

it so plain that we here at Jonesport need not err.

Of late our Wednesday night prayer meetings have proven a great blessing. Each member has his turn leading, which proves very helpful in every way. Our meetings are very well attended by people outside the Church.

We would not forget to mention the good work that Mrs. Wilson is doing in the way of special singing and playing which means so much to any service. She has also taken a great interest in the children and formed a young girls' choir.

Pray for us that God will send us a revival that will clean up the town.

Trust that the Quarterly will be a success.
LEOLA BARNES, Clerk of Church.

Seal Cove, Grand Manan.
To the Quarterly Meeting convened at North Head, Greetings.

As we are called upon again to give a report, we feel like praising the Lord for victory.

The church is not at all discouraged because we have a great God who is able to do for us more than we can ask. The services are well attended. We have two prayer meetings each week, a covenant meeting once each month, and a missionary meeting the first Thursday of each month, which is well attended and interest good.

Our pastor is faithful and preaches the word in its fullness, and we feel this too has much to do with the condition of the church. We praise God for some faithful men who dare preach the word without fear or favor.

So knowing we have a great Savior and Leader, we feel like pressing a little closer to Him and trust Him for greater victory.

RUE. INGALLS, Clerk.

Calais, Maine.
To the Quarterly Meeting convening at North Head, Grand Manan.

On reporting to your Quarterly Meeting, I wish to say that our services are not as well attended as we would like to see them, but God is with us. Our prayer meetings are a great blessing to the church.

Our pastor is preaching fine messages which prove a benefit to the people.

We are all very sorry that our pastor has resigned and although we have called other men we are not settled yet as to a preacher for the coming year.

Rev. C. R. Hagerman has been very faithful to our church and he shall be missed by all who know him.

Our delegates to the meeting are Miss Florence and Miss Ada Marten, and Mrs. Lee.

May the Quarterly Meeting be a success, and may all who attend be blessed.

Yours truly,
FLORENCE H. BERRY, Clerk.

Beals, Maine.

Our prayer meetings are very inspiring.

Our Sunday School has a good attendance, and the interest is also good.

We trust the Lord will bless all who attend the quarterly meeting.

H. VINTON BEAL, Clerk.

Moved by C. R. Hagerman, seconded by Chas. Beal that a letter of encouragement be written to the Alley Day Mission by the Secretary. Bro. Archer was also appointed to meet members of the mission and talk over organization with them.

Rev. C. R. Hagerman returned 65 cents bal. from minute book.

The arranging of next Quarterly Meeting was left in the hands of the officers.

Moved by Bro. Archer, seconded by Bro. Hagerman, that a vote of thanks be given North Head Church for their kindness and hospitality in entertaining the Quarterly Meeting.

The report of the Devotional Committee was received and adopted.

Moved by F. A. Dunlop, seconded by C. R. Hagerman, that a note of appreciation be sent to Mrs. Baker. The meeting adjourned with prayer by Bro. Eugene Keirstead.

Saturday evening Bro. Jack Wilson, brought the message from St. John Gospel 11th chapter, part of verses 39 and 44. The message was enjoyed by all.

Sunday morning a very helpful love feast was led by Bro. Henry Benson, followed by preaching by Rev. C. R. Hagerman. Text 2 Peter 3-18. Bro. Hagerman spoke well and gave us good truth although his time was limited.

Sunday evening Rev. F. A. Dunlop brought the closing message from Heb. 10:9. This message was filled with inspiration and blessing and we feel that the Quarterly Meeting was a great blessing to all who attended.

Yours in the work,
R. L. BEAL, Secretary.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 4 convened with the New Tuskett church on Thursday evening, May 21st. Rev. Hartley Mullen of Port Maitland, was the speaker for the evening and brought a strong and helpful message from Isaiah 30:18. This was a grand service and made a good start for the whole series. There being no visiting delegates present, no day meeting was appointed for Friday. On Friday evening, Bro. Hartley Mullen again brought the message. This was another good service. On Saturday afternoon a few met for a business meeting but not enough for a quorum. After a season of prayer a few plans were discussed for the meetings to follow, and the officers remained the same as for last quarter. Part of Saturday night's meeting was given over to the interest of our Sunday School work. Mrs. H. C. Mullen gave an address on the "Relationship of Class and Teacher." Following this H. C. Mullen brought a message bearing on the work of the Sunday School, and yet an evangelistic appeal, from Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to Thy word."

On Sunday our Sunday School session was held from 9:30 to 10:00, and was followed by our love feast, led by Brother Charles Green.

At 11:00 Brother Hartley Mullen was again the preacher and brought a strong and helpful message. In the afternoon Rev. L. J. Sears was the speaker and brought a good message from John 11:28. "The Master is come and calleth for thee". A beautiful scene followed this sermon, when Brother Sears asked how many young people there were present who would come forward and offer themselves to God for any service to which He might call them. Over a dozen came forward, and the Lord came upon the scene and there was a mellowing time.

Brother Hartley Mullen was absent from this meeting in attendance upon the funeral of Stanley Churchill, at Sandford. Some of our church members were absent also attending a funeral of a relative at Brighton, N. S. A good many who would have been with us from Sandford, tarried for the funeral there.

Sunday evening saw a crowded house; a good representation came from Sandford and Port Maitland. Bro. Hartley Mullen again was the preacher for the occasion and brought a strong message on the subject: "The Gains of Godliness", 1 Tim. 4:8. A good lively testimony meeting followed and we closed in victory, after having had a quarterly meeting small in proportion, and offset by about everything that could happen, and yet with God's blessing upon every meeting.

H. C. MULLEN,
Acting Secretary.
