

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We are very sorry to hear that Brother C. R. Hagerman is very poorly again and is suffering much pain. He is at present in the hospital at Fort Fairfield. See Brother Roger's letter in this issue.

Rev. P. J. Trafton spoke over the air from Yarmouth, N. S., on June 8th, and will be on again July 1st, according to schedule.

Rev. H. S. Dow spent Sunday, June 2nd, with the church at Westchester, N. S., where he baptized 19 candidates and received 17 into church membership the same evening. Lic. Chas. Sanders the pastor there and the church, have been holding evangelistic meetings, assisted by Lic. Roy Sellick, of Oxford, N. S. and the Lord has wonderfully blessed them. We never witnessed a finer baptism. The happy candidates came out of the water with shining faces and up lifted hands witnessing for Jesus. See Brother Sanders' letter in this issue.

Lic. Judson Sanders is holding some meetings at Lutes Mountain this week since he returned from Killam's Mills, where he attended the quarterly meeting. He expects to go to Amherst for Sunday.

The brethren all report much blessing at the recent quarterly meetings and excellent attendance.

We are expecting a great meeting at Beulah this year because everywhere the people are praying for God's blessing on our gathering, and many are coming expecting a great time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. Remember the dates, June 28 to July 7, inclusive.

PERSONALS

Miss Marguerite L. Trafton, of West Newton, Mass., and Lic. Norman E. Trafton, of Eastern Nazarene College, have arrived home to spend the summer with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Trafton, Port Maitland, N. S.

Miss Dorothy Perry, who has been in Saint John, N. B., for the winter and spring, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Perry at Port Maitland, N. S.

Professor H. S. Thurston and family, of Tusealoosa, Ala., arrived in Sandford, N. S., Tuesday, June 4th. Mr. Thurston left for Columbus, Ohio, June 13th, where he will take a summer course. Mrs. Thurston and the children will spend the summer at Sandford.

P. J. T.

A letter from Brother Donald Cochrane in which he sends some renewals and a new subscriber for the Highway, reports spiritual victories in the work at Marysville and much blessing on his own soul.

Mrs. J. C. Arnold, formerly of Woodstock, celebrated her 90th birthday on June 1st, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Shortt, Brown's Flats. Her other daughter, Mrs. E. E. King and family arrived by motor from California in time for the occasion. Many friends called to offer congratulations.—Mrs. F. W. Shortt.

NOTE—The Highway congratulates Sister Arnold also, and wishes her many happy returns.

NOTICE

Please send all material for the next issue of the Highway in early, because the Editor wants to prepare it for publication before he leaves for Beulah Camp-meeting on June 24th. We would like to have all material in not later than the 23rd. Thanks. EDITOR.

QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 2

Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 convened at Killam's Mills June 6—9. Lic. E. Watson spoke at the Thursday evening service. Friday afternoon was given over to the Sunday School convention. This service was rich—the business pausing at times for the moving of the spirit in praise and testimony. Miss Jenny Henry read a stirring paper on the problems of the Sunday School. Lic. Judson Sanders pictured an African Sunday School. In the evening Rev. H. S. Mullen brought one of his strong messages.

Saturday morning the prayer-meeting and testimony service was led by Brother Eugene Taylor. This was a melting service. The afternoon was devoted to the business of the Quarterly Meeting—after which followed a real live testimony meeting.

Saturday evening, 7 p. m.—Lic. Judson Sanders held a children's service, at which were quite a number of interested grownups. Subject was the tribulations and glad triumph of a little Christian Zulu girl. At 8 o'clock the evening service brought Brother Watson with a searching, convicting message. He showed us that a true old-fashioned Holiness experience will show itself in our dress and conduct.

Lic. Arthur Deadman, who came down from Moncton, Sunday, spoke in the afternoon, and opened to us of the deep things of God.

Miss Jenny Henry spoke at the Young People's meeting, beginning at 6 p. m. which was a very nice service. The evangelistic message of the evening was brought by Rev. H. S. Mullen. In this message, as our brother swung down the ringing corridors of truth, he was at his best. God was there in convicting power. At this service there were five at the altar, two reclaimed, one saved, two sanctified. Saturday evening brought three to the altar for pardon or purity.

Some excellent solos were rendered during the meetings. The testimony meetings were marked by tears, shoutings and glory.

The writer stayed over until Tuesday, and perhaps I might add here that he held a service Monday evening, at which he gave another talk on our Missionaries, and life on the Mission Station. We feel that first hand information, and stirring up on this subject is a real need among us.

The writer may have pictured his account in rather glowing colors, but we had a very good time, and somehow we cannot feel to strain out all but the bald statements of what was done.
