

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The last report from Rev. C. R. Hagerman is that he is still failing and very weak. Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Havelock, Nova Scotia, was honored by being elected president of our Alliance at Beulah this year.

Rev. L. T. Sabine and family went to Nova Scotia immediately after camp meeting to visit his mother and other relatives. They are having a family reunion at the old home at Riverdale, N. S. The Trafton family had a reunion at Beulah camp ground during the camp meeting. Rev. P. J. Trafton from Port Maitland, N. S.; M. S. Trafton of Newport, R. I.; Harold Trafton, of Mapleton, Maine; the three brothers and Mrs. F. Foley, of St. John, and Mrs. A. Perry, of Port Maitland, N. S., the two sisters were all present. The brothers' wives were present also, and several other members of their families.

Rev. H. L. Robertson is visiting his parents at Norton, N. B., a few days after the camp-meeting.

Miss Miriam Sanders is supplying for Rev. L. T. Sabine at Woodstock in his absence.

The editor of the King's Highway accompanied by Lic. A. Deadman and others went to Amherst Wednesday night and had a service with the church there. Brother Deadman and Mrs. Deadman remained down to have service on Sunday, July 14th.

Two applications were received by the elders' conference this year, one from the church at Fort Fairfield requesting us to grant them the privilege to license Burrell Kimball to preach the gospel, and another like request came from the Church at Marysville asking the same privilege for Donald Cochrane.

Riverside Camp Meeting at Robinson, Me., begins this year on August the 9th and continues over two Sundays till the 19th.

Rev. L. T. Sabine and family wish to express their appreciation to the number of friends from Marysville, Devon and Fredericton who so pleasantly surprised them on the evening of June 24th. These kind friends gave them an acceptable "pantry shower" and some cash, all of which were very timely. Before leaving a dainty luncheon was offered. To them all we say, Thank you and God bless you!

BEDDING FOR BEULAH

We are very grateful to those who by their industry and generosity have kept the rooms at our camp-grounds supplied with bedding all through the past years. Whereas we are in need of many more quilts and blankets, etc., to take the places of some which are worn out, we are making an appeal through the Highway for more of these necessary things.

ROOMS COMMITTEE

Lowella Hyaes—1 quilt.

Young People of Fredericton Church—1 quilt.

Sisters of Fredericton Church—1 quilt.

Young People of Jonesport Church—1 doz. pillow slips.

Mrs. Walter Long—1 pair of pillows with slips.

Mrs. Sharp—1 quilt.

Mrs. S. N. Grass—Making 24 sheets.

In the lexicon of youth, which Fate reserves for a bright manhood, there's no such word as fail.

PERSONALS

Miss Glenna, the eldest daughter of Rev. P. W. and Mrs. Briggs, of Island Falls, Me., is travelling and singing during vacation with a ladies' quartet from Eastern Nazarene College, where Miss Briggs has been studying the past two years.

We were glad to note that the older people of our denomination still retain a lively interest in Beulah Camp meeting, and many were in attendance this year again. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Abner Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Somers, Mrs. Greer, of Moncton; Mr. George Thomas, of North Head; Mr. John Mitchell, of Marysville; Mr. Banford Fawcett, of Killams' Mills.

Mrs. S. A. Baker received a letter recently from Mr. A. H. Sherwood, of Los Angeles, Calif. She wished to be remembered to all her friends in N. B. Sister Sherwood was the wife of the late Mr. A. H. Sherwood, who was the first editor of the King's Highway. They were both highly esteemed members of our denomination. We are glad to hear of Mrs. Sherwood's continued interest in our work.

We were glad to have a good representation from Rev. E. R. Bradley's new work at Crawford, Maine. A large truck load were present over the first Sunday, and they greatly enjoyed the services.

One church report read something like this: Our good pastor, Rev. — has been with us five years and is remaining another year. We need your prayers

Several of our people who have cottages at Beulah are remaining on the grounds this summer again. Among them are Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Archer, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, Mrs. S. A. Baker, Mr. Robert Barr, Mrs. C. K. Short, Mrs. F. Foley, Mrs. I. F. Keirstead is staying with Mrs. Baker. Lic. E. A. M. Keirstead and Mr. Keirstead will be there part of the time.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mr. William Mitton, of Lewisville, passed away at his home on Wednesday morning, July 10th, after an illness of several months' duration, at the age of 54 years. He is survived by his widow and four sons, William, Asa, Audber and Hibbert, and three daughters, Mrs. Charles Steeves, of Coverdale; Miss Iola and Mrs. Frank Rivers, of Moncton. Mr. Mitton was a great but patient sufferer, and during his illness committed himself to the Lord, and died trusting in Him.

The funeral service was held at his home on Friday, the 12th, conducted by Rev. Mr. Beckett, U. B., and assisted by Rev. Mr. Pike and the writer. Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery. To the bereaved ones we extend sympathy.
