HINTS FOR YOUNG CHRISTIANS

1. Never neglect daily private prayer, and remember God hears your prayers.
2. Never neglect daily private Bible reading, and remember that God is speaking to you, and that you are to believe and act upon what He says.
3. Never let a day pass without something for Jesus, every morning reflecting on what Jesus has done for you.
4. If you are ever in doubt as to a thing being right or wrong, consider whether you can do it in the name of Jesus, and ask God's blessing upon it.
5. Never take your Christianity for granted, but ask yourself how would the Lord have me act, and follow Him.
6. Never thrust your feelings, or the opinions of others, if they contradict God's word.
7. In deciding questions of truth, and duty, remember that the wrong side has a crafty, and powerful advocate, yield your will definitely to God.

CORRESPONDENCE

meetings. Our services are going good and God continues to bless us. We have accepted the call to remain here another year. We are enjoying our pastorate here with these dear people. May God bless them and make us a blessing to them. We have been made sorry today to hear of the death of our dear Brother Kierstead. One by one they are gathering home. What is our loss is their gain. May God's special blessing be upon those bereaved. I thought as I heard this that one more was gone that we would not see at Beulah Camp any more. May God help those of us who are left to be faithful at our post both as laymen and preachers, for we too will soon be going.

Dear Highway Friends:

I am glad to report that I have learned of two who have contributed to the Lubec Church Fund, with making up that $40.00 I wrote of, in mind; besides that, I received two other donations which I forwarded to the Treasurer. Thus to date, including my own contribution, I know of twelve dollars towards that forty. If any others contribute with the same in mind, and wish to inform me, I will be pleased. My address is care of Harry Nelson, Norton, R. R. No. 4, Kings County.

The past two Lord's Days, God has given special inspiration and conviction or blessing upon most of the services which encourages me and for which I praise Him. We now expect to have Brother George DeLong with us to begin revival meetings next Sunday, April 29th, and we solicit your faith and prayers for us. Already the devil is stirred up and very angry, but we must expect opposition always from him wherever God is working and souls being saved, so I would take courage even from this. Pray with us for those who have been saved recently, and for those who are beginning to awaken to their need of salvation. I am sorry that some appear to be striving against God in this place, and to desire to hinder rather than help some who would like to do right, but our God is equal to the situation. He changes not. I remember that a certain Saul of Tarsus fought against God and His little ones, and that God reigned him up near Damascus one day, and so changed him that the Christian's perhaps greatest enemy became one of their most valuable friends.

Thank God, whatever our circumstances or surroundings, the upward look is always bright; the faithful child of God really has no reason to ever be discouraged, and all they have to do is as the psalmist did when cast down, "Remember the years of the right hand of the Most High," and "Hope in God." When we review some of His marvellous promises, and recall that "God is faithful," how it cheers and strengthens us. Praise Him!

Yours for the whole will of God,

Dear Friends of the Highway Family:

Greetings in our Saviour's name. The sunshine of God's presence lights my way this morning as brightly as the great ball of fire does this old earth. I thank Him not only for His many blessings which come my way, but also for the tests He sees best to send along too. The trial of my faith is working the peaceable fruits of righteousness. I feel stronger in faith this beautiful spring morning than ever before. The winter has been severe and seemed long in passing, but now the buds of promise are bursting forth, clothing the barren trees. Thus nature encourages our faith in God's word. Though the trial seems grievous and hard to endure, and though the answer to our prayer seems so long delayed, yet "Faith can not be unanswered," and "Your prayer shall answered be some time, somewhere."

Christian Friends, we, as a denomination, are daily having our attention drawn to great needs, both in the foreign and homeland fields. God has promised to "supply all our needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." But let us not forget that He has commanded us to ask largely of Him. So when we are confronted with great needs we should not sigh in dismay and throw up our hands in despair and say, "I don't see how we can possibly do it!" But rather take it to God in prayer and ask Him for a vision of the need; get the mind of the Spirit; lay hold of His unfailing promises, and "stagger not . . . through unbelief," but firmly grip "the horns of the altar," and ask largely of God for the things concerning His Kingdom. And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will He heareth us; and if we know that He hear us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petition that we desired of Him (I. Jno. 5:14-15).

God "looked upon him" (Gideon). He must have been satisfied with that humble man, finding in Him a "mighty man of valour," and said, "Go in this thy might . . . surely I will be with thee." Though the soldiers were sifted down to but three hundred men, yet his faith failed not. How that host of the Midianites who were "as grasshoppers for multitude," and "without number" was wonderfully defeated through God's power. He found a man ready, having the vision.

Is not God looking "upon" you and me now? What does His searching gaze reveal to His all-seeing eye? A man; a woman "mighty in valour?" "Full of faith and the Holy Ghost?" How strong is our faith? "According to your faith be it unto you." Let us then exercise what faith we have that it may increase. Let us put God's promises to the test and "stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." Bless God! I am believing to see great things come to pass.

The Woods Harbor Church has asked me to remain with them. So, friends, I intend to do so until such time as the Lord sees fit to lift the cloud, when it must be followed by His handmaiden.

We covet your earnest prayers for God's gracious blessing during the Quarterly Meeting convening here on June 7th to 10th. Also for the two weeks special services to follow. Bro. George DeLong is to be our evangelist. For two weeks we have been taking it to God in prayer. He is blessing in the meetings. We are praying for a revival. One sister said last Sunday night, "If things keep on as they are the revival will be here before the meetings start." But, beloved, a revival has to be prayed down. Will you not join us in believing prayer?

God bless you each one.

Yours in Him,

GRACE SANDERS

MY TESTIMONY

I'm resting today in my dear Saviour's love,

I'm saved by His power divine;

I'm happy and blest by His infinite care,

And my home is in Heaven above.

I wandered for years in the mazes of sin,

No hope, no light could I see,

My life was so sad, I prayed but in vain,

How could I a new life begin?

My soul in despair, I wandered so hopelessly on,

Convinced that salvation could never reach me,

And with me, sweet melody share,

But Jesus my Saviour appeared and me blest.

And rivers of joy filled my soul;

I saw that at last I had reached the true light And had entered the Haven of rest.

My life is now full of the flowers of grace,

They bloom in my pathway each day,

I know that for me, there is no ending bliss,

And some day I shall look on His face,

I hope that you all may share in His love.

That peace and great joy fill your souls.

And when, here on earth, we lay our lives down,

We shall meet in the mansions above.
