

PERSONALS

Licentiate E. A. M. Kierstead, Principal of the High School at Plaster Rock, and wife and little son Harold, were motor guests on Wednesday at the Reformed Baptist Parsonage. They were enroute to Fredericton to attend the Annual Encaenia at the University of New Brunswick. On their return they spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Dow and were accompanied to Plaster Rock by Mrs. Dow.

At the home of her youngest son, John M. Tedford, of Allston, Mass., Mrs. P. A. Thornton, formerly Mrs. Jacob Tedford, celebrated her ninetieth birthday, and had the pleasure of having with her for the day her five sons, Capt. E. E. Tedford, Montreal; George, Enos, Samuel and John of Boston. Her only daughter, Marion (Mrs. Herbert Jones), residing in Woodstock, N. B. was unable to be present. Mrs. Thornton's niece, Mrs. Hannah Ritchie of Melrose, Mass., was present for the day and Mrs. Eliza Curry, of Redding, Pa.

Many relatives and friends called throughout the day, congratulating Mrs. Thornton, who enjoys good health and has the faculties of a person much younger.

Miss Mabel M. Brooks, R. N., has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. R. Estey for a week before leaving for Philadelphia where she will spend the summer with her sister, Miss Helen Brooks.—Woodstock Press.

Mrs. Jack Daye underwent a serious surgical operation on her throat at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Woodstock, N. B., early in May. She is now convalescing at her home. She has been cared for by her mother, Mrs. Solomon McFarlane.

Mrs. P. A. Thornton of Malden, Mass., expects to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Jones, at Plymouth, Car. Co., N. B.

Charles H. Beal and wife and son Easton, accompanied by Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer, of Beals, Me., were at Moncton, May 15-16, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Good.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer went on a trip with friends to Bangor, Me., Monday, May 22nd, returning the 24th, and they were to Cherryfield on the 25th to a S. S. Convention.

Rev. F. A. Watson, of Fredericton, N. B., is able to be around again after his serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Ingersoll and son of Saint John, attended the services in Fredericton, Sunday, May 28th.

Several of the members of the church in Woodstock have attended the revival services at different times in Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Robinson, of Moncton, attended the quarterly meeting at Amherst, Sunday, May 28.

Abraham Cronkhite of Temple, York Co., who was in the Saint John Hospital for treatment, is able to be home again.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The Woodstock Ref. Baptist Missionary Society has not sent a report to the Highway for some time.

During the last three months our membership and attendance have increased.

Friday evening, May 12th, five new members joined. Our President, Mrs. Mutch, gave a Scripture lesson from Acts 13th, the separating of Paul and Barnabas for missionary work.

Mrs. Lester gave a very instructive talk on the work in South Africa. Having been a friend of Dr. and Mrs. Sanders, she had personal knowledge of the matter. As she had not time to finish we hope to hear the remainder later on.

The ladies' quartette sang and Miss Brown and five young girls gave a dialogue entitled Nada This dialogue founded on fact depicted the faithfulness of a young girl to God in spite of the persecutions of her heathen relatives. Bernice Fox took the part of Nada, with her were Kathleen Hillman, Ruth Wort, Edith Peed and Elsie Brewer.

The prayers offered up at this meeting showed that the members were co-partners with God in this great missionary work.

LUELLA B. McLEOD, Sec.

Miss Helen Pickel, who is training at the Victoria Public Hospital, Fredericton, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pickel.
