

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. Hollis Kimball of Black's Harbor, N. B., is engaged in special meetings. He reports good interest and a good outlook for a real revival, some are being converted and some seeking holiness, and many are requesting prayer. He is being assisted by his brother Burrel, who is doing excellent preaching which is being well received. Burrel is open for more calls for evangelist work for February and March.

Rev. F. A. Anderson will assist Rev. P. J. Trafton in special meetings at Sandford, beginning Wednesday, Jan. 9th.

Rev. H. E. Mullen will assist Rev. Geo. Rogers, B. A., at Fort Fairfield, Maine, in evangelistic meetings in the near future.

Lic. Judson Sanders is supplying the church at Amherst, N. S.

Lic. Norman Sanders is assisting his sister, Miss Miriam Sanders, at Mercer in special meetings.

Lic. Erral Watson is assisting Miss Grace Sanders in special meetings at Woods Harbor, N. S.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard B. A., reports good meetings on his field, and says he was well remembered at the Christmas season by the good people there.

Rev. H. C. Archer is improving slowly but is still confined to his room.

Rev. L. J. Sears is to begin special services at North Head soon. He will be assisted by Rev. P. W. Briggs of Island Falls.—Editor.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends who have expressed their kindness and sympathy by card and letter during the past few weeks. Since our last letter in the "Highway" I have had my foot X-rayed which reveals an infected bone, which no doubt will prolong my stay in the house for an indefinite period. I would like these dear friends to pray with me for a speedy and full recovery.

Yours in Christ.

H. C. ARCHER

TRIALS

God does not give us grace until the hour of trial comes. But when it does come, the amount of grace and the nature of the special grace required is vouchsafed. Do not perplex thyself with what is needed for future emergencies, tomorrow will bring its proved grace along with tomorrow's trials.—J. R. Macduff.

SAILING HOME

Set thy sails warily,

Tempests will come;

Steer thy course steadily;

Christian, steer home.

—Mrs. Southey.

THE REAL MEANING OF LIFE

The satisfied man with no new needs cannot claim of life any future. To have all your desires satisfied is to be pretty near hell. Having all you want is a very poor business. The real meaning of life is in doing and being and longing. To want what you haven't got and are not ever likely to get is a very much better thing than to have all you want.—Rev. T. E. Ruth.

As for a little more money and a little more time, why, it's ten to one if either one or the other would make you a whit happier.—B. Franklin.

Brother Will Carson of Norton, who has lately given one thousand dollars in memory of his wife, the late Mrs. Carson, to be invested for Missions, and also the good sister at Sussex, who recently gave five hundred dollars to the Sanders' passage fund, have set an excellent example for others who have some money that they want to invest in something which will bring them large returns. They have given their money now when it is needed so much, and while they have it in their power to give. So they are sure that it is being used as they desire. I have known some people whom God had blessed with some money above what they needed for their own support who said they were going to give some to the Lord's work, but they did not do so, because they put it off too long, and when they got old, unsaved relatives or associates took advantage of their weakness and persuaded them to give their money or property to them instead of to the cause of Christ, as they had intended and those unsaved relatives squandered it in "riotous living" so the money which God intended should prove to be a blessing became a curse instead, because the one whom God entrusted with it held on to it too long. Why not give your money now so you can see it invested in the work of God or make a proper will so your money can be used after you are gone as God would have you use it. Don't put this matter off any longer. "And I say unto you, make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations"—Jesus. Luke 16:9.
