September 22, 1932.

Rev. P. J. Trafton,

Dear Brother: Please find enclosed Post Office Order, which amount kindly place to my credit on Highway subscription.

The Highway has ever been a voice calling its readers to the "Way of Holiness", and lies parallel with the pages of the Bible. In these days I realize the preciousness of the Word.

In loving fellowship,
(MRS.) DIADAMA McLEOD.

Jonesport, Maine

Dear Highway Readers:

Greetings in Jesus' name.

I just want to report: The Quarterly Meeting held here the first of the month was a great blessing to us as a church. You note by the report from Brother Dunlop that a number of candidates were baptized Sunday, Sept. 4th. Then on Sunday, 11th, two young women united with the church here. And on Sunday, the 18th, one prodigal left the haunts of sin and barren wastes of the devil, and came back to Father's house, where he got the kiss of pardon put on his brow, and was clothed with the best robe (the robe of righteousness) went back to his home a new creature in Christ Jesus.

We praise God for these blessings and manifestations of His power.

We earnestly covet the prayers of God's children, that He may help us to be more efficient in the greatest work on earth.

Yours in His service,
H. S. WILSON

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The 16th session of the Reformed Baptist Sunday School Convention of District Number One met with the Church at Meductic on Sept. 16th. Rev. Hollis Kimball acted as President in the absence of Pres. F. K. Brown.

Opened with song service led by Lic. Geo. DeLong. The devotional service was in charge of Sister Chas. Mutch, who read and commented on 1st John 2: Jesus lived a life of unselfishness and we should walk as he walked.

Mrs. Arthur Owens gave the address of welcome which was responded to by Blanche Young.

A duet was beautifully rendered by Sister Flora Brown and Mrs. Geo. B. True. The election of officers resulted as follows: Fred K. Brown, President; N. C. Cochrane, Vice President; B. M. Colpitts, Secy.-Treas. The additional members of the Executive are Otis Ames, Fort Fairfield, Me; Rev. F. A. Watson, Fredericton, and Rev. H. S. Dow, Hartland.

Schools represented were: Fort Fairfield, Me., by Leon Cogswell; Royalton, B. Burke; Hartland, Mrs. H. S. Dow; Lower Brighton, Alice Tedlie; Marysville, Gertrude Cochrane; Woodstock, Flora Brown.

Brother S. Hilyard reported verbally for Millville, which showed up grandly in increased attendance and interest.

Sister Flora Brown reported for Woodstock; have 10 classes. The primary class is increasing fast. The Superintendent nearly always present. She suggested a worship service on opening of schools.

Duet by Bennett and Gertrude Cochrane, "Mother's Old Bible."

Sister H. S. Dow announced the Annual Temperance drive will begin Sunday, Oct. 2nd, in taking up the Temperance Education lessons as published by the Northern Messenger.

Brother Arthur Owens led a discussion on "How should a Sunday school teacher prepare his or her lesson." To begin with the teacher should know God and take it before him and get the lesson imbedded in his own heart. Learn it first and then will be better fitted to teach it. The more we study the Word the better the teaching. Have the idea the lesson should go on and link with the next.

Brother Dow said: The most important matter is to know the lesson. Have to make a different preparation for adults or younger classes. First get a point of contact with the scholars. Do not ask for attention, but take it, by beginning on something the scholar is familiar with and knows about, and immediately you have their attention.

Brother L. T. Sabine said there were two ways of teaching by the lecture and question method. A profitable way to question is to get the class asking questions. Have them bring written questions. Have the lesson well in your own mind and then be better able to impart it.

The Convention was asked for suggestions for the next session. Three were given, "How to boost for attention." Have a lesson taught. The place of worship to the Sunday School.

Thus ended a real profitable Convention, attended with a real grand spiritual atmosphere, with no long dry speeches whatever. Many were gladdened and blessed.

Yours in love with the work,
B. M. COLPITTS, Secy.
