PERSONALS

Mrs. W. B. Wiggins and Mrs. Robert Barr, and Mrs. Edwin Horncastle, of Fredericton, and Mrs. S. A. Baker, of North Head, G. M., and Mrs. A. K. MacCallum and son, Grant, of Moncton, are some of the folk who are spending a few weeks at Beulah following the camp-meeting.

Lic. Eugene Kierstead is attending summer school in Fredericton, at the U. N. B. He has moved his family there for the summer. His mother, Rev. I. M. Kierstead, is visiting friends at Devon and Fredericton. We are glad to hear that she is in better health than when she was at Beulah.

A very impressive memorial service was held at Beulah for the late Rev. I. F. Kierstead, a committee having been appointed by the Alliance to arrange for the service. Several of his brethren of the ministry, including Rev. Dr. Thomas, of the United Church of Canada, spoke briefly of Brother Kierstead's life and work, both in the home land and in Africa, where our late brother and his wife put in several years of faithful service. The many expressions of appreciation from those who had part in the service, and the appropriate music made it altogether a very impressive service.

Brother Howard Cox of Rosedale, is in very poor health. Pray for him.

Brother Henry Elliott, of Victoria Corner, is able to work again, after several weeks of illness.

Sister Kearney of Waterville, who had the misfortune of falling from the platform of the Gibson train and crushing her foot, is improving at her home.

Miss Evelyn Orser is steadily improving in health. We thank all those who remembered her in prayer.

SONG BOOKS FOR RIVERSIDE

Everybody please bring your "Great Gospel Songs," Song Book, to Riverside camp-meeting. That is the book we will use this year again.—Committee.

We trust that all who pray are remembering the camp-meeting at Riverside. We are expecting a record attendance this year. Already some cottages have been rented for use during the meetings. Remember the dates—Aug. 3rd to 12th, at Robinson's, Maine, just across the border. Only 9 miles from Centreville, N. B.

A BIRTHDAY GATHERING

On Friday, July 20th, there was a pleasant family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rogers, Benton, it being the birthday of their eldest son, Rev. George A. Rogers, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church at Fort Fairfield, Me.

The guests of the birthday dinner were just the immediate members of the family, being Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rogers, Rev. and Mrs. George Rogers, Miss Annie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. William Crandlemere, Mrs. Annie E. Porter (George's only living grand-parent), Miss Ruth and Master George Crandlemere, Miss Alta Rogers.

The birthday dinner was enjoyed by all, and especially so as this is the first birthday in 15 years that George has spent at home as the guest of his parents and brother and sisters. Six years ago in June George graduated from the E. N. College at Wollaston, Mass. Six years ago the 3rd of this month he was ordained into the ministry at "The Beulah Camp Ground." Since then he has been a faithful minister of the Gospel in the different churches he has been pastor of.

We wish him many, many happy returns of this day, and pray God's richest blessing on him and his wife in their chosen life work.

A DONATION

Hartland, N. B.,

July 24, 1934

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines of appreciation to our Hartland folk for the way they welcome us on our return from Beulah. The evening following our arrival home, a goodly number gathered at the parsonage each one bringing something to help in the way of supporting their pastor. After we had spent a pleasant evening the ladies served refreshments and then Brother Orser, in behalf of those present, spoke a few kindly words, and presented us with the donation of produce and money amounting to $12.00 we heartily thank these dear folk for their thoughtfulness, and for the way they stand by us, both with their offering and sympathy, and their prayers as well, and we trust God will use us to feed them on spiritual things, while they feed us temporally.

Yours in His service

ARTHUR AND HAZEL OWENS

BE NOT RASH

The wise man tells us to "Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter anything before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few." Oh, the trouble, sorrow and heartache that might be avoided if we would always heed the words of the wise man. It is a great art in the Christian life to learn to keep still. It is better to say nothing than to speak in a hasty and excited manner, though conditions may seem to justify our emotions. By remaining silent the mind may be collected and the heart lifted to God in secret prayer. Thus you can speak in a subdued manner and with quietness of spirit afterward which will do honor to your holy profession, as well as to the good of others who have injured you when you speak in the Spirit of Jesus.—Selected.

MARRIED

"What therefore God hath joined together let not man put asunder."—Mar. 10:9.

Somers-York

On June 6th at the Hartland Reformed Baptist parsonage, Mr. George Somers and Mrs. Hattie York were united in marriage by Rev. J. A. Owens. They will reside at Rosedale for the present.

Perry-Watt

The marriage of Evelyn Almira Watt, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Watt, of Barrington, N. S., and James Edward Perry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Perry, of Port Maitland, N. S., was solemnized in the Wesley United Church, of Yarmouth, N. S., Friday afternoon, July 20th, 1934. Rev. P. J. Trafton, uncle of the groom, and pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church of Port Maitland, N. S., performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Harold Tompkinson, pastor of Wesley United Church. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a few friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of coral crepe and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. They left immediately after the ceremony by auto on a trip through parts of Nova Scotia. They will reside in Port Maitland.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

ARE WE TO HAVE NUDISTS

When we think of some of the mothers of the present day we are filled with wonder that our young people, and especially our young girls, are as good as they are.

Motoring on the highways on the outskirts of this city, we have met young girls—we suppose we should call them young ladies—on bicycles and on foot in such a state of nudity as would land them in jail did they appear so garbed on the streets of the city. We are shocked when we read of the nude colonies in Germany, the United States and other lands. At least these nudists get together in a camp and do not parade their brazenness in the open.

One would think that the girls themselves would shrink from thus making a disgusting spectacle of themselves. Their utter lack of the sense of modesty is easily explained. From their tenderest years their mothers have "dressed" them in the minimum of clothes that will get them by the law. And so girls grow up accustomed to having the maximum of their bodies undraped. We do not advocate the horse-whipping of these worse than pagan mothers; but we would like to see them placed in the stocks in the public square with a card pinned above them inscribed: "Behold a menace to public morals."—Kingston Freeman.—Sel. from "The Cobden Sun".

It was the custom of a fisherman who sold his catch to neighbors to vary the price according to the fish he was able to bring in and the difficulty of obtaining them. They would ask as he rowed in to the landing, "What is the price of fish today?" One day the fisherman's little son was drowned at sea while they were at work, and when he came in from that voyage, the heartbroken father replied to the question, "What is the price of fish today?" "The life of my son." We inquire what is the price of salvation, and God sends back the answer, "The life of My Son." "Ye are bought with a price, therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit." (1 Cor. 6:20).—Wesleyan Methodist.
