

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Lic. B. C. Cochrane of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, N. B., writes in part as follows:

I am writing to say we expect to open a revival campaign February 3rd, with Rev. E. W. Tokley of Toronto, and ask through the Highway the prayers of the people for an outpouring of the Spirit. With the good foundation laid by Bro. Dunlop, the present need of our community, and the man of God coming whom we have as evangelist, we feel the Lord is going to move in a mighty way.—B. C. Cochrane.

We had a letter from Rev. L. J. Alley, of Melrose, Mass., recently, who says he is happy to be in the work of the Lord, and enjoying his blessing.

A letter from Rev. S. G. Hilyard, B. A., of Millville, reports the work encouraging, and says, Miss Blanch Young, R. N., who is home for a little rest, is a great help and inspiration in the meetings.

Rev. P. J. Trafton writes that they are engaged in special meetings. He is being assisted by Rev. F. A. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson. He writes that they are having a real battle, but Brother Anderson is doing good preaching, and they are expecting victory.

A letter from Sister Sanders of North Head, says: We are happy in the Lord who is supplying all our needs. She also says, Bro. Briggs is preaching well in the special meetings being held, and we are looking for a real revival.

We wish to make mention of the industry of the "Young Boosters" of Miss Isa MacFarlane's Fredericton Sunday School Class (age eleven to fourteen years) who succeeded in doing so well for missions—the "Passage Fund".

The teacher on Nov. 1st, gave to each of her ten girls, ten cents (called talent money) to be invested and reinvested for missions. They bought material (when needed) and made such articles as fancy coat hangers, book-marks, knitting bags, toothbrush holders, pin-cushions, dolls, pot-holders, and calendars with Scripture texts, etc.

They found ready buyers for these useful articles. Their thrift and enterprise, with so small capital, netted the fine sum of $17.00, as appears above.

"All honor to those who try". Such faithful little workers deserve to have their names to appear in this connection; so here they are: Evelyn Sinnott, Ruth Peterson, Mayis Cameron, Beatrice Brawn, Jessie Brawn, Ruth Morrell, Evelyn Lawson, Myrtle Bishop, Velma Libby, Doris Booth.

No doubt this worthy suggestion of Sister MacFarlane and the faithful work of her class will stimulate interest in other classes of our Sunday Schools to do likewise. "A hint to the wise is sufficient". So we say, Thank you boys and girls.

L. T. SABINE, Treasurer.

Keep in your heart a shrine to the ideal, and upon this altar let the fire never die.—Hubbard.

Jones-Appleby

On Wednesday, 3.00 p. m., Jan. 2, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Appleby, of Millville, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, when their daughter, Edith Luella, was united in marriage to Earle Leroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, of Hawkinville, in the presence of the immediate relatives, by Rev. S. C. Hilyard. The single ring service was used. The bride was dressed in a gown of Spanish tyle with accessories to match.

Following the ceremony the guests were seated at a table amply laden with good things to eat and presided over by the bride's mother.

We pray God's blessing upon this couple through a long and prosperous life. S. G. G.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Cenith I. Barnes

Miss Cenith Ida Barnes, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnes, died at 6:00 o'clock Sunday morning, Jan. 20. Miss Barnes had been a patient at the Northern Maine Sanatorium at Presque Isle four months, but had been brought home January 11th, where she was cared for by Miss Mary Campbell, R. N.

Besides her parents, she leaves to mourn two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Bubar and Miss Marie, at home, and four brothers, Norman, Philip, Floyd and Harry, all at home. Funeral services were held at 1:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Reformed Baptist church, Rev. G. A. Rogers, pastor of the church, officiating. Rev. Ella Slipp offered prayer. Three selections, "Does Jesus Care?", "Meet Me in the Morning", and "Will the Circle Be Unbroken", were sung by Mrs. Fred T. Wright and Olie Hillman, accompanied by Mrs. Otis Ames. The pall-bearers were Sedo Miller, Loomis Amsden, Loomis Johnston and Harold Rogers. The flowers were numerous and beautiful. The eighth grade of the grammar school, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. The body was placed in the vault at Riverside cemetery, to be buried in that cemetery in the spring. The sympathy of the community is extended to the mourning relatives in their great bereavement.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Fort Fairfield lost one of its well-known residents in the passing of John Manter on Monday morning, Jan. 21st, at the age of 55 years. He had a paralytic shock fifteen days before his death. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Ada Hitchcock, also two daughters, Mrs. Henry Milliard and Mrs. Kenneth Flannery, and three sons, Loren, Alton and Jerome.

Revs. F. T. Wright and G. A. Rogers had prayers at the home at 1:30 p. m. on Wednesday, Jan. 23. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. at the Reformed Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. G. Rogers, officiated and Rev. F. T. Wright assisted. The pastor spoke from Heb. 11:16. Three selections, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", "Will the Circle Be Unbroken?" and "The Eastern Gate", were sung by Elwood and Kenneth Cogswell, and Olin Hillman.

The many beautiful flowers and the large funeral were silent testimonies of the high esteem in which our brother was held by his church and town. Mr. Manter was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church and gave his testimony in one of the last services that he attended, which was just before he was taken sick. Brother Manter was a congenial and faithful Christian man. He shall be greatly missed.

The body was placed in the vault at Riverside cemetery. May the God of all grace comfort and bless the mourning ones in their hour of bereavement.

The Highway readers, and Editor, extend to Sister Manter, and family, their sincere sympathy in this their very sad bereavement.—Editor.

Chares M Trask

Charles M. Trask passed away from this life at his home in Port Maitland, N. S., Monday afternoon, Jan. 14th, in the 82nd year of his age. He had been an invalid for over two years. He met with an accident more than eight years ago, which rendered him incapable of working, and has been gradually failing ever since. He was an energetic and industrious man. Before coming to Port Maitland, he lived at Sandford for many years, and was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church of that place. The writer called at his home many times since coming to Port Maitland and found him always glad to see me. I called to see him two hours previous to his passing. He was conscious but realized the end was near. He testified to being right with God and ready for death. He was tenderly and patiently cared for by his devoted wife. He leaves to mourn, besides his wife, two sons, Arnold, of Short Beach, N. S., Herbert, of Sandford, N. S.; one sister, Mrs. Samuel Harris, of Short Beach, N. S.; one brother, Lewis; one sister, Mrs. Frank Smith, and a large circle of other relatives and friends. The funeral was held from the home Thursday afternoon, Jan. 17th, at 2.30 o'clock, the writer officiating, assisted by Mr. Wood, U. B. The Men's Choir, conducted by Mrs. Harry Brown, sang three appropriate selections. Wilfred Sanders, Charles Sollows, Fred Sollows and Alvin Perry were the pallbearers. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes. Interment was in Island Cemetery at Port Maitland. To the sorrowing ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Baker, who has been with us from the beginning of our denomination, and has always shown a whole-hearted interest in every phase of our work. Now let us have a letter or an article from every preacher's wife. Don't say "I can't", but ask the Lord what He will have you write, and get busy so we shall have one ready for next issue. Thanks.—Editor.
