

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. H. E. Mullen visited Beulah Camp Ground Sept. 6th. He went with Brother Noah Hicks who went to close the grounds. They report that it seemed very quiet down there as all the people who spent summer there are gone.

Rev. C. R. Hagerman's address at present is, Fort Fairfield, Care Rev. Geo. Rogers. He is open for calls to evangelistic work anywhere. He preached at Fort Fairfield Sunday night, Aug. 27th, and one seeker was at the altar. He also preached at Perth, N. B. in the afternoon of Aug. 27th, and again in the afternoon and evening of Sept. 3rd.

Rev. Geo. Rogers, B. A., reports excellent services with much blessing from the Lord, at Fort Fairfield church, both in preaching services and prayer-meetings.

Lic. E. A. M. Keirstead, B. A., who with his family spent the summer months at Beulah, has returned to his duties again as principal of the Plaster Rock high school.

Lic. E. Cosman is still continuing his tent meetings at Miller's Corner with good interest. He attended the quarterly meeting at Westchester.

Rev. A. J. Owens and wife report the work encouraging on their field. Brother Owens goes to Gordonsville for a service every Sunday afternoon.

Rev. L. J. Sears is doing good work at Westchester and is much appreciated by his people. He is also improving the parsonage both in appearance by giving it two coats of paint and in comfort by improvements on the inside.

Rev. Hollis Kimball made a visit to Tusket, N. S., lately after his family and on his way back stopped over one day at the quarterly meeting at Westchester. He and Lic. Geo. DeLong have closed their tent meeting at Lubec, Maine, and report a very good meeting. They say that there is a good opportunity for a holiness work there. They found many hungry souls who would unite with a holiness church if they had a place to worship in. And there is an excellent church building there which could be bought very reasonably if the money was available. Brother Kimball is praying that some good brother or sister who has money to let will hear the voice of God calling them to help start a holiness church at Lubec. He says it will not take a large sum to buy an excellent building on which he could give security if necessary. Whoever reads this and has some money that you can spare to do some work for the Lord's cause, please write Brother Kimball at Fort Fairfield, Maine and he will tell you all about it. The Lord bless you.

Rev. H. E. Mullen is engaged in special meetings at Killam's Mills. Lic Arthur Deadman is assisting him on Sundays. He reports good crowds in attendance and meetings encouraging and some souls getting help.

Rev. H. S. Mullen reports good crowds and work going well at St. John and Grey's Mills.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead supplied for Rev. L. T. Sabine who was attending the Quarterly Meeting at Millville, N. B. on Sunday evening, Sept. 10th. Brother Sabine reports a good Quarterly Meeting with good attendance.

PERSONALS

Rev. G. A. Rogers' wife has been ill at her father's home in Clifondale, Mass., for several weeks past, but is improving slowly. Remember her when you pray.

A letter from I. A. J. Ward who is in Vancouver, B. C., reports the family in good health and he is still enjoying the blessing of the Lord in spite of depression. Brother Ward is very much missed by the Hartland church, where he was a very consistent and helpful member for so many years.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Gross and son Zenas, have returned home again after a very pleasant visit with friends in Toronto.

AN APPEAL

To our dear friends and lovers of the missionary work at home and in the foreign field, we bring greetings in Jesus's name.

We all rejoice today that we are so highly honored by the Lord of the harvest as to be taken into partnership with Him in spreading the glad tidings of full salvation to lost men and women. He has assigned to us a portion of the dark continent, Africa, as our special field of activity in the foreign missionary work.

For all that has been accomplished during the past, both at home and abroad, we praise Him, and this success stimulates and encourages us to further action.

Many who have been deeply interested in and sacrificed for the missionary cause have been called to higher service and we honor their memory. It is for us who are now responsible to shoulder the care and discharge our duty faithfully.

Others by their faith in God and their initiative have established the work, shall we do less than keep it going? We believe many will answer, "No, let us push it farther and take new territory".

Though some have fallen from the ranks, the gaps have been as quickly filled and together we follow the Master's command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

Our missionaries are still laboring faithfully and while they stick to their posts we must not forget nor neglect our part, without which they cannot carry on. Recently Sister Faith MacDonald has been taken to the hospital for treatment and we are asked to remember her in our prayers. We trust for her soon recovery. This sickness means added expense to the missionary family.

Then our native workers, whose labors are so blessed of God, and who now form no small asset to the work in Africa, must be supported. Some are doing nobly along this line, let others join in their support.

Together with Sundry expenses about the two mission stations, Balmoral and Altona, our financial obligations continue on month after month.

Owing to present conditions funds have not come into the treasury sufficiently to keep going. The small reserve which we have been able to maintain for some time past is practically depleted and the treasury nearly empty. Always when the needs of our work have been placed before the people they have been met with a hearty response, for always has the work been carried on with an open hand.

Let the churches, societies, Sunday schools and private individuals do your best to make this a "missionary year" in spite of circumstances.

No matter how small your contribution it will be appreciated and acknowledged in the "Highway".

We miss several of the larger gifts we used to receive from interested lovers of the work. Pray over the amount you shall give to the missionary cause.

In our missionary work every dollar goes as directed. All office work is done gratuitously.

When there is a need a supply exists somewhere, and if released for the purpose all is well.

There is no need of starving men, women and children when the grain bins of the world are overflowing, nor is there need of any freezing when store houses are filled with clothing as exists today. Oh that possessors of this world's goods enjoyed the love of God, then what?

When Cornelius wanted help there was a Peter to send to his aid, so as the foreign missionary needs appear there is a supply somewhere. Do you possess what God would have you put into His work?

If we have to do without let it be other than along religious and spiritual lines. We cannot afford to do otherwise.

On behalf of the Mission Board we thank you for all you have done and all you are going to do in this cause.

Please do not keep your funds till the end of the year, but forward them as you can. Thank you.

Yours in His Service.

L. T. SABINE, Treasurer,
Box 272, Marysville, N. B.

A PRAYER

God, it is not for prosperity we pray,
Ah, that is not a prayer that Thou canst hear.
Give us the consciousness of sin today,
The fundamental, age-old, reverent fear,
That leads to penitence on bended knee,
That strips us of all insincerity,
And shows us where we erred.
"All we like sheep have gone astray."

God—bring us back.

And when a lost world finds itself again,
And kneels before an all redeeming Cross;
When men once more give only love to men,
And count their souls' gain by worldly loss;
When Jesus reigns supreme in hearts now cold,
And lost sheep find again the Shepherd's fold;
When greed has taken flight, ah, then,
O Father, Thou canst hear
A nation's prayer. —Lillian Collier Gray.
