"Let no man despise thy youth"—Titus 2-15

ber of prayers, the leader comments on a selected portion of scripture, and then the meeting is open to all to do as God leads. It is wonderful to hear the testimonies of victory and of what God is doing. Hearts are burdened for other souls and tears flow while God blesses.

Besides living up to our constitution our aim and desire is to live true Christian lives in our homes, in our community, and in our church, and to win other souls for Jesus.

When you dear ones are at prayer, pray for us, that much more good may be done in our community.

Yours in Christian love,

THAT BEULAH FEELING

I am homesick for Beulah Camp Meeting. I want to feel again the thrill that comes over me every time I drive down that long hill and onto the grounds. That crooked road never will let a car go quite fast enough. And when once inside the gate the first thing I want to do is to take a look into "Jacob's Well," or stand awhile beside "Lake Galilee", and then take a little walk up and down either "Hallelujah Drive," or "Praise Walk", and have the white rocks shout the praises of God at me at almost every turn. Then I want to take a turn through the hotel, peer around the tabernacle, stroll down to the wharf, and at night stand on the back verandah of the new dormitory and listen to the waves restlessly lapping against the rocks in the darkness below. That is worth a whole week's vacation at almost any summer camp.

It is uncomfortable indeed to be homesick and to be unable to go home; but one can stand quite a spell of it if he knows that he will eventually be boarding the train. The compensation for any sickness is that it feels so awfully good to get well again. I am enjoying my homesick spell because I expect to go to Beulah this year. I expect to take that little stroll around the grounds a good many times, I expect to enjoy meeting old friends again and shaking hands with brothers and sisters in the Lord. But more than all of that. I am going to meet the Lord there and by His grace explore some new territory in Canaan. I want to hear God's saints shout, and when I can hold in no longer, join in with them. I shall sing with those who sing, pray with those who pray, and weep with those who weep. I expect to see again that the "Lion of the tribe of Judah" can break every chain and set captive souls at liberty. I expect to both wade and swim in the stream flowing out from the house of God as did the prophet Ezekiel. I am going to dig the ditches of my soul broad and deep and long, that I may have an abundance when showers of blessings begin to fall. And when the water is turned to the wine of the Kingdom I am going to be there with all the water pots, "containing two or three firkins apiece," that my soul can afford. I expect to see God work some miracles.

I expect to be at every service to boost and be a blessing; and one of the services in particular which I do not intend to miss is the Y. P. Convention on Saturday afternoon, July 7th. I believe it is going to be the high water mark of the Camp for the young people, and already I am praying to that end. Praise the Lord! I am homesick for Beulah.

North Head, Grand Manan, N. B.,
Dear Young People:

Since July 23, 1933 there have been weekly Young People's meetings held, but not till March 16, 1934, have we had a real Young People's Society. On the night of the last mentioned date, near the close of our special meetings, we organized having about twenty-six charter members. Bro. George DeLong was instrumental in accomplishing this. We adopted the constitution drawn up by the Young People at Beulah, also as our motto, we chose, "Christ for the Young People, and the Young People for Christ." Our society's name is "The Conquerors." The first service of each month is rally and roll call night, members answer to their names with a text of scripture.

We have a fund to help the needy, called the Opportunity Fund.

The young people are responding well to the various duties which continually come to hand.

Above all else we appreciate God's presence in our meetings, and desire to keep on fire for Him.

Yours to live and do for our Christ.

CHARLIE D. SANDERS,
President

Dear Readers:

Greetings from the North Head Young People's Society!

Since organizing last March, we have held regular meetings every Tuesday evening, and have been richly rewarded by the presence and blessing of the Lord in our services. We are now taking a course of study in Holiness, and we find it very interesting and helpful. The lessons for each service are decided upon by a committee, announced and assigned in advance, and spoken upon by two of our number, who thus far have done well.

A special young people's missionary meeting is held once a month. Our missionary president has done much to make these interesting and profitable, and we trust that these meetings will help to increase the young people's interest in this important and needy work.

We wish to extend congratulations to two of our members, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hatt, who were recently united in marriage. The bride's name was Miss Francis Beal. We wish them the best of success and happiness, and a life of usefulness in the Lord's service.

Several of our members have had to leave us to work elsewhere, and although we miss their help in the meetings, we feel they are still assisting by their prayers.

We are looking forward to a victorious camp meeting at Beulah, and hope that a goodly number of our young people will be able to get there to both help and receive help.

NORMAN J. SANDERS,
Reporter.

NOTICE OF CHANGE

The date of the Young People's Convention of District No. 4 at Port Maitland, N. S., has been changed from June 1—3rd to June 15th—17th.

NOTICE TO SOCIETIES

Report forms are being sent to the Young People's Societies. Will the secretaries kindly fill these in and return them to the undersigned as soon as possible.

WINNIFRED SHAW,
Box 509, Yarmouth, N. S.

We are glad to be able to report victory from our society. We give God the praise for what He has done for us and for the progress which we have made spiritually, also for the increase in our attendance. We praise Him for the way of salvation, for an experience that is real and which establishes young people. Our aim is that God may work through our society for the promotion of Holiness.

Our services are held every Friday evening, conducted about the same as a prayer and praise service, followed by a Bible study given by our pastor, also Bible questions.

We have a membership of twenty-nine active and four associate members, and our regular attendance is between thirty and forty at each service. Real good interest is shown in the Bible study and we are looking forward to bigger things. We have several new members since our last special meetings for which we praise the Lord.

L. E. HERSEY, Secretary.

Millville, N. B.

Dear Readers of the Highway:

I have been a subscriber to this paper for only a few months, but I do enjoy reading its clean pages, and I want you to know that while God has been blessing others He has blessed us too.

As I am a member of the Golden Rule Society of the Union Church at Millville, N. B., I want to tell you about it and of the wonderful way that God meets with us and blesses us at our meetings. This society was organized last fall. At first it was thought to call it the Young People's Society, but on account of so many about my own age (37) being interested, the name Golden Rule Society was chosen, with no age limit being set, praise the Lord. We all work together in unity with great love for each other, and for all whether members or not.

A constitution was drawn up by a committee of which our pastor, Rev. S. G. Hilyard was a member. It would take too much space for me to write each clause, but it is wonderful and easy to live up to when we have our hearts cleansed by Jesus' precious blood. Our society has charge of every second Wednesday evening prayer service, with the exception of the last Wednesday of each month which is missionary meeting. We also have the Sunday morning services when our pastor is not present.

Our members take turns leading the meetings as appointed by the executive, and although we feel very weak and unworthy when our turn comes, the Lord blesses us abundantly and strengthens us. After singing and a goodly num-
