

fested patiencee through her suffering. It was the privilege obf the writer to call on Mrs. Donnelly several titimes during her illness. Mrs. Donnelly prayed aand believed that God had saved her soul.

We extennd our sympathy to the sorrowing ones. May Good bless.

G. A. ROGERS

Mrs. Blanche Thibeau

Mrs. Blanche Thibeau of Fort Fairfield, Maine, and of Bristol, Conn., widow of John Thibeau, died Wednesday, Jan. 30th, in Bristol at the age of 48 years. A cancer caused her death.

Mrs. Thilbeau was a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Churchill, Fort Fairfield, Maine. Besides her mother, Mlrs. Thibeau leaves three sons, Winston, of Madiison, Maine., Sterling and Roland, both of Bristol, Conn., one brother, Roy Churchill of Bristol, Conn.; and five sisters, Mrs. C. E. Miles of Arllington, Va., Mrs. C. Burchell of Madison, Maine, Mrs. E. R. Nichols and Mrs. F. Goss, both of California; Mrs. B. Snow of Fort Fairfield, Maiine, also five grandchildren.

A funeral was held in Bristol on Thursday, Jan. 31st. Thee body arrived in Fort Fairfield on Saturday, Feb. 2nd. Another service was held on Saturday afternoon, in the Reformed Baptist church with IRev. G. A. Rogers officiating. Mrs. F. T. Wright and daughter sang, "No Night There" and "Rock of Ages". They were accompanied by Mrrs. O. W. Ames. There were many beautiful flowwers. The body was placed in the vault at Riveerside Cemetery. The writer learned that Mrs. Thiibeau had made her peace with God and had diedl in the faith. God bless the sorrowing ones.

G. A. ROGERS

Gilbert Alley

The towns of Jonesport and Beals were shocked by tthe sudden passing of our brother who was droowned Tuesday morning, Feb. 19th, while on his way to a freighter which was wrecked near Jonesport. Brother Alley was a member of the Reformed Baptist church at Beals, Me., and one of tthe leaders in the Reformed Baptist Mission at Alley's Bay. He will be greatly missed in the lattter, for it was there he went to worship, and was faithful to his God and church. Brother Alcey leaves to mourn their loss, his mother and father, his wife and one daughter, Miss Myra at home, and three brothers, Noys, Laurence and Levi, also three sisters, Mrs. Lula Alley, Mrs. Octavia Beal, and Miss Francis, all of Beals, bessides a host of relatives and friends. The large number of floral tokens and the large attendance at the funeral, showed the high esteem in which our brother was held. Funeral services were conducted from the Alley Bay mission Friday at 2.30 p. m. by the writer, assisted by E. W. Lester. Interment was in the Sewell Field Cemetery. To the sorrowing ones we extend heartfelt sympathy.

H. S. WILSON

Charles W. Owens

The people of Royalton are mourning the death of one of their own boys, Charles W. Owens, which occurred on the evening of January 26th, at the East Saint John Tuberculosis Hospital. He had been in poor health for some time, and although a patient in the hospital for several months, hopes were held out for his recovery. He will be remembered as one who bore his sufferings with true Christian grace and fortitude.

He was 43 years of age, and leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, formerly Miss Helen Crawford, two small daughters, Isobel and Elaine, his mother, Mrs. John A. Owens, three brothers, Harry of Royalton, Percy of Lynn, Mass., and Rev. J. Arthur of Hartland, and one sister, Mrs. Clair Crawford, of Royalton, besides a large circle of other relatives and friends.

The funeral service was held January 30th, at the Reformed Baptist Church, in Royalton, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. H. J. S. Blaney, assisted by Rev. J. G. Duncan, pastor of United Baptist Church, at Tracy Mills. Interment was made in the family lot in the Tracy Mills cemetery. To those who mourn we offer our sympathy in the following appropriate lines:

Has Charles left us? Has he forsaken?

Shall we never see him more?

He has not left us, he is just waiting,

Over on the other shore.

Mrs. Harriette A. Sansom

The community was saddened on Wednesday, Feb. 27th, by the passing of Harriette A., widow of the late Charles Sansom, of Millville, following a short illness.

