EDITORIAL

We trust that all of our ministers are taking a deep interest in our denominational paper, The King's Highway. You can help the management and editor in a marked degree. The paper is an important part of our work. We believe every pastor and minister should be alive on this point, and bring this phase of our work before the people continuously. The pastor can encourage the people in this matter as well as any other. We are thankful for the interest shown in the past and we trust we may have a revival. Many people when reverses come begin to cut down expenses in the wrong way: They pay less to the work of God, cut off buying religious books and papers and discontinue their subscription to their denominational paper. This is not honoring to God nor helpful to any soul. Buy less ice cream, candy and such like. We should be willing to sacrifice for the cause of God and the spread of scriptural holiness. Why not every subscriber send "The King's Highway" to some one you know who will read it, for a year. We will send the paper to new subscribers from now to January 1st, 1933, in Canada for one dollar and in the United States for one dollar and twenty-five cents. This offer holds good until December the 31st of this year.

We trust that you will all make a vigorous campaign for new subscribers. This would be a fine Christmas Gift to your friends. Let the ministry and laity get busy and double the subscription list. Use some of your tenth money for this worthy cause.

IN MEMORY OF MOTHER

Dearest mother, thou hast left us,
Much we miss thy love and care;
But there is a day soon coming,
When we'll dwell together there.

In that land of joy forever,
No more parting, no more pain;
Just to praise our blessed Saviour,
When our heavenly home we gain.
Daughter Eva (Mrs. V. H. Beckwith)

Be careful for nothing: but in everything by prayer and supplication with Thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.—Phil. 4:6.

THE REVIVAL AT CRYSTAL

I can report victory. Praise the Lord! Amen! Amen! Amen! Rev. E. W. Lester was our evangelist and Brother Bennett Cochrane was our special singer and song leader. Brother Cochrane sang in the spirit and was certainly used of God. We all loved Brother Cochrane, enjoyed his fellowship and deeply appreciated his singing. Brother Lester preached under the anointing. He created a deep hunger on the hearts of the unsaved by his sweet spirit and by his God-given messages. What person of our last Wednesday evening congregation can forget our brother's message on "The strong man armed?" Brother Lester holds a big place in the hearts of the people of this community.

God sealed the first evening service with three seekers. The old enemy knew we meant to have an old-fashioned revival and he did his utmost to keep souls from yielding.

The attendance was very good throughout and the attention almost perfect. At times the tide rose high, but still souls wouldn't yield. The last Friday evening gave us a new grip when we closed up with a good altar service. We entered upon the final day and came to the closing service. We kept believing God. The service opened with singing and prayer. There was a song by a special quartette and then the closing sermon. Our Brother Lester was at his best. God was in our midst. After the message things began to happen. Had I the logic of a Plato, the cleverness of a Webster, the vocabulary of a Paul, and the oratory of a Gouthey or a Bryan, I might be able to speak about, write, or at least outline the closing service. My ability is too limited to portray such a wonderful manifestation of the glory of God. "The joy was unspeakable" and the place was full of glory. Eight souls prayed through, some requested prayer, and others manifested a desire to see loved ones saved. Some laughed, some cried, some shouted, and some sang. They testified, prayed and marched. I wish the Highway friends could have been there. It was the best service that I have witnessed in Crystal. God lavishly bestowed what we craved and what our souls really needed. He did "exceeding abundantly" above what we asked or thought. After singing an old hymn we dismissed a few minutes before midnight. The memory is precious and the joy still lingers. The services are over, but we trust and pray that the revival will continue.

CORRESPONDENCE

Westmorland, N. H.

Dear Brother:

I am enclosing my renewal for "The King's Highway." The dear Lord is blessing us both in soul and body. We find in him all that we need. As time rolls on and by all indications, we are nearing the second coming of our Lord and Saviour. I praise Him the more for the hope we have in him.

Wishing God's blessing upon your work in the home land.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. V. H. BECKWITH

Beals, Maine

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed find money order for King's Highway, it is such a clean paper, so much to help one, the letters from our missionaries are inspiring. Truly our heavenly Father has blessed us much as he is blessing others. I do praise him for his love and care. Our pastor and wife are faithful.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. ALONZO L. ALLEY

Four Falls, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

You will find enclosed postal order for my renewal to the King's Highway. I would not want to do without it. The extra is for the Supplementary Fund. I trust that God will prosper every effort to keep it going.

My testimony is Praise Jesus. He keeps and sanctifies by his precious blood.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. A. A. HARTLEY

Hartland, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed please find money to pay on my subscription to the Highway, also a contribution to the Supplementary Fund.

You say we will have to "borrow money or quit." Holiness people should never say "quit" when it comes to supporting a paper like our King's Highway and I truly think there will be a good response, for when I read your notice in last paper, I immediately resolved to do my bit. I have taken the Highway since the very first edition and it is like a very dear friend to me.

I have heard of people that would deny themselves of butter to save money to go to the "Talkies," and I believe Holiness people should be just as zealous for God's cause as the unsaved are for the pleasures of the world. Bless the Lord, oh my soul, and all that is in me bless his holy name.

Very truly yours,

MRS. W. P. MacMULLIN

THINK IT OVER

The average length of life in India is between nineteen and twenty-one years.

More than 24,000 people die in India every day.

India has 320,000,000 population, 30,000,000 gods, 3,000 castes and infinity of sub castes who cannot eat together or intermarry.

Nineteen hundred years ago Jesus said: "Go . . . and preach the Gospel." Today there are more than 100,000,000 peoples in India who have never heard of the Lord Jesus Christ.

There are more than 700,000 towns and villages in India. It is estimated that no Christian worker has visited half of these villages, even once.

There are in India today many districts containing more than a million people each, without one missionary.

Under Gospel influence India will forget her ancient proverb, "To teach a woman is to put a knife in the hands of a monkey."

The cost for one year of the last war, would pay for the entire missionary enterprise of the world for 365 years.

America spent in one year $2,110,000,000 on tobacco alone. Yet church members on an average gave less than one-tenth of one cent a day, for foreign missions.

"God had only one Son and He was a missionary."

"Ye are witnesses of these things."—Luke 24:48—Selected.
