

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. L. T. Sabine baptized two converts on Sunday, June 10th. He received one into the Church membership on above date, two on June 17th and another on Tuesday evening, the 19th.

The Marysville pastor also held service at Mt. Hope on Wednesday evening, the 20th.

A letter from Rev. H. S. Mullen says our work is going good, Good is blessing in all the services.

Lic. Bennett Cochrane passed through Moncton on Thursday, the 14th on his way to Port Maitland, where he held a week-end meeting in the interests of the young people of that place. He was accompanied by his sister, Gertrude, and three other young ladies, cousins of his from Marysville. They returned on Wednesday, the 20th, and reported good meetings.

The Moncton R. B. Church enjoyed a good day on Sunday, June 17. The pastor received eight men and women and one boy into the membership of the church at the evening service. And several others manifested an interest in their spiritual welfare by requesting prayers of the church, at the same service.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, B.A., baptized five candidates on Sunday afternoon, June 17th, and received six into the membership of the Reformed Baptist Church at Fort Fairfield the same evening.

Dear Brother Dow: Port Maitland
Glad to report victory through the precious blood.

Would you announce in the next issue of the Highway that I wish to go into active work for the coming year, and am open for pastoral or evangelistic work.

Yours in His service,

LIC. NORMAN TRAFTON

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. H. Steeves, of Marysville, is still poorly in health, suffering from a weak heart.

Mrs. Thos. Mitchell went to Saint John on Wednesday, the 20th, to visit her brother, Percy Minue, who is very poorly again.

INJURED BY FALL

Abner T. Ames, while working at the barn-raising at Joseph A. Emery's on Saturday morning, lost his balance and fell ten or twelve feet, striking on a rock. He was taken to Community hospital, where it was found some small bones in his back were broken. He was placed in a cast, and will have to lie on his back for a month. Mr. Ames' many friends sympathize with him in his misfortune.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Note.—Mr. Ames is a brother of Otis Ames, of Fort Fairfield, whom so many of our readers know.—Ed.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

The editor has received several letters recently from readers of The King's Highway, commending him for his good work on the paper, and to these friends we want to say: We truly appreciate your kind and encouraging words. They surely inspire us to try to do our best. Thank you!—Editor.

Search others for their virtues, thyself for thy vices.—Proverb.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."
—Rev. 13-14.

Mrs. Goldie Ethyl Ramsey

Mrs. Goldie Ethyl Ramsey, born in Aug. 1, 1874, in Pembroke, Yarmouth Co., N. S., died in her home in Chelsea, Mass., U. S. A., June 4, 1934. Mrs. Ramsey was a charter member of Grace Evangelical Church, Everett, Mass. In recognition of her very fine and ardent work for the church, the annual conference granted her a special exhorters' license about 30 years ago. The services were held in the church and her pastor spoke from the especially fitting text, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." She leaves her husband and one daughter.

REV. N. R. BEEDE

The Word of God was Christ's treasure in the days of His flesh, and He gave it to us with the Spirit of truth. We cannot but prosper if we delight in the Scriptures, that is, if we read them diligently with a view to obedience and communion with God.—Chapman.

Hurry means also worry, and haste is wasted. Study to be habitually calm. "A meek and quiet spirit is," in the sight of God, "of great price." The rush of modern social life is especially fatal to the prayer-habit; for until the spirit is hushed and becalmed in His Presence, God cannot reflect His own image in our consciousness.—J. Hudson Taylor.

It is possible, divinely possible, to be strongest through and through at one's weakest point.
—Moule.

MARRIED

Westchester Station, May 25—A quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized in the R. B. Church on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Rev. L. J. Sears united in marriage Miss Annie Galaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Galaway, of West Brook, and Norman Wells, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Wells, of Amherst. The wedding march was played by Miss Hazel Webb of this place. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William Galaway, looked charming in her gown of white crepe and veil with wreath of orange blossoms, and was attended by her sister, Miss Galaway. Little Isabelle Galaway, niece acted as train bearer. The groom was attended by Sidney Billett.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate friends and relatives and the wedding party left immediately after for West Brook, where a reception awaited the happy couple. The groom was attended by Sidney —Halifax Herald.

Kenneth Flannery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Flannery, and Miss Phyllis Manter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Manter, were quietly married Saturday night, June 9, at 8:00 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. G. A. Rogers, pastor of the Reformed Baptist church, officiated. Only the immediate family was present. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Flannery wish them a happy journey together through life.—Fort Fairfield Review

LESSON FROM SPRING

Bright mornings in the pleasant spring,
When happy birds so sweetly sing,
Then early hour I love to rise,
Green woods and fields to walk and gaze.

Where brooks and rivers speedily
Bring forth their secret melody,
My soul is swimming in sweet fume
For all the trees and flowers are bloom.

From my breast raises merry song,
When the brilliant beams of rising sun
Peek over the earth's round edges.
And kiss the tender nature.

Spring proves that love and smiles we need;
You see then all are satisfied.
Real will of God is done like thus
If we serve others as Spring does us.

Let us learn a lesson from this Spring
And to our Master's words let's cling.
God's kingdom comes to earth said He
When all love others as I love thee.

TOO MANY LICENSES

The Boston License Commission is in receipt of about 16,000 applications for liquor licenses. This is a much larger amount than in the years preceding prohibition. It is hard to believe that the city's thirst for alcoholic beverages has increased to such an extent that such a large number of liquor dispensing places is necessary.

Sooner or later there will be readjustment and every hole-in-the-wall will not be able to boast that "you may obtain beer and hard liquor here."—Boston Post.
