

OBITUARY

Mrs. Thomas Estey

This community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Thomas Estey on Sunday, November 20th. The cause of her death was pneumonia, and she was only sick for 5 days. Being born in Royalton 60 years ago, she always made this place her home. She was a woman of quiet disposition, strong Christian character, and was devoted to the welfare of her family.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother, her husband and three children, Ellery and Pearl at home, also Mrs. Alden Haines.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, November 22nd, at the late home, and the Reformed Baptist Church conducted by the pastor. Interment in Royalton Cemetery.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

Mrs. Hannah Parlee

Mrs. Hannah Parlee passed away Saturday, November 19th, at her home, 25 Waverly St., Belmont, Mass.

She was born in Millstream New Brunswick, 43 years ago, and lived there until five years ago, when she went to Belmont. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, John Parlee, and two daughters, Mrs. T. T. Boates and Willa Parlee. Three sons, Purdee, Wesley and Esty. Two small granddaughters and a host of relatives and friends also survive.

The funeral service was held Nov. 21st, at 2 p. m. at the Church of the Nazarene in Somerville, where she had been a faithful member for the past four years. She was at church Sunday, Nov. 6th, and seemed in the best of health. She took a cold during the week which developed in double pneumonia. Many prayers went up to God for her recovery but He Who doeth all things well, seemed best to take her home. Her Pastor called on her the day before she died. As he prayed she began to praise the Lord and tell how precious the Savior was to her.

The funeral service was in charge of the Pastor, Rev. T. W. DeLong, assisted by Rev. W. E. Smith, former acquaintance of the deceased and Evang. Miles Trafton, pastor of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, Cambridge. Mrs. Doris DeLong sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", "No Disappointment in Heaven", "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling", and "We'll Say Goodnight Here and Good Morning Up There."

Mrs. Parlee is survived by her Father, five sisters and two brothers, all of New Brunswick, except two sisters, Mrs. Fred Parlee of Watertown, Mass., and Mrs. Stanley Keefe, of New Jersey, who was privileged to attend the funeral.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, which spoke of the high esteem and love of her friends and of the deep sympathy extended to the bereaved family.

Interment was in the Belmont Cemetery.

"Not now, but in the coming years

It may be in the better land,

We'll read the meaning of our tears,

And there, up there, we'll understand."

Mrs. Julia Van Dyne

One of the oldest residents of Carleton Co. slipped away to be with Jesus on Nov. 30th, from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mack Fulton, of Knoxford. She was in her 93rd year. Her death was simply due to old age. Our sister was one of the old pioneers, coming to Knoxford with her parents when a young girl. In early life she became a Christian, and continued serving her Lord over three-quarters of a century. Her life was remarkable for her faith and good works and devotion to the cause of God. She was married in early life to John Van Dyne, who died about 40 years ago. To this union were born seven daughters. Two of these died in infancy. Those remaining are Mrs. George Wheeler, Mrs. John Piper and Mrs. Mack Fulton, all of Knoxford; Mrs. Chas. Crone, of Centreville, and Mrs. W. R. Trafford, of Florenceville, N. B., in addition to 22 grandchildren, and 32 great grandchildren besides a large number of other relatives.

Her funeral was held from the Baptist Church, Knoxford, Friday, Dec. 2nd, conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. J. Gordon Duncan, of Tracey's Mills. Pallbearers were six of her grandchildren. Interment in adjoining cemetery to await the Resurrection.

I AM CALLING YOU

I am the best friend you ever had;
I am hung about with sweet memories—
Memories of brides, memories of mothers,
Memories of boys and girls, memories of the angels as they walk in the shadows.
I am blessed with loving thoughts, crowned by happy hands and hearts.
In the minds of the greatest men of earth I find a constant dwelling place.
I safeguard man through all his paths;
I lift up the fallen; I strengthen the weak;
I help the distressed, I show mercy, bestow kindness, and offer a friendly hand.
I am good fellowship, friendliness, and love.
Some time, some day, in the near or far future you will yearn for the touch of my friendly hand.
I am your comforter and your best friend.
I am calling you now.
I am the church.
