A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Burton Jewett, of Lower Hainesville, N. B., on the afternoon of August 26th, when Bertie M. Wallace, daughter of Mr. Hall Wallace and the late Mrs. Wallace, of Lower Hainesville, was united in marriage to Fred Jewett, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Jewett, also of Lower Hainesville, by the pastor, Rev. S. G. Hilyard, in the presence of about twenty-five relatives and guests. The single ring service was used.

The bride was becomingly gowned in blue flat crepe with accessories to match. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served.

To this young couple we extend our sincere wishes for a long and happy life.

MISSIONARY CORRESPONDENCE

man came to us that morning and asked for a church to be built. He said his white man was very kind and he was quite sure he would consent if we would ask him for a place to build on.

I might say from the very first day I visited there I was very much impressed that we should have Sunday services at this place, as we see a good field and hungry hearts. We have an appointment there for this coming Sunday.

We are expecting to go to Badaza which is near Swaziland, for a few days also, but at present we have a badly burned child here for treatment, but as soon as the child goes home we are then expecting to go. (D. V.)

The holidays are over now, and the school children seem glad to be back to their studies again.

On July 26th, we had Big Sunday here. Mr. MacDonald and George, both were here. We had a good service. Five women were baptized and several babies were given to the church, among them was Isaya's fourth little daughter of six weeks.

Last Tuesday we had a good meeting not far from here. A good number were present and one gave herself to the Lord. On Friday I went to a heathen home on Kip Vaal quite a distance away arriving there at noon. Shortly after the people all came in good time, about thirty in all, twenty were raw heathen. Isaya and Alice were unable to go with me, and as I looked into these faces, I longed that they might be there to help in the service. I looked to the Lord for His blessing upon us, and to bless His Work and He did. The spirit of conviction was felt and we are going back again soon. Some of these had never heard the Gospel story before and seemed quite touched.

So you see dear friends we need your prayers, as there is much to do and our responsibility is great.

We thank the Lord for His love and care and precious promises. I am,

Yours in Christian love.

HELEN M. STERRITT.

To the editor of The Kings Highway:

Please allow me space to say that I read with much interest the articles written of late by Brother Eugene Keirstead relative to a denominational school, and in as much as he wished an expression from the other brethren on the subject, I want to say that I commend our brother for the interest he is taking in this phase of the work. His articles were clear, logical and to the point and I believe that such a school as he suggests can be put in operation according to his plan.

And who knows but that God has raised Brother Keirstead up for such a time as this.
