

PERSONALS

We heard of two preachers who attempted to cross the U. S. boundary recently and were turned back by the U. S. authorities. And we are wondering why! Some said that it was because the U. S. authorities feared that these men might become public charges, and others said that it was because they were such distinguished looking gentlemen that the U. S. authorities feared that they would be so much in demand as preachers that they would take positions from the preachers of that country. We are very glad however that they did not go over to stay, for we need them very much in this country. —Editor.

Our missionary treasurer, Rev. L. T. Sabine, received a cablegram recently from Africa saying that Faith MacDonald is sick in the hospital. We have had no word from there since.

The Editor had a letter from Rev. W. E. Smith, who is at present holding a tent meeting at Summerside, P. E. I., for the Church of the Nazarene. He not only has the powers of darkness to contend with, but also the prince of the power of the air. He says his tent has blown down twice.

We are sorry to hear that Sister I. M. Kierstead is in very poor health this summer and is confined to her bed much of the time. Mr. J. F. Bullock was at Riverside Camp Meeting as usual this year and played the organ. He reports the work at Beulah going on under the supervision of Rev. I. F. Keirstead.

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Our camp meetings are over for another year and the brethren of the ministry are turning their full attention to their respective fields of labor.

The following were in attendance at Riverside Camp and preached several times each, and most all seemed to be at their best.

Rev. P. J. Trafton from Port Maitland, N. S.; Rev. F. A. Watson, Fredericton; Rev. G. A. Rogers, B. A., Fort Fairfield, Me.; Rev. S. G. Hilyard, B. A., Millville, N. B.; Rev. H. L. Robertson, Woodstock, N. B.; Rev. A. J. Owens, Hartland, N. B., and Rev. H. S. Dow, Moncton, N. B., were in attendance from the beginning of the camp and after the first Sunday. Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Marysville, Rev. C. R. Hagerman from Westchester, N. S., came and added much to the success of the meeting.

Rev. F. T. Wright and Burrell Kimball and Rev. M. Ella Slipp, of Fort Fairfield, were also present and Lic. Hazel Owens, of Hartland, who also assisted in the preaching and singing.

Besides these the Reformed Baptist Male Quartet was present over the first Sunday, and sang very acceptably and the Cogswell mixed quartet sang on the last Sunday afternoon and was very much enjoyed; and last but not least, Rev. C. S. Hilyard, who is at present preaching at Grafton Center, N. H., the church of the Nazarene, gave us all a very pleasant surprise when he with Mrs. Hilyard, drove in on Saturday afternoon. We were delighted to see him and also hear him preach on Saturday evening.

There were several others who sang duets and solos which added much to the interest of the meeting. Lic. Bennett Cochrane and Lic. Norman Trafton, who sing in the quartet, were also present the first Sunday.

Rev. H. E. Mullen and family are nicely settled and at work on their new field at Lower Millstream. Rev. S. A. Mullen has also moved to the Meductic circuit and is in the parsonage there.

Rev. H. S. Mullen and family moved to St. John before Beulah Camp and are finding the work encouraging there. Rev. I. F. and Mrs. Keirstead are spending the summer months at Beulah and are taking care of the spiritual interests of the people there.

Rev. Hollis Kimball and Lic. George DeLong are still holding on in the tent meeting at Lubec, Maine.

Lic. Harvey Blaney expects to take up his work soon at Royalton, Knoxford and Brookville group of churches. He has married a wife, but unlike the man in the parable, He can come.

Lic. Emery Cosman is still engaged in tent meetings on his charge. He supplied at Moncton in the absence of their pastor on Sunday, Aug. the 13th, and Lic. Arthur Deadman took his place at Amherst.

Rev. P. J. Trafton on his return home from Riverside camp meeting, passed through the following places and made a few calls on old friends: Hartland, Woodstock, Fredericton, Moncton. They were all very glad to meet their pastor of former years.

QUARTERLY MEETING

G. A. ROGERS, Secy.

"You remember John McNeill's story of the captive eagle which grew up in the hen yard with a clog on one of its feet. At last the man decided to liberate the eagle and took off the clog, but it went hopping about just the same. So one morning he set the eagle on a wall just as the sun was rising. The eagle looked for the first time at the rising sun, then, lifting himself up, he stretched his mighty wings, and with one scream launched himself into the upper air. He belonged up there all the time, and had simply been living in the wrong place. Thus, reader, stretch the pinions of your soul, beat the lower air and rise until you are with the enthroned One."—C. I. Scofield.

The great mystery of time, were there no other; the illimitable, silent, never-resting thing called Time, rolling, rushing on swift, silent, like an all-embacing ocean-tide, on which we and all the universe swim like exhalations, like apparitions which are and then are not; this is forever very literally a miracle; a thing to strike us dumb, for we have no word to speak about it.—Carlyle.

"Where there is no principle there is no true piety."—The Wesleyan Methodist.

"Forgetfulness is no excuse. It is our business to remember a duty until it is done."

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING

This annual spiritual feast opened at the grounds at Robinson, Me., on Friday evening, August 11th. The President of the Alliance, Rev. F. A. Watson was in his place as leader of the host of the Lord, under the direction of the Holy Spirit. The grounds committee had everything in shape and place, the only things missing were the collection plates, probably someone thought they would not be needed, as times were so hard, but praise the Lord, help was given by Him and we were able to break even.

We had no special evangelist this year, but our own brethren did the preaching and someone spread the news that they all excelled themselves. They certainly preached in the demonstration of the spirit and power. There were not as many seekers at the altar as at some other times, but that was not the fault of the preachers or the Holy Spirit, for He was present in convicting and drawing power, but the spirit of resistance on the part of people as they reject truth is tremendous. Jesus said of the Jews, "Ye will not come unto me that you might have life," and so it is today. There were a number of seekers who were definitely helped and the saints were refreshed and edified.

The music was under the direction of the President. Our Brother John Bullock was at the organ again this year and was a real inspiration to the meeting. Miss Gertrude Watson presided at the piano, the special singing was good, Mr. Watson and Gertrude, Mrs. Arthur Owens, Miss Luna Thorne, the Cogswell Quartette and others, rendered very acceptably special selections.

The hotel committee was efficient under the direction of Rev. S. G. Hilyard and gave fine service. Mrs. Mary Nixon was the cook. Good crowds were in attendance on both Sundays. The weather was fine throughout the entire meeting, and the order was good except the last Sunday night, when some little disturbance took place around the doors. The preaching was clear and definite. This is a holiness camp meeting, and God expects this standard to be raised.

The Reformed Baptist Quartette were present the first Sunday and were appreciated by all who heard them. They were on the air Tuesday Morning, August 15th, from Presque Isle, Maine.

We praise God for Riverside Camp Meeting 1933. God was with us. His blessing was upon us, and we give Him all the glory for all that was accomplished. Mrs. F. A. Watson had charge of the childrens meetings, which were well attended. The Young People's meetings were also held and were a blessing to the nice crowd of young folk who attended.

Let us labour and pray for a great camp in 1934 if Jesus tarries.

P. J. TRAFTON
