MONCTON, N. B., JUNE 30TH, 1933

EDITORIAL

The Alliance and Camp Meeting for 1933 at Beulah will soon have passed. As we come to our Annual Meeting there should be a spirit of great thankfulness on our part for the gracious blessing of the past year. God has been giving grand results in the work and that should give courage for renewed effort in the future. The financial depression has been keenly felt by all of our laity and clergy, nevertheless our people have been courageous and untiring in their efforts to extend the kingdom of God, and they have been rewarded for so doing.

Our missionaries on the foreign field have been pushing the work despite all the hindrances, and they are many, and there as well as here the Lord has been undertaking to establish holiness in the earth. God has called us out for a purpose, and that is to obtain, live, preach and propagate holiness. What a high calling, and what a responsibility rests upon us as a people. We must push ahead and possess our possessions. If we fail the Lord, he certainly will raise up someone else to keep abreast of the times, and the only way we can do it, is by keeping in the will of God and not drawing back, having our souls anointed with fresh oil, the Holy Spirit, and not giving over to the solicitations of those who do not believe as we do, not to be so radical on the line of the second blessing. Then there is a popular line of holiness preaching that does not bring the "Old Man" to the death. The only trouble with that is, it does not get folk anywhere, but leaves them with the same old manifestations of the carnal mind and they are soon in discouragement.

There is a fullness of joy, deep settled peace, absence of anger under provocation, perfect love and a reaching forth in mind and soul, after the deeper things of God; Paul declares that he was perfect and yet he was on the stretch after resurrection perfection. To lack this means stagnation and soon pollution. We must keep being holy in order to do the works of God.

Myl little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.—I. John iii. 18.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Just a few lines to-night to let you know I am on the victory side, working every day since April. Enclosed find money order for my pledge to Highway Supplementary Fund. I am looking forward to Beulah, praying God will give us a good time, and that many souls will get saved. Hoping to see you at Beulah, I remain,

Your brother,

OTTY M. KEITH

Nahant, Mass.

Dear Brother Trafton:

"Greetings in Jesus' name." I am glad to be able to report victory today through the blood of Jesus. I have arrived home safely after my five months labors with the dear people in the Reformed Baptist Churches in N. B. I am having a few days rest before entering upon my summer work in Michigan. I begin in Howell, Michigan, June 18, and from there to Grand Rapids for a home missionary campaign.

I want to say, that I enjoyed my labors with you dear people very much, and am rejoicing today over the pleasant memories of seeing so many precious people find the Lord. I have a tie that binds me closer to N. B. and the Reformed Baptist folk when I think of the many spiritual children scattered over the Provinces, and shall be glad when I return again in the fall to see you all and labor in some of the other churches. I shall never forget the pleasant time spent laboring in the vineyard with Brother Robertson at Woodstock, and Brother Kierstead at Saint John, and at Fort Fairfield, and Moncton, and Fredericton. I feel that the dear brethren worked with me in perfect harmony, and I trust that many more of the new converts will feel led to unite with the Reformed Baptist Church, for God has called you folk to a noble and much needed work in Canada, and the Provinces in preaching the full gospel and getting people into a real experience of salvation and Holiness. I pray that your camp meeting and Y. P. convention will be a great success this year. I want to again express my gratitude and appreciation for the way you all stood by me, and the confidence you placed in me as your evangelist, and for the sweet fellowship we all had together, and I pray that the Great Head of the Church will keep us all in that sweet fellowship, and unity of Spirit, and for His kingdom, and glory that when Jesus comes He will find us worthy to share in His glory and His kingdom.

I trust this finds you all well as I am ready again to go into the fight against sin and wickedness and rescue lost souls and bring them to Jesus, the Great Shepherd of the Sheep.

I am your co-laborer in His service,

MABEL R. MANNING

SAFETY—AN IMPOSSIBILITY WITHOUT THE HOLY BIBLE

Elder G. C. Bevington

The thought all the way through is the Word of God; for God's children. No other book contains the help to the Radio readers as does the Word of God. I am learning to actually rely on it. When questions come that calls for discussions or arguments or opinions,

I just turn them all down and fly to the Word to settle all questions by it.

It is not a question of intelligence, or of what schools we attended or from what we graduated. The question is: "What does the Word of God say?" As I tell all of you Radio readers, there is too much of everything else read and discussed and entirely too little of the Word of God read.

"For the Word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the hearts." Heb. 4:12. Read the entire verse over again carefully.

This verse alone should awaken within all of us a keener discernment and greater desire for the Word of God. Oh, give me men and women that are continually readers of the Word. And I trust that this article will awaken new desires and aspirations for the Word.

As dear Old Amanda Smith, the great black evangelist—O how I loved to hear her preach—said, when I handed her a book written by dear Brother Knapp, I says, Sister Smith, I want to make you a present of a great little book. She looked at me with great pity and said, "Bro. Bovington, I never read anything but the Bible. If you have a Bible to give, I will gladly accept it." Then she said, "Brother B., I learned to read my letters in the Bible and dare not read anything else."

I tell you there is too much of other reading matter read by the children of God these days while the Bible is being neglected. O let us pray God to create a greater love in our hearts for the Word. Then we will have a greater power through the Word. (See John 1:10).

What great strivings and confusions and misunderstandings and misrepresentations would be avoided if people would continue to study the Word more and more, because we are in the last days. It surely must be the last days and Satan is aware of it and he is rallying his best forces to get in his best licks, while he has opportunities. He's doing everything to get God's children confused, disturbed, and uneasy, restless, wondering and unsettled and then he has them where he makes the final dash to get them dissatisfied. All of this Satan accomplishes by keeping them so busy that they neglect the Word and thereby cannot rely upon it.

Satan will have us settle matters by most any source except by the word, which is the only God given remedy for our difficulties and perplexities. See the restlessness of the masses and also of the so-called Christians, practically all because they neglect the Word. So many write me that they are not what they used to be—confused—not so sure as to where they are spiritually and when I question them closely I find that they have so much to do, so many cares that they neglected the Word.

I tell you, dear Radio readers, we can be so busy even working for God, ten or twelve hours out of the twenty-four, as to neglect the Word and prayer and backslide working for Jesus. O let us take time to read the Word and study it and stick to it till we get satisfied thereby.

I am studying the Word now-a-days where I used to just read it formerly. Well, may the dear Lord bless us one and all as Radio readers and get more and more in love with the Word, because we study it and obey its precepts.—Heavenly Radio.
