REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL REFORM

We your committee beg leave to submit the following report:

Insofar as we can discern, there is no improvement along this line and one hardly knows where to place the blame.

We have social service clubs and councils, which we believe are sincere in their endeavor to lessen social evils, and to alleviate distress directly traceable to the grosser sins.

We believe that possibly every Christian Church makes valiant effort along this line, but there is quite evidently much of failure in this high endeavor.

We believe that much of the failure is in the lack of careful and prayerful home training of the young.

We believe that if every home had a family altar and every family a family pew, that much of the present evil would be banished.

We are glad to notice some improvement in women's dress.

The drink evil is still with us. Boys and girls are still indulging in the degenerating demoralizing cigarette.

The large number of overnight camps, conducted in a very lax manner, is we believe a menace to the youths of our country.

The divorce evil which is, we believe, the result in most cases of gross sin, is still increasing.

We believe that the practice of mixed bathing is an evil, and further that it should be prohibited from a holiness camp ground.

We fear that not much of real benefit so far as legislation is concerned can be expected until the professed followers of Jesus take a decided stand on every moral issue.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. A. WATSON
