

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Lic. Bert Cann preached in the Reformed Baptist Church at Port Maitland, N. S., Sunday morning, June 3rd.

Lic. Miss Grace M. Sanders led the prayer service on Wednesday night, May 30th, in the Reformed Baptist Church at Port Maitland, N. S. She was spending the week with Mrs. Alvin Perry.

We have heard indirectly that Rev. Hollis Kimball has gone to Lubec, Maine, to hold a tent meeting there.

Lic. H. J. S. Blaney is engaged in a tent meeting at Brookville, N. B. He is being assisted by his father-in-law, Rev. Henry Mosher.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached his farewell sermons at Beals, Me., on Sunday, June 3rd. He and Mrs. Archer go to Beulah Camp Ground on June 13th, to remain until after the Camp Meeting.

A letter from Rev. Dr. Peter Wiseman of Ottawa, president of Annesley College, states that he is severing his connection with the college and is going into general evangelism for the coming year and is open for calls to that work. We had Dr. Wiseman as our evangelist last year at Beulah camp-meeting and found him to be a good worker and excellent teacher of gospel truth, as many who heard him can also testify.—H. S. D.

The pastor of Moncton Church baptized five candidates on Sunday night, June 10, and at a business meeting of the church on Tuesday night following, the names of nine persons were voted on and received as prospective church members. They will be given the right hand of fellowship on Sunday, June 17th.

Lic. Geo. DeLong is assisting Miss Grace Saunders in special meetings at Woods Harbour, N. S.

QUARTERLY MEETING OF DISTRICT NO. 1

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 convened at Brookville, N. B., May 31-June 3, 1934.

The opening service was in charge of the president, Rev. H. L. Robertson, who spoke from I Thess. 3:12, 13. He showed that God's method of putting the heart upon a strong basis was to establish it in holiness. This was a fine sermon on the Second Blessing.

The praise service on Friday afternoon was in charge of B. M. Colpitts. A wonderful time was enjoyed. Friday evening was given over to the Sunday School Association for their convention.

Mrs. F. A. Watson had charge of the praise service on Saturday morning. This was another season of blessing.

The business session was held on Saturday at 3 p.m. The following ministers were present: Revs. H. L. Robertson, J. A. Owens, S. A. Mullen, F. A. Watson, G. A. Rogers and Lic. H. S. Blaney.

The officers elected were as follows:—

President—Lic. H. S. Blaney.

Vice-President—Rev. H. L. Robertson.

Secretary—Rev. G. A. Rogers.

Highway Agent—Rev. F. A. Watson.

Treasurer—Stanley Pryor.

Devotional Committee—Lic. H. S. Blaney, B. Colpitts, S. Pryor and Mrs. Tompkins.

Letters and verbal reports were given for the following churches: Fredericton, Royalton, Victoria, Millville, Maple Ridge, Middle Southampton, Brookville, Hartland, Perth, Lower Brighton, Marysville and Fort Fairfield. Some had been converted and sanctified during the quarter.

Rev. F. A. Watson reported for Highway. The secretary was instructed to write Sister I. M. Keirstead a letter of sympathy and appreciation, assuring her that the people of District No. 1 shall bear her up in prayer.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Brookville church and community for their kind entertainment.

Brothers Mullen and Watson urged that we keep the tent busy the next few months. Debec and Centreville were spoken of as favorable places.

It was decided that the September Quarterly was to be in Fort Fairfield.

Rev. G. A. Rogers preached Saturday evening on the theme, "The Cost of Not Becoming Christ's Disciple." The saints shouted the preacher through as he endeavored to drive the truth home.

Sunday was one of the best days we have seen at a Quarterly for a long time. Brother Errol Watson had charge of the Love Feast and spoke on the words, "Who touched Me." He showed how we must make contact and keep contact with Christ. The service ran through until twelve o'clock. The blessing of that service lingers yet.

The president of the Alliance, Rev. F. A. Watson, preached a powerful sermon on Sunday afternoon from Heb. 12:14. Every word seemed to be touched from above. Second Blessing Holiness is the kind of preaching that suits me from the crown of my head to the sole of my foot. This is the kind we got in that service.

The closing service of the Quarterly and the opening service of the Revival was in charge of Evangelist Henry Mosher, Ohio. This was a very fitting and feeling message on the words of the psalmist, "No man cared for my soul."

The tent was filled to overflowing the last day. The preaching was of a high order and the singing was on the same plane. The Quarterly was a time of blessing and of sowing of precious seeds.

Respectfully yours,

G. A. ROGERS, Secretary.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Members of the Reformed Baptist Church and friends, to the number of 50, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Symonds and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, at Port Maitland, N. S., Monday evening, May 28, to felicitate Mrs. John Smith on the 54th anniversary of her birth. It was a real surprise indeed. After extending congratulations, the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation and song. During an intermission a cake adorned with 54 lighted candles was presented to Mrs. Smith by her youngest son, John.

The ladies had provided a dainty lunch of cake and ice cream which was enjoyed by all, after which the pastor, Rev. P. J. Trafton, presented Mrs. Smith, on behalf of the company, a nice set of dishes; this was another complete surprise for our sister. She thanked her friends in a few words for their kindness but words failed to express her appreciation. The company joined in singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," then the pastor offered a closing prayer after which the company departed wishing her many happy returns.

Mrs. Smith is a twin sister of Mrs. Seretha Churchill, who is a patient in the Yarmouth hospital. The church sent her congratulations in a letter of Christian sympathy containing a small gift of money.

THANKS

We take this opportunity to thank all those who have recently sent in their renewals, and pledges to the supplementary fund. And also to thank the brethren for getting renewals and new subscribers, Rev. F. A. Watson, Rev. H. L. Robertson, Lic. H. J. S. Blaney and Donald Cochrane. We appreciate your help and co-operation. We have received several articles from our subscribers to be printed in The Highway, clippings from other papers, which we are glad to get, but have not had a chance to reprint them yet because we have had so much correspondence and many original articles which of course we print first. But the others will appear later. Thanks.—Editor.

NOTICE

Please send all correspondence for The Highway to Rev. H. S. Dow, Browns Flats, Kings Co., N. B., after June 24th to July 6th. Please send all material and items for next issue June 30th early to Moncton before the 24th, so the editor can prepare it for the press before he leaves for Beulah on the 25th.—Editor.

A GOOD WORKMAN LEAVES HIS POST OF DUTY

An old friend, Mr. George Bedford, who has been the pressman of the machine on which The Highway has been printed for over twenty years, has recently had to leave his post of duty through illness, and will probably never return to it again. He also had been in the employ of The Times Company over 50 years. Some of our brethren who have been editors of The Highway will recognize his name. We will all have to surrender our posts of duty here, sooner or later, to someone else. No matter how well we have filled that place someone else will fill it very soon. May the Lord help us to be ready to fill a better place which Jesus has gone to prepare for us.—Editor.
