REPORT OF S. S. CONVENTION, DISTRICT NO. 3

The convention of District No. 3 which was to be held on Wednesday, March 1st, had to be postponed on account of the absence of those who were to give the addresses, etc. However, on Thursday at 3.00 p. m. the business session of the convention was held, with the president, Rev. F. A. Dunlop in the chair. The session was opened with singing and prayer. Scripture lesson was from Matt. 6th chapter, beginning with the 24th verse. The writer was appointed secretary protem. Reports of the schools were read and accepted by a vote of the meeting. These reports were all very encouraging. We then spent a few minutes very profitably, discussing the problems of the Sunday School, and different ones spoke on how to make the S. S. more attractive and interesting, also on how the classes should be divided, and how the teachers should be elected. This proved to be a very good session.

Meeting adjourned with prayer by Brother E. Wilcox.

H. S. WILSON, Secretary protem.

A minister was passing a certain farm one day, when he noticed a fine rick of hay, just finished and ready for thatching. He said to the farmer who was standing by, "That's a very fine rick of hay. Who made it?" "I did," said the farmer. "I made it." A few weeks later the minister had occasion to pass the farm again. To his astonishment he saw that the rick, through a heavy gale, had capsized and fallen to the ground. He went to the farmer, and consoled with him on his misfortune, and again asked, "Who made the rick?" "There were several of us," was the reply. That's it! When things go well, we are apt to say, "I did it;" but when they go wrong, we say, "There were several of us."—Heart and Life.
