

CORRESPONDENCE

Greys Mills, Kings Co., N. B.

Friends at Greys Mills and elsewhere were greatly shocked and grieved to learn of the sudden passing of Frances A. Cobb, of Boston, Mass, on Sept. 10th last, after one week's illness at the Peter Brent Brigham Hospital, where he had been for a number of years connected with the Howard Medical School Research Department. His sterling qualities and faithfulness and unusual interest in research promoted him to the highest position in the Laboratory. For the last four years Mr. Cobb had been spending his summer vacation at Greys Mills with his wife, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Sterritt, a sister of our missionaries at Altona, South Africa—"The Sterritt Sisters." While here Mr. Cobb always attended our Sunday School and services which he greatly enjoyed, always taking part in our prayer and testimony services when present, and greatly endeared himself with us all here. We will all miss his annual visit. Mrs. Cobb has the deepest sympathy of her many friends at Greys Mills in her very sad bereavement.

Signed on behalf of the Church at Greys Mills.

Dear Brother Dow and All the Highway

Readers:

It has been so long since I have written to the Highway I feel ashamed. But time flies so fast with work and cares but first and I believe in first things first.

I covet just now the prayers of our Editor and all the Highway readers that our Heavenly Father in His great love and mercy will restore to health and strength (praise His name I know He is able) my daughter, Mrs. Crandlemere, who has been sick with diphtheria and it has left her heart in a very weak condition.

It was my privilege to visit Riverside Camp for the first Sunday. Our son, George, came and took his father and myself and my daughter and her two children for the day. And it was surely a Sabbath day's journey toward the Kingdom. First of that blessed day was the Love Feast which was led by the Rev. H. S. Dow, when he surely preached a good sermon on the first verse of the 24th Psalms. Then we heard three great sermons by the evangelist, Rev. Roy L. Hollenback. His sermon in the morning was "The Broad Way," from Matt. 7-13.

Then another wonderful sermon in the afternoon and evening.

And the singing was so good. It was a rainy day outside, but it was a blessed day inside. There was only showers of blessings inside.

Then just shortly after Riverside our son, George, came and took his father and myself for a trip around the Province. It meant so much to us both as it is not our privilege to travel very much. We were just gone from home from Wednesday morning till Friday night but in that time we visited every county in the province, excepting Charlotte. We ate dinner in New Brunswick Wednesday; ate our dinner in Nova Scotia Thursday, and ate dinner Friday in Quebec. It was a fine trip especially up along the north shore, and I told my son I kept thinking of the text we heard at Riverside: "The earth is the Lord's." And George read that Psalm the first night we stopped on our trip.

CAST THY CARE ON HIM

Cast thy care on Jesus;
He is thy dearest friend;
His grace is all sufficient;
He will guide you to the end.

When troubles fierce assail you,
You know His love won't fail;
He has gone this way before you,
And His strength it will prevail.

He is a precious Saviour,
On Him we can depend;
For "His own name sake" He pardons
us,
And restores our souls again.

So we will trust Him in the sunlight,
Or when the shadows fall;
For He is our God and Father
And careth for us all.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed $1.50 to pay for our Highway for another year. I did not remember that it was due till last week.

I also enclose $10.00 for the Sanders passage fund. I understood it would be all right to send it to you; hope to be able to send more later. I hope and pray that the Lord will open hearts to give to this fund for I believe they can do more over there than can be done here.

Yours in the work to hasten the coming of the Lord.

MRS. MANNING MULLEN

Dear Editor:

I am going to pay for my paper today. I have felt for some time I ought to, not because I am behind, but because I am back, but because I know you need it to carry on the paper. I left it last spring with my daughter at South Penobscot for she likes it in her work, but I do enjoy it very much. It keeps me in touch with the dear old cause of holiness. I often think of so many new ministers then I can't but look over the dear ones that have gone to glory. I wonder if they work as hard as they did then. It seems if the dear old Millville Church the members are gone on how lonesome we get when we get away and old for no one knows about the Beulah land experience. Praise God we who have the experience don't forget it do we? This is a most beautiful morning on the lake shore. The lake is like glass with part of the buildings from the town pictured in it beautifully. Then those lovely coloured trees. One time some years ago I told our minister how beautiful it looked. He listened and said: Sister, you had or saw a vision. And I surely did and so this morning I am so glad I gave my heart to Jesus, then when the preaching of full salvation came along I was ready to accept. It was quite a while ago and I have never been sorry, but my heart gets lonesome and hungry to get out among those that believe in holiness. I am not going to change the address of my paper, just yet. If the people of Penobscot close the door of their church she may, Mrs. Bagley, come here at Lincoln with us.

Yours in the faith,

MRS. JAS. W. GREENLAW

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines to say we are enjoying the blessing of God on our souls, and find great satisfaction in knowing we are endeavouring to do God's will. We had three weeks of special meetings at Gordonsville, although we did not have revival. It was a very busy time, the farmers were harvesting their potato crop, and so many of our young people were away working that our crowds during the week were small. The meetings on Sundays were well attended. We were sorry that no one yielded to God, yet the church folk seemed to get encouragement and a new boost. We thank God for the faithful ones and long to see new recruits to help carry the burden. On Monday evening, Oct. 15th, a good number of members and friends of the Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clair and after a pleasant evening of singing was enjoyed, Brother Gordon Brooks, in behalf of those present, presented us with a fine donation of produce and cash amounting to about $15.00. The pastor prayed God's blessing on the people, and the ladies served us a very nice lunch. Thus ended a real enjoyable time in the Lord.

We are now having some meetings at Lower Brighton. Pray for us.

Yours in Him,

J. A. and MRS. OWENS

Dear Brother Dow:

I enclose M. O. for $7.00. $5.50 is for Supplementary Fund, my pledge which is overdue, and $1.50 for subscription. I would like to have address changed as above. The Highway is a wonderful help to spiritual life. Many good things have been in the last issues. I'm glad you are having success in your work in Moncton. I just pray for a deepening of spiritual life and real heart holiness among us all. The services held here are full of inspiration and blessing.

Trusting you are all well.

Your sister in His service,

Dear Highway:

Our hearts are filled with praise to God for His many blessings bestowed upon us. We sometimes feel a bit lonely as all our children are away from home and we two occupying this large parsonage, but the Lord is ever mindful of us. We feel so unworthy of all the benefits and blessings bestowed upon us.

We can truly say we never enjoyed more of the presence of the Lord and doing His work than at the present time. Our souls are on the wing and we feel the youth and vigor that comes to the spirit of those "that wait upon the Lord."

We were again reminded of our heavenly Father's care, and thoughtfulness of our brothers and sisters and friends, when on Monday evening, October the 15th, the parsonage was invaded by a company of people to the number of seventy, who came bringing good things, with kind wishes. A very pleasant evening was spent in conversation. A musical programme was carried out and a reading given. The ladies served refreshments, after which Deacon A. W. Shaw, in a few well chosen remarks, on behalf of the friends in Sandford, Port Maitland and Yar-
