His sermon was along the lines of locating ourselves and finding if we had a reason for a hope.

The classes who had no hope were the Atheist, rejectors who compose the greater majority, some other way fellow, and the one who neglects.

Speaker spoke of the great difference between the one who has fought the good fight and the one who has fought for the things of the world. Some fight for good positions but the thing needful and what we should be anxious over is, are we right. Pays to serve God for the sake of being able to live a life free from sin.

Havelock—To the Quarterly Meeting at Havelock: Our meetings are held regularly and attendance good. Since last Quarterly Meeting a "Young People's Society" has been organized. The attendance at these meetings is good. We as a church thank the Lord for a band of young people that have an interest in the Lord's work. Our pastor is faithful and brings us the full gospel.

CHARLES GREEN, Clerk

The cost of coming to Kadesh-barnea, failing in looking at circumstances, rebelling against God and turning our backs on the best advice that God can give us were brought out very plainly.

Our best friend is one who tells us we can be delivered instead of an enemy.

Closing verse: Deut. 1:25: "They saw the fruit."

Four were at the altar at the close of the service.

Preaching service in charge of Rev. L. T. Sabine. Text found in St. John 12 chapter and 35:36 verses.

Subject: "Conscience." A good conscience is the Palace of God. Some have a conscience of unforgiveness, hatred, spite, retaliation, jealousy, strife, selfishness, meanness, backbiting, tattling, but Paul had a conscience void of offence toward God and man. So can we.

Two boys were at the altar.

We feel this was a good Quarterly Meeting. It was the home church of the four ministers who were at their best and every one appreciated having them present.

DOROTHEA LANDERS

QUARTERLY MEETING

Dear Highway

It is our privilege once again to report through your columns another splendid quarterly meeting held in our church at Jonesport, Me., Sept. 1-4 inclusive.

First we want to say we bless God for the quarterly meetings believing them to be a great benefit to our work in general, also a time of immediate results both in the salvation of sinners and the sanctification of believers.

We can well afford to give time and interest to this part of our work.

The first meeting of our quarterly was held Thursday evening. A good congregation was present. The writer had charge of this service basing his remarks on Judges, Chapter 16 and part of the sixth verse: "And Delilah said to Sampson, tell me I pray thee wherein thy great strength lieth." A good testimony service followed in which the people of God responded joyfully.

On Friday evening Brother Bradley preached a splendid sermon on the Ten Commandments. The preacher handled his subject remarkably well, giving us a practical, straightforward talk on the necessity of observing these commands. At the close of this service two were at the altar for the blessing of entire sanctification.

Saturday afternoon business meeting at 2.30. President F. A. Dunlop in the chair. Prayer by Brothers Bradley and Anderson. Minutes of last meeting read and accepted. Roll Call of ministers: F. A. Dunlop, F. A. Anderson, H. C. Archer, E. R. Bradley, H. S. Wilson.

Delegates from Churches present:

Wood Island—Oral Green, Lila Shepherd.

Beals Island—Mrs. J. P. Alley, Mrs. L. H. Simmons.

Seal Cove—Lester Wilson.

Jonesport—Ora Beal, Phoebe Chandler.

Calais—Edith Smith, Elenor Metcalf.

Alleys Bay—J. E. Beal, William Bruce.

Moved and adopted that we extend to the visitors a seat in the meeting with privilege to take part in the deliberations.

Election of Officers:

President—H. S. Wilson.

Vice President—H. C. Sanders.

Secretary—F. A. Dunlop.

Treasurer—C. E. Beal.

Highway Agent—Ernest Bradley.

Devotional Committee—H. S. Wilson, J. E. Beal, Mrs. J. P. Alley, Lila Shephard, Elenor Metcalf.

Reports of Churches were read and accepted.

These reports were all encouraging. Each church commended the faithful efforts of their pastor to promote their highest spiritual good.

Letters received from H. C. Sanders and read at quarterly. We were disappointed that none of our returned missionaries had embraced the opportunity to attend the quarterly meeting. We hope for a better response in the future.

Moved that we accept invitation from North Head church to entertain the Fall Quarterly and that it be held on the Thursday before the first Sunday in November.

Carried.

Devotional Committee reported.

The meeting then adjourned and a meeting in connection with the Young People's Association of the District followed.

On Saturday evening Fred Anderson brought the message, using for a text Jeremiah 49:30. This was a wonderful sermon of warning and exhortation to the people of God.

Our brother stressed the fact that Satan has taken counsel against us and our hope
