

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

During the week of prayer in Moncton H. S. Dow spoke in the Wesleyan Memorial Church on Monday night Jan. 8th and the following Sunday morning in the pulpit exchanges, he spoke at the Central United church and Adjd. Laing of the Salvation Army, spoke in the Reformed Baptist church.

A letter from Lic. H. J. S. Blaney of Royalton, says "Our services are real well attended, considering the condition of the weather and roads."

A letter from Rev. F. A. Dunlap says "we are beginning special meetings on the 14th with Rev. Fred Thomas of Indiana for our evangelist, Remember us in prayer."

Rev. A. J. Owens expects to begin special meetings at Hartland with Rev. Hollis Kimball as evangelist, very soon.

We are hoping that Brother Kimball's appeal for help, to buy the church that is for sale at Lubec, Maine, where holiness work is much needed, will not be forgotten by our readers. There seems to be a good opportunity to open work there, if it is attended to at once. We have heard that one man says he will give $100 if several others will do likewise, and some others have offered to give smaller sums. Correspond with our missionary treasurer, Rev. L. T. Sabine, Marysville N. B., about what you will give. But we will have to act at once in order to secure the building.

H. S. D.

We are glad to note that all of our pastors were so kindly remembered at Christmas by their congregations. Our people generally are very thoughtful of their pastors and families.

A letter from Rev. P. J. Trafton says we are having meetings for prayer every night this week for our special services which begin Jan. 28th with brother Geo. DeLong as evangelist. The Lord is blessing us. Brother DeLong is now at Jonesport with brother H. S. Wilson and we hear that they have had a great revival.

We have something very special in Ministers and Churches of this issue. One of our good brethren has taken to himself a wife. Lic. Fred A. Anderson pastor of our church at Black's Harbor. See marriage notice. May the Lord bless them abundantly with His presence through a long and happy life.

Rev. H. C. Archer has been confined to the house for three weeks with neuralgia.

Rev. Arthur Sargant of Jonesport preached for him on the morning of January 14th.

A CORRECTION

Two names were accidentally left off two items in last issue of Highway for which we are sorry. The obituary of Mrs. Martha Thompson of Amherst should have been signed by Lic. E. S. Cosman, and the item in the Personals, "we were glad to be able to spend Christmas home" etc., should have been signed by Rev. S. A. Mullen.

EDITOR

THANKS

There has been a steady increase in Highway renewals for several months past, and Jan. 1934, was the best. We sincerely thank you all for your response. And we must urge upon many others who are several years in arrears, to please let us hear from you at once. Thanks.

EDITOR,

WATCH-NIGHT SERVICE

An enjoyable and profitable hour and a half was spent in the Reformed Baptist Church at Hartland when a goodly number met to watch the old year out, and the New Year in. The service began at 10:30 p. m. and the following programme was carried out:

Opening Song—"Deeper, Deeper".

The 23rd Psalm was repeated in unison.

Prayers by Brother George Somers and Rev. H. M. Kimball.

Duet—"Beyond the Open Door", by Mrs. Harold Burt and Evelyn Orser.

Paper—"My Aspirations For 1934"—By Edward Dow.

Paper—"Opportunities and Obligations of a Young Christian"—By Hamilton Sealey.

Duet—"I Want My Life to Count For Jesus"—By Harold Burt and Olin Hillman.

Paper—"Our Sunday School for 1934"—By Supt. Claude MacMullin.

Address—"What is Success"—By Rev. H. M. Kimball.

Mixed Quartette—"Keep Pressing On".

"A New Year's Message"—Prepared by Mrs. J. A. Owens, read by Mabel Hovey.

As the hands of the clock pointed to midnight, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens called for a few moments of silent prayer, and most of the congregation knelt with him around the altar, to implore God's guidance through the New Year. "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", was sung in closing, and Rev. Mr. Crisp, (United Church) pronounced the benediction. This was a blessed service, God's presence was felt in a marked way, and all felt the better equipped to start another year's battle.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

We wish to express through the Highway our appreciation of those who met at the home of Brother Joseph MacDonald on a Monday evening in November and after spending a pleasant evening presented the pastor with a donation of groceries and other supplies and cash. Of course the ladies served refreshments which were enjoyed by all present; also of those from Middle and Upper Southampton, who at the close of a Prayer Meeting in W. B. Cronkite's lumber camp also presented us with a donation of supplies and cash. We are very grateful to all those who contributed in any way and wish to thank the few faithful ones on this field who will stand right behind you and push while on the other hand our hearts are saddened by those who lack interest and concern for the welfare of the cause of God. They put forth no special effort to get out to the services and fail to show the same interest in spiritual things that they do in material. May the Lord help us all to arouse ourselves and get in the harness, and pray, work and live until we see things really accomplished for God.

The merchants and their wives here in the village have been very kind to us for which we are grateful and very appreciative.

We thank all on this field who have in any way contributed toward our support. May God bless you!

S. A. AND MRS. MULLEN

APPRECIATION

We wish to acknowledge God's goodness to us through His people. At Christmas time the people were very thoughtful and kind to us on this circuit, giving us all presents of useful things and money, for which we are thankful and praise God for His goodness shown to us in this way by these kind friends.

The Young People's Society of Head of Millstream presented us with a beautiful wool blanket (or comforter) as a Christmas gift and a token of their appreciation of our labors among them. We hope and trust that God will make us a blessing to this part of His work. The people of this circuit have surely been good to supply us with wood, meat, vegetables, butter and some groceries. Also three nice chickens, a large turkey, some nice pork and a quarter of choice beef. So we were well supplied along the meat line for Christmas. Some gifts we received were a pair of heavy gauntlets for long winter drives, warm mittens, a nice fruit cake and some gifts of money. We do appreciate all the kindness shown to us and the help and blessing these Christmas gifts have brought to us. To all who helped to make Christmas a merry time for us and our family we say "Thank you", and may God bless you good.

We received a number of Christmas cards from friends near and far. Sorry we were not able to answer them all. But the cold weather and bad roads made it impossible to go to town so we could not get cards when we would have liked to. May God bless you all. We trust that God's blessing may be upon our Editor and each reader throughout the New Year.

Yours in Him

MR. AND MRS. HARTLEY E. MULLEN
