

CORRESPONDENCE

Fort Fairfield, Me.

Dear Brother

Yesterday, Oct. 10, was our Rally Day in S. S., and our attendance was 119. Our attendance is good in the preaching service and in the prayer meetings. We are looking to the Lord for a revival. Amen!

Yours for Holiness,

G. A. ROGERS

Meductic, N. B.

A Young People's Society of the Reformed Baptist Church was organized at Meductic, Oct. 7th, by the District President, Lic. George DeLong, who has been with us in special services.

Officers elected were:

President—Beatrice Marston.

Vice President—Wilton Marston.

Treasurer—Annie Rogers.

Secretary—Vaughn Dow.

Brother DeLong preached the truth under the unction of the Holy Spirit. He has been a great blessing to us and we feel encouraged to press on. We are looking to the Lord for help and guidance in our undertakings.

Yours for His service,

VAUGHN E. DOW,

Secretary

Summerfield, N. B.

Dear Mr. Trafton:

You will find enclosed money order, the renewal for the Highway. I have taken this paper for many years and enjoy the spiritual blessings I receive from it.

Your sister in my Loving Saviour,

MRS. R. LUNN

North Head, Grand Manan, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

May be you would be interested in a little account of my doings this summer.

I left home July 4th to attend Beulah Camp Meetings, expecting to return in a week or two. The Cosmans had invited my sister and me to visit them, so we went to Kingston where we stayed about three weeks. During that time we had the privilege of giving several missionary addresses in the Kingston and Grey's Mills churches. So often while in the presence of Mrs. Wesley Cosman my mind recalled various African memories, because of her sister, Alice Sterritt's striking likeness to her, and could not but feel at home with them from the first. We enjoyed the Christian fellowship with them.

We had a shorter but very enjoyable visit with the Bradleys at Grey's Mills.

Miriam and I then spent several days with Mrs. Harry Cook, of North Devon, and had a very nice time with her. Brother Sabine took us to Marysville and also to Mt. Hope, where we spoke of the work and people so dear to our hearts.

Judson joined us there and we three traveled by train to Centreville. Brother Hollis Kimball met us at the station and we stayed with them over night, and the following day drove to the Camp at Riverside. We certainly had a blessed time at the two camp meetings this year. I counted it a great privilege to take a number of the children's meetings, and still more so to lead thirteen to our Saviour Who said, "Suffer the little children and forbid them not to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." The "little children" of today are the young men and women of tomorrow. At the pace the world is going now the young people are getting harder and harder to reach all the time, and if we "forbid them" to come to Jesus while "little children" we may never reach them.

When the Camp Meetings closed I spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. J. McBride and another with Mr. and Mrs. Kinney in Maine; then went to Brother and Sister Kimball's. While with them I supplied for him twice and gave a missionary address. Miriam, who had been visiting elsewhere, joined me on a Friday afternoon. Brother Kimball took us to Fort Fairfield, where Judson once more joined us and we had a missionary meeting. We very much enjoyed the Christian fellowship with Brother and Sister Rogers.

In a very definite way God guided me to go to Nova Scotia in company with Mrs. Kimball and little ones. I thought it was to attend the quarterly meeting at New Tusket and to visit my relatives in Port Maitland, but He willed otherwise and was revealing but a step at a time. I had a pleasant stay over the week-end with Mrs. Kimball's folk. I spent a week with my uncle and aunt in Port Maitland, and was blessed in leading a prayer meeting (young people's); also spoke on Africa to the ladies of the Baptist Church. Sunday I went with Brother Hartley Mullen and spoke in the morning at Port Maitland, at Brazil Lake in the afternoon, and at Sandford in the evening. As usual God blessed me much in giving information about the African Mission work. I stayed in Sandford that week and was requested to give another address Tuesday evening which was their regular monthly missionary meeting.

Brother Hallett Mullen asked me to go with them to Wood's Harbor and speak to the people there on Sunday. I did so, still carefully following the "pillar of cloud," and waited two weeks for it to lift and move on. From what the Mullens told me of the new place and the labor spent on it, I was greatly interested in the work. I visited around a little. While in Charlesville was requested to lead a prayer meeting in the Advent church. God blessed, and after meeting the deacon asked me if I would preach for them Sunday morning. Thursday we had a cottage meeting at Wood's Harbor—in spite of rain quite a number were present. Had a good time. Sunday was a busy day for me but God blessed me and upheld me and guided in a wonderful way. I had liberty and blessing in each of the three services. Though I felt timid, being alone, yet I was not alone—Jesus stood right by me—praise His name!

Two ladies requested the next cottage meeting be in their homes. I turned to the janitor of the Hall to decide which to choose, and he said, "Why not have two?" So two were appointed for Thursday and Friday. They were very well attended—around thirty or over I should judge. Folk came from Charlesville, about seven miles, on foot. One, in his testimony, said that as he was working that day, God spoke to him and said, "I have a blessing for you at Wood's Harbor tonight." He replied, "Lord, if you have a blessing for me at Wood's Harbor, I am going." He came the following night also. Yes, we had two good cottage meetings that week. Sinners and backsliders were present and wiped tears from their eyes. Thank God! May He continue to speak to them and may they heed His voice 'ere it be too late! Half of the company, I guess, were young people. They show a great interest!

The following Sunday Brother H. E. Mullen came and preached to them in the afternoon. He was surprised at the number present—over sixty—and I felt encouraged when he said it showed the interest was good. Yes, the Sunday evening before there was not an empty seat.

He made enquiries and learned that the people were "just crazy" to have me stay on. I had been much in prayer over this matter, and felt it to be God's will for me to return after a couple of weeks home. I feel it to be a "Macedonian call" because otherwise the little flock would be utterly neglected this winter. So, friends, I want to praise God for this open door of opportunity. I realize it is a big undertaking and responsibility and would never attempt it if it were not for God's blessed promise: "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee," and such a wealth of others! Praise His name! Oh, how precious Jesus is to me! I have had to lean upon Him so much this summer, and oh, how my heart wells up and overflows with love and gratitude to Him for this wondrous salvation which saves, sanctifies and keeps me day by day.

I had a day in St. John and was so glad to meet Judson there where he is attending school. Brother Kierstead informed me that it had been announced that I was to lead the prayer meeting that night. I was pleased to be there as it is my first opportunity of entering that church.

It seems too good to be true that I am really home once more, though it be for so short a time.

Yours, earnestly desiring the prayers of the Highway family and readers,

GRACE M. E. SANDERS

MARRIED

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, Me., a quiet wedding took place on Saturday evening, Sept. 17th, when Malcolm McBride, of Machias, Me., was united in marriage to Miss Beatrice Perkins, of Alexander, Me. The ceremony was performed by the writer.

H. S. WILSON

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, Me., a quiet wedding took place when Laurence M. Emmerson and Miss Rachel C. Faulkingham, both of Jonesport, were united in marriage in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by the writer who extends to this young couple best wishes.

H. S. WILSON

Myshrall-Turner

The Reformed Baptist parsonage of Millville was the scene of a quiet wedding when on the evening of Sept. 8th Randolph, son of Wilmot Myshrall, of Maplewood, was united in marriage to Rachel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, of East Newbridge, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The single ring service was used. The couple were unattended.

S. G. HILYARD

"Only melted gold is minted; only moistened wax receives the die; only broken hearts can take and keep the impress of heaven. If that is thy condition, wait beneath the pressure of the Holy Spirit. He shall leave the image of Jesus upon thee."—Finney.