BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Millville, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

The Lord's blessings are still flowing, for recently I have been permitted to celebrate my eightieth birthday. On that afternoon my wife and I were invited to Brother and Sister H. C. Greenlaw's for tea. After the prayer meeting we were driven home by Mrs. W. C. Estey, there to find many of the community gathered, who tendered me many good wishes.

Refreshments were served which consisted of ice cream and cake, together with a birthday cake topped with eighty lighted candles, made by Mrs. M. L. Jewett.

Brother Greenlaw presented me with a five dollar gold piece, on behalf of the community.

May the Lord richly bless these that I can truly call friends.

DONATION

Havelock, N. S.

We wish to express our gratitude to the friends who gathered at the parsonage on Wednesday evening, Dec. 2nd, bringing with them so many needful things for the comfort of their pastor and family. There were groceries and two automobile tires besides cash, amounting in all to about $35.00.

The evening was spent pleasantly in conversation and singing followed by refreshments.

We thank the people for their thoughtfulness, and God for His watchfulness over us in providing for our needs. We, with others, feel the stress of "hard times," but God's promises will not fail us. "Trust in the Lord, and do good so shalt thou dwell in the land and verily thou shalt be fed."

GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST

Rev. I. M. Kierstead

This was the song of praise that was wafted on the breeze on that night of nights, over nineteen hundred years ago. It has never lost its sweetness; we still love to join that angel choir, especially during the Christmastide.

Jesus was God manifest in the flesh. He was the Father's love-gift to a world lost and ruined by sin. This Gift was the best that heaven could afford. He Who was with the Father "when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy"—was willing to leave the realms of glory and all the honor that was His, and be deprived of the sweet companionship with the Father, because He too loved with an everlasting love. Those lowly shepherds were honored with the first "good tidings of great joy." No wonder they were afraid when that supernatural light shone around them, but their fears were turned into joy by the herald angel who proclaimed the advent of a "Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." "And this shall be a sign unto you. Ye shall find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger." Then they saw and heard "a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

The shepherds found the Babe and worshipped Him, then hurried to spread abroad the wondrous news. Surely that song of praise must have been stamped indelibly upon their memories, so that when they took up the routine of shepherding their flocks again, they could often be heard singing and praising God. This same Jesus has been worshipped by millions on earth. His name has become the best known name in the world, and He is still able to save to the uttermost all who will come unto Him. How wonderful! He is surely worthy of all praise and honor and adoration, and the deepest love of consecrated hearts everywhere.

This worship will naturally result in real service for the Master—helping the poor and needy, visiting the sick and shut-ins, comforting the bereaved and burdened ones, giving a word of cheer to the discouraged, and pointing the sinner to the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world, and above everything else praying fervently and unceasingly for the salvation of souls.

I. M. K.

GOOD WISHES TO ALL

We wish to extend to dear ones everywhere best wishes for a joyous Christmas and a Happy and Victorious New Year.

Norton, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed Postal Note for my renewal to the Highway, and remainder for the Highway Supplementary Fund.

We do enjoy the good reading, including the Missionary letters. We trust God will abundantly bless the work of holiness. We can say that we love the way of the old rugged cross. Glory to Jesus for ever and ever. We are here for only a little while, but oh to be ready to go is the all important thing.
