A KINGLY GIFT

A king who wished to express his affection for a private soldier of his army gave him a richly jewelled cup—his own cup. The soldier, stepping forth to receive the gift, exclaimed shamefacedly, "This is too great a gift for me to receive." "It is not too great for me to give," the king replied. Is not this the way Christ gives to us?—Selected.

God first came down to create, then to save. To create, God had only to speak; to redeem, he had to suffer. He made man by His breath; he saved him by his blood.—From D. L. Moody.

A BILLION HEATHEN

"There are over 1,000,000,000 heathen in the world," says the Missionary Ambassador, "forty million of whom die every year, or approximately at the rate of one hundred thousand each day. In order to make these figures easier to comprehend let me put them in smaller numbers. Every time you draw your breath four benighted souls slip into eternity. One for whom Christ died passes out into darkness every time the clock ticks! Three out of every four people in the world have not yet heard that God loves them. Think of this! Then ask yourself what you have done to give them the gospel."

One great cause of our insensibility to the goodness of our Creator is the very extensiveness of his bounty.—Paley.
