and his care over me and mine in the past year, and my only New Year resolution is, to be more faithful this year and trust Him more than ever before. I am determined by God's grace to make this the best year of my life, in my devotion and love for my precious Saviour. I send greetings to all the Highway family, and wish them a Prosperous New Year in the things of the Lord.

MRS. HENRY J. SEELEY

Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

About this time every year for different reasons I feel led to write to the Highway.

First, I feel like publicly thanking my Heavenly Father for the way he has kept me through the year which has just passed.

As I think of the past twelve months it seems that here have been more trying times, more testings than in any other like period of my life. Times when I would have utterly failed but for the hand of my God, but praise Him I can this evening say, "Thanks be unto God who always causeth us to triumph through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Then again I wish to thank the members and friends in the church here who have been so kind to their pastor and his wife. During Mrs. Watson's recent illness the pantry shelves were even fuller than usual.

Then at Christmas we were recipients of many useful gifts and good things. They also at the Christmas entertainment which was held on New Year's night presented us with a purse of money.

We are looking forward to the New Year with good courage and believe that God will fight our battles, supply our needs and give us victory.

We are expecting to begin special services the first of February with Brother Dow as our evangelist.

We covet the prayers of God's people for his continual blessing upon us.

Yours in His work,

FRANK A. WATSON

Rev. Mr. Trafton:

Enclosed find my renewal to the King's Highway. The paper is a great blessing to me in my lonely hours. I am trusting in the Lord and He is precious to me.

MRS. JOHN JAMISON

Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. We like it as well as ever; enjoy the letters and correspondence. I am thankful for my early training in sanctification and holiness and it stays with me, for which I do praise God. We are all in our usual health, and having a mild winter, real Vancouver winter.

Wishing you the compliments of the season,

Your brother in Christ,

G. H. COLWELL

Port Maitland, N. S.

Dear Brother Trafton:

We feel it our duty at this time to give praise to God for His manifold blessings to us, and to express our appreciation to the friends on this circuit and elsewhere. We were kindly remembered by the people from all parts of our circuit at Christmas time, in spite of the depression that is on. The people find a way of remembering their pastor and family and bringing cheer to our hearts.

We also received many cards from friends in other places. We appreciate all these tokens of friendship.

We had a watch night service at Brother Aaron Churchill's at Sandford New Year's Eve, which was a real blessing to all who were able to attend. God's presence was manifested in a marked manner. This service was a source of strength to all who attended.

Yours, pressing the battle for holiness,

Dear Brother Trafton:

I would like, through The Highway, to express my thanks to the many friends who so kindly remembered me at the Xmas season, with cheering letters, cards, etc.

I miss the home church very much. Jesus is unspeakably precious to me, and He is very real to me these days.

Yours,

MRS. S. H. CLARK

Dear Highway Friends:

We are indeed grateful to the friends, and especially to the brother whose Christmas spirit prompted him to remember, as he expressed it to "the boys at school" through the Students' Fund. We received a cheque for thirty ($30) dollars a few days before Christmas from Sister Slipp, which we wish to acknowledge with appreciation.

We are just starting back to school after the two weeks vacation. It was a very quiet time around E. N. C., but there were always some students needing attention so we never lacked for something to do. Also some good friends invited us out to both Christmas and New Year's dinner, which lent variety to the vacation period.

We are coming near the close of the first semester, which we feel has been very profitable, although of course we shall be more or less certain of it when we have written our final tests which come in about two weeks.

We still solicit the prayers of our friends back home.

Yours in Him,

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed please find money order for The King's Highway, balance for Supplementary Fund.

Wishing both you and Mrs. Trafton a Bright and Happy New Year and that your work in the Master's vineyard may bear much fruit, I am,

Yours in the work,

MRS. F. K. BROWN

Brookline, Mass.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I am sending five dollars for you to put into God's work. It is the desire of my heart to do this bit of good and you will know best where to place it.

Well, Brother Trafton, the old year has gone into eternity, and the New Year is here. Yes, and many dear ones have gone also, but still there is no change with some who are left behind, but God still sits on His throne.

Now I want to wish you a Happy and Prosperous New Year throughout, bringing the lost ones in from the fields of sin. God bless you and your family, and God bless all the holiness ministers—may they be filled with the Spirit of Jesus to help them in their work.

Jesus is very precious to me today and he is my blessed Saviour, yes, my all in all.

Dear Children:

Did you know that the world about us and all God's creation is full of sermons? Notice how Psalm 19 begins: "The heavens declare the glory of God." Then in Psalm 8:3, "when I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained . . ." The meaning is that we have two Bibles. One with the name "Holy Bible" printed on the cover; the other includes all we can see about us of God's creation. I have wondered if Jesus did not point to some beautiful lilies when He said: "Consider the lilies of the field." The lesson He saw in them was so plain to Him, that the lilies seemed almost to talk out loud, while Jesus simply interpreted what they were trying to say: "If God so clothes the grass of the field . . . shall He not much more clothe you?"
