

ATTITUDE OF PRAYER (Continued from Page One.)

how to behave in the house of God. Senator Blease of South Carolina recently said that much crime was due to the disappearance of family prayers from the homes of the people. Certainly, if reverence is not taught in the home nor practiced in the house of God it will fail to function in the lives of men and women.—Maritime Baptist.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed money order for the Highway, which you have so kindly sent on. Thank you very much.

I love to read its clean pages and the letters from so many I have met and known long ago.

Loving greetings to the Highway family.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Praise the Lord for victory. God has given us a very good winter. We enjoyed the privilege of laboring with the pastor and people of the Marysville church from Jan 9th to Feb. 4th. They supported well financially and spiritually. I received splendid entertainment at the home of Mrs. J. H. Steeves.

I have seen fifty-five or fifty-six bow at an altar of prayer since the New Year. Fourteen of those mentioned have been forward in my own churches. Eight came forward for sanctification in the Crystal church on Easter Sunday night.

The interest is real good in both churches. We have had seekers in two of our prayer services of late. Our Sunday services are well attended in the Belvedere church. We have a goodly number present at the mid-week prayer services.

We plan to have a baptism in the near future. We expect that God is going to give us many more souls here. Pray toward that end.

We have organized a Young People's Society of the Belvedere and Crystal Churches. They hold their service at six p. m. on Sunday. These meetings are times of blessing.

I shall pray for your special meetings. May God's richest blessing rest upon your evangelist.

Your brother in Christ,

G. A. ROGERS.

Dear Bro. Keirstead:

As the years pass by and each year we mark off another milestone, we cannot but feel a touch of sadness as we realize our opportunities are passing and our sojourn here becoming shorter, but the gladness, when one can look back, as we know you can and see how your life has been used and blessed to the salvation of many souls, not only at home but in the foreign field.

As this 8th day of April adds another milestone to your life, we your friends and church members wish to take this occasion to acknowledge our deep and sincere appreciation of the faithful service you have rendered us.

As a result of your untiring efforts the Church has been greatly benefitted by your strength and wisdom and your words of help and counsel have guided us through many difficult places. Through yours and Mrs. Keirstead's kind and prayful aid many of us have been led deeper into the way of truth.

So it is our delight at this time to present to you a slight token of the esteem in which you are held.

"Out of the fulness of the heart the mouth speaketh", but words do not always serve the purpose. It is our desire to tender you some tangible expression of the sincere feeling we have for you and to impress upon you the love and goodwill of all.

We ask you to accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value, but as a gift from those who recognize and appreciate your constant and untiring efforts, to minister to their needs in every way and at all times.

We pray that you may long be permitted to glorify Him who has brought you thus far, and made your life a blessing, and in the coming year as you labor among us, let it be our privilege to share it, with you and so prove by our deeds, the love we have for you and your labors.

On behalf of those present,

Signed, H. K. INGERSOLL, Deacon.

The above gift, a beautiful leather brief case, was presented to me at a S. S. Teachers' meeting in the parsonage.

I was taken utterly by surprise but tried to express my appreciation for the gift as well as for their kind words. May the Lord richly bless them.

We also wish to acknowledge a special offering taken for us Sunday night, as an expression of their good will.

I. F. KIERSTEAD.

Dear Highway Friends:

We feel sure that many of you have been praying for our campaign, and would like to hear of the results.

Weeks before the special services, our church began praying for a gracious revival. The Quarterly Meeting in March proved to be a time of refreshing—then Rev. C. P. Laupher of Portland, Maine, came on the 17th in the fullness of the blessing. We feel sure the Lord sent him to us. Brother Laupher is an able preacher, one whom we can recommend to others. His messages which were inspirational and convincing backed up by the Holy Spirit,—brought conviction to all who were in need. Many who were wrought upon, did not have the courage of their conviction, while others humbly knelt at the altar, and wept their way through to God for salvation or heart purity, and quite a number were reclaimed from a back-slidden state, who are testifying to their new found joy. Praise the Lord. Thus our Father has honored our faith by answering prevailing prayer, and gives us new courage. The church has also been graciously revived. The attendance was larger than for years, they tell us; at times, we had practically a different congregation each night, so, many strangers heard the Gospel of full salvation fearlessly preached. The finances came easy, in fact the Lord gave us more than we asked for. Let us all praise Him. We appreciate your prayers in our behalf. Please pray on.

In Jesus' love,

I. F. & I. M. KEIRSTEAD.

Dear Highway:

On Monday evening, March 23, about fifty people from the church and community of Mill-ville, Hawkin's Corner and Maple Ridge met at the home of Brother H. C. Greenlaw's where the pastor was boarding.

The evening was spent very enjoyably by all in singing, conversation, etc. In the course of events, Brother M. H. Young, in behalf of those present, presented the pastor with a very substantial purse of money which has amounted since to upwards of sixty dollars. This was a new experience for the pastor who endeavored to thank the good people. I closed my remarks with prayer. The word says, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Refreshments were served by the ladies. We feel closer drawn to these dear people and believe we know them better. May the blessing of the Lord abide with each is my prayer.

REV. S. G. HILYARD.

Dear Highway:

On Friday March 20, I was invited to spend the day at Mrs. Robert Forman's of Lower Hainesville. When I arrived I found that they were having a quilting. Some ten women of the community gathered for the occasion.

During the afternoon I remarked that it would be nice if they would quilt the preacher a quilt like that.

A very tempting supper was served to which I did full justice.

In the evening some thirty-three young folks met and spent a very enjoyable social evening.

You can imagine my surprise when the Rev. Earle Forman came forward and with a well chosen speech presented the pastor with that beautiful star pattern quilt that the women had worked on during the afternoon.

I tried to respond, but words would not express my feelings. My prayer is that God's richest blessing may rest on the church and community.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I see by the little slip on the Highway that the paper is run out so I will renew for the wife. It seems to help pass away the time wonderfully as we both are not well at all, waiting for that welcome sound, come ye blessed of my Father. Hope you are well and enjoying the presence of the Lord.

Yours very truly,

W. E. VEYSEY

A CHILD'S EASTER

Had I been there, when Christ, our Lord lay sleeping

Within that tomb in Joseph's garden fair,
I would have watched all night beside my Savior—

Had I been there.

All through the long, dark night when others slumbered,

Close, close beside Him I still would have stayed,

And knowing how He loved little children,

Ne'er felt afraid.

I would have kept so still and clasping

My hands together as I do in prayer,
I would have knelt, humble, but oh, so happy!—

Had I been there.

Dear Lord, through death and night I was not near Thee;

But in Thy risen glory can rejoice;

So loud and glad in song this Easter morning,

Thou'll hear my voice.
