

For sin—no necessity to bear the reproach of the world that will live godly in Christ Jesus. He will suffer persecution. They shall meet the sword of Herod down the road.

But on this Christmas Eve let us encourage ourselves in God. The Light from Bethlehem is still shining. As we look back we have much more to inspire our faith than had the shepherds and the wisemen. Truly the babe of Bethlehem is the Lion of the tribe of Judah. He is going forth conquering and to conquer. All that is bright and beautiful and true and holy and noble in this world of ours is due to the exalted Jesus.

Christmas-time has been secularized and commercialized but if we have had Jesus born in our hearts we will have a delightful Christmas-time. The story of Bethlehem will have a wonderful charm for us for we shall read it in the light of Calvary and Pentecost. We shall have known of Jesus by a spiritual birth, we shall know him by a personal crucifixion to inbred sin; we shall know him by the cleansing baptism and the constantly indwelling presence. Bethlehem shall mean to us spiritually what it means literally—the House of Bread—Jesus the Bread of life to our souls.

Dear Bro. Dow:

Am sending subscription for Highway. Would not like to do without it. We had a radio put in a few weeks ago, and hear a lot of good things, but don't have to listen to the foolish things. Hope we will hear you over the air some morning.

God bless you in the good work.

Wish you a peaceful and prosperous New Year.

Well bless God I am going on by His Grace. Your Brother as ever.

Dear Highway:

Again we stand on the threshold between the old year and the new. Looking back we see many tests, but along with them many evidences of God's presence and blessing. Looking ahead we expect many more tests but we feel assured that God will be out there in the future with His sustaining grace and sheltering arms.

The Christmas season has been a pleasant one and we feel grateful to the dear friends who have remembered us with greeting cards and gifts. May the Lord bless and grant each one a joyous New Year! We would especially like to extend our sympathy and best wishes to the dear shut-in ones and trust that the coming year will hold much of God's blessing, and

"Peace, perfect peace,

The future all unknown,

But Christ we know

And He is on the throne."

I love the dear old Highway. When I was just a small child I remember of its first publication when living in New Brunswick with my parents, who were among the first to help organize the "Movement". I am praying the "Highway will always hold up the banner of Holiness as a second definite work. I am happy in the Lord, enjoying the "Blessing". I find that real salvation is the only thing that stands the tests of the times.

Sincerely your Sister in Christ.

Dear Brother Editor:

I am sending renewal of Highway, $2.00 May God bless its mission to the unsaved of earth. I am near the four score and eight years of life. Can recommend this wonderful Lord to the unsaved. Once I was young now I am old yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken or his seed begging bread".

Yours in the Faith.

Dear Brother Dow:

It seems at this time a note from this part of God's vineyard would be in order. We found this Christmas to be one of the best we have had. Friends from former pastorates remembered us with cards and gifts which caused us to be thankful for real friends that have proven true down through the years. The folk here on this circuit used us just like Holiness people have always used their pastors; doing their best to give us a merry Christmas. We were remembered by friends from all parts of this circuit, sending us many useful gifts, 2 quilts, chickens, cakes, money and other gifts for each one of the family, and besides all this a nice turkey. Surely God has been good to us, His servants through His people. We were kindly remembered by the Sunday School at Salem with a gift of money. The Young People's Society at Head of Millstream, gave us a nice gift of a linen table cloth. We surely appreciate the kindness of all who have remembered us and the gifts sent us from Norton, Lower Millstream, Apohaqui, Salem, Head of Millstream and Killam's Mills, and other places. May God bless each one who has so kindly remembered us is our prayer.

We purpose that the coming year will find us working and waiting for our Lord. We can express the attitude of our hearts best by saying

We are yours in His Glad Service.

MR. AND MRS. HARTLEY E. MULLEN

Dear Highway: Port Maitland, N. S.

We wish to express, through your columns, our thanks and appreciation of the many kindnesses shown to us, during the Christmas and New Year, by friends far and near. We received many greeting cards, gifts of money, turkey, beef, pork, chicken, eggs and mince meat and cream. We got a genuine surprise when at the close of the evening service at Sandford, Dec. 23rd, as we were ready to leave the church we were handed an envelope containing a generous sum of money, most of the people were still in the church. We tried to say a few words in appreciation but found an outlet for our feelings in a prayer of thanksgiving to our loving Heavenly Father and for blessing upon the friends who had so kindly remembered us. We say again God bless you one and all and may this be the best year in all of our lives.

We were again remembered when we held our Sunday School exercises on Thursday evening, Jan. 3rd at the parsonage in Port Maitland, we were presented by the Superintendent with a gift of money. We praise the Lord for these tokens of kindness and fellowship.

We begin revival services on the 9th for two weeks, kindly remember us in your prayers.

Yours in His service.

MR. AND MRS P. J. TRAFTON

Fort Fairfield, Maine,

Dear Brother Dow: January 1, 1935.

We thought we might write you a few lines just to be friendly, and to let you know how much we enjoy the Highway. We have been quite well this winter, able to keep about, and do some work. We were glad to have Hollis with us for a few days, he likes his work there, among the fishermen. Burrel has gone down to Black's Harbor to assist him in a series of special meetings. We are praying that they may have a revival in that place.

We are having good meetings. Mr. Rogers gives us good spiritual food, some of our number have been unable to attend very much on account of illness.

Sister Julian Durost fell and broke her shoulder. Sister Churchill is spending the winter in Conn., with her daughter, we miss her very much. Brother Fred Foster is holding special meetings in or near Waterville, Me., Rev. M. Ella Slipp has been supplying at the Friend's Church at Maple Grove for several Sundays.

We are planning to have special services here in the near future.

With kind regards to yourself and family.
