

gifts. We never appreciated more the financial gifts than we did this year. We have been busy in the evangelistic field since Beulah but offerings have been, for the most part, very small. People no doubt did their best but money in most places is very scarce. We are now assisting Rev. H. C. Mullen in special services in our home church. He wanted meetings but hated, in a way, to ask us for he said he had nothing to offer us in the way of finances, but we are helping him just the same and helping him just as freely as though he were giving us fifty dollars a week, and are looking to God to put it on the hearts of those who do have to supply needs. Our pastor here observed the week of prayer. We preached for him once during same, and it was also our privilege to participate in the week of prayer at Weymouth and preached in the United Church of Canada there last Friday night.

We began here Sunday night the eighth inst. for a week of revival services and God gave us a gracious meeting Sunday night. The power of God was very manifest and two young men and a young woman found their way to the altar of prayer; they seemed to get through real good. We are trusting God to give us other souls during the week and over next sabbath. We would like to mention our meeting at Killam's Mills. We had another good time with those dear people. We did not see the results we would like to have seen, but we believe eternity alone will reveal the good done. The last Sunday we were there the pastor, Rev. S. A. Mullen, had a baptism and received two into the church. They have a fine body of people and are making good progress for a young church. May God bless them.

We covet the prayers of God's people for us in the work.

We are open for evangelistic work and are also open for a call as pastor for the coming year.

Yours for souls.

Dear Highway:

We desire to give a brief report of our revival meetings, which began Nov. 6th, and ran a month. Our Brother, Burrell Kimball, was the evangelist. His messages were plain, forceful and direct, and the unction of the Holy Spirit was upon him. He carries a burden for souls, prays much, and this is the secret of every revival.

There were a number of outstanding cases of salvation, most of whom never made any previous start. We have some fine prospects for members. Quite a number were seekers of holiness, and a few obtained the experience. We trust others will seek until they find.

This meeting means a great deal to our church here, promoting increased interest in every department, and puts our church in a greater limelight in this section. Again we are convinced that revivals pay.

We were greatly assisted by Brother Leonard Hutchins of Fort Fairfield, who left his work a number of days, and prayed and labored and helped in other ways. Also Sister Slipp spent the last three days of the meetings here, and preached once. We do thank God for this meeting, and for the souls saved, and expect to press the battle with greater faith and fervour.

Yours for Holiness.

Dear Highway:

Havelock, N. S.

Since Christmas has come and gone leaving with us so many expressions of good wishes from our friends, we would like to thank them for their kind remembrances and wish them a truly prosperous New Year.

As we recall the brothers and sisters in the various churches, we have served and throughout the denomination, we would like to send the season's greetings to every one. Finding this quite impossible, we take this way to extend our best wishes, praying that God will bless us all together as a denomination and that we may truly prosper spiritually.

Let us make this year the best one of our lives, taking time to live it in fellowship with Jesus. It does take some time to do this, and in the busy rush of every day work, we are too likely to rush with it and lose our deep devotion to Him.

Take time to be holy, The world rushes on;
Spend much time in secret, With Jesus alone—
By looking to Jesus, Like him thou shalt be;
Thy friends in thy conduct, His likeness shall see.

May God bless our churches, our home mission work, and our foreign work, throughout all the days of this New Year.

Your Brother and Sister in Christ.

Dear Brother Trafton:

We are rather slow in sending in an account of our donation, but perhaps it will be "better late than never".

We were invited to spend the evening of Dec. 7th at the home of W. B. Cronkite, Southampton, and on arriving, found a number of folk there. They kept coming until the house was comfortably full. After a social chat together, and a pleasant sing song, the ladies served ice cream and several kinds of delicious cake.

About 10 o'clock Brother Weyman Wright called the pastor to the centre of the floor, and with a few well chosen words, made us feel our labours in the field were appreciated, and backed up his statements by placing in his hand a "fat" envelope. We also learned that the mysterious looking packages on the kitchen table were to be taken to the parsonage. The folk dispersed and went to their homes after we had tried to frame words of appreciation for their thoughtfulness, and praying God's blessing on them, for we realized that for some to give in a special way as they did it meant real sacrifice.

As a result of this donation we have several pounds of butter, eggs, beans, raisins, meat, head-cheese, pickles, several quarts of canned vegetables, and a fowl; also the pastor is wearing a new suit to take the place of the one which in spite of "depression", had become considerably too small.

A great many of our folk are sick at this time with flu. We were unable to attend our preaching services Jan. 1st, but are glad to be about again.

May God bless all our brethren in their work this coming year.

Yours, determined to be true to the Cause of the Holiness.

ABIDING IN CHRIST

One asked Hudson Taylor the question, "Are you always conscious of abiding in Christ?"

"While sleeping last night," he replied, "did I cease to abide in your house because I was unconscious of the fact? We should never be conscious of not abiding in Christ."—Ex.

Charles Stein

The country far and wide was greatly stirred over the news of the sad and fatal accident which occurred Wednesday, Jan. the 4th, when Brother Charles Stein, who was assisting a neighbor in the woods was hit by a spring pole which fractured his skull and resulted in his death at an early hour Saturday morning at the Sussex Hospital.

The funeral service was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the R. B. Church at the Head of Millstream, of which he was a member. It was very largely attended.

Rev. S. A. Mullen, pastor of the Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Curry, of the United Baptist Church, and Rev. Mr. Brown, of the United Church.

Brother Stein leaves to mourn their loss, five daughters and two sons as well as seven brothers and three sisters, but we feel assured that what is their loss is his eternal gain.

To all those who mourn we extend sympathy and reassure them of our prayers.

GOD WILL REPAY

By Bessie Overton

Do your best from day to day
Sow happiness along your way,
And joy will bloom, like flowers in May!

Do your best in every way
The best is best, whate'er men say
The best, you'll find, will always pay.

Do your best, your best, I say,
Help the others where you may,
And God will help you, too, some day.