She leaves to mourn their loss, three daughters, Iva, of Waltham, Mass., Mrs. Annie Hawkins, of Millville, and Inez, at home; two sons, Donald, of Millville, and Charles, at home; three sisters, Mrs. Harry D. Allen, of Presque Isle, Me.; Mrs. Ernest Wallace, of Lr. Hainesville, and Mrs. Henry Forman, of Madison, Me.; also three brothers, Raymond and Willard, of Lr. Hainesville, and Herman, of Madison, Me. The funeral was held Friday p. m., with a short service at the home and service at the U. B. Church. Rev. S. G. Hilyard was in charge and spoke from John 11:25-26. The music was furnished by the choir, who sang, "He's the One," and "Sweetly Resting," at the home, and "Does Jesus Care," "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," and "Goodnight and Goodmorning," at the Church. Interment was made in the Millville cemetery. To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy and prayers.

S. G. H.

Eugene Liston

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Liston, of Millville, was saddened on Monday, Feb. 25th, when death claimed the life of their baby, Eugene, at the age of fourteen months. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his parents, two brothers, Junior and Henry.

The funeral was conducted from the home Thursday p. m., Feb. 28th, and was in charge of Rev. S. G. Hilyard, who spoke from Matt. 19:14. Three selections were sung by the choir: "Jewels," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The pallbearers were two uncles. Interment was made in the Millville cemetery.

W extend to Mr. and Mrs. Liston our sympathy and prayers in their bereavement.

S. G. H.

Deacon George Scott

Our community was shocked to learn on Friday morning, March 1st, of the death of Deacon George Scott. While his sickness extended over a period of the last few months, hope was held for his recovery until a short time ago it was discovered he was suffering from a growth. At the last he failed rapidly.

Brother Scott was born in Bristol, England, moving to this country when only four years of age, and from that time until his last, the most of his life was spent at North Head. He was converted under the ministry of Rev. S. A. Baker, in 1893, when just a young man, later sanctified and made deacon of the church which position he ably filled until his recent sickness. For years he was janitor of the church and was always found at the door welcoming with a handshake any that came.

The funeral was held in the church and the large gathering was a testimony of the esteem in which he was held by all. The community has lost a great citizen, the home the best of fathers, and the church a valuable member. His passing leaves a large gap in our congregation. Our loss is his gain. We miss him, yet he rests from his labors. The service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. H. C. Sanders, and Reformed Baptist Choir. Our sympathy is extended to those that mourn.

L. J. SEARS

Relatives who survive our brother are as follows: Three sisters, Mrs. James Stanley, Bar Harbour, Me.; Mrs. Geo. Lahey and Mrs. Sydney Totton, both of North Head. One brother, Daniel Thomas, North Head. The children are Mrs. Bruce Stanley, North Head; Mrs. O. F. Jones, Chattanooga, U. S. A.; one son, Ralph, of Caribean, Me.

L. J. S.

IN MEMORIAM

In the graveyard gently sleeping
Where the flowers soon will wave
Lies the one we loved so dearly
In her lonely silent grave.

She has left our home so lonely
We can see her vacant chair,
But we know that she is happy,
In the Mansion over there.

Far beyond this world of changes
Far beyond this world of care,
We shall meet our darling Grandma,
In our Father's Mansion fair.

In loving memory of Mrs. Margaret Brooks, who departed this life on March 16, 1934.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

"For God loveth a cheerful giver." II Cor. 9:7.
Mr. Edward W. Dow$3.00
Mr. Thomas Martin 1.00
Rev. H. S. Wilson 1.00
Mrs. Frank Kinzie50
Mr. J. W. Cosman50

We are very thankful to all our friends for their response to our appeals for renewals, and also to those who remember the Supplementary Fund for the Highway. But we must again remind others who are in arrears, that we need your renewal at once to meet our expenses in carrying on the work of printing our paper. Please let us hear from you. Thanks.—Editor.

MISSION FUND

Westchester (F. M.)$ 7.00
Westchester (N. W.) 6.01
Mrs. Jos. Saunders 3.00
Wm. Mitchell 2.00
Marysville S. S. 4.41
Marysville M. S. 4.01
Marysville M. S. (H. M.) 4.01
Mr. and Mrs. M. Mullen (N. W.) 15.00
Mr. and Mrs. M. Mullen (Passage Fund) 15.00
Isa MacFarlane 10.00
Two Friends50
Frederickton M. S. 7.36

We thank all who have contributed to the above funds but we are still much behind our needs, considerable had to be borrowed to salary needs recently forwarded to Africa.

We need several hundred dollars to meet current expenses.

L. T. SABINE, Treasurer.