MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The last word from Brother Hagerman is that he is on his feet again, gaining rapidly and is discharged from hospital. See his letter, and also one from Brother Charlton, in this issue.

Rev. H. L. Robertson has resigned from pastorate of Woodstock church, and is open for a call.

Rev. P. W. Briggs has received an unanimous call to remain with the church at Crystal another year.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, B. A., has accepted an unanimous call to remain with Fort Fairfield church another year.

Rev. H. J. S. Blaney will begin special meetings on Sunday, March 31st, to continue over three Sundays. He will be assisted by Rev. G. A. Rogers. of Fort Fairfield, Me.

Rev. L. J. Sears of North Head, Grand Manan, N. B., is confined to his home with tonsilitis and also eyeritis in one of his eyes, which is causing him a great deal of pain.

Will all the pastors please call the attention of their people to the financial needs of our paper, and urge the subscribers to renew at once; and also get some new subscribers. We need the renewals to carry on our work. Thanks.—Editor.

Dear Brother Dow:

Just a line to the "Highway", to let you know I have been discharged from the hospital and I am convalescing at my brother's home.

I am gaining as rapidly as can be expected. I appreciate all of those kind and sympathetic letters I received while in the hospital, and the many gifts of money which have been sent in. I will be glad to write The Highway a letter later.

Your Brother in Christ.
REV. C. R. HAGERMAN

NOTICE

Mrs. J. F. Perkins of 188 Queen Street, Saint John, wishes to sell her nice cottage at Beulah camp-ground. If any of our readers are interested please correspond with her.

NOTICE

The positions as waitresses at Beulah have all been filled. If any that have accepted positions as waitress, change their plans before "Beulah", kindly let us know, as others have applied.

L. J. SEARS

L. T. SABINE, 315 George St., Fredericton, N. B.

Thank you sincerely.

H. S. DOW

For what is it that faith does with these lives of ours? It just takes them out of our weak, trembling, uncertain control and puts them into the hands of God. It makes them a part of his great plan. It binds them fast to his pure and loving will, and fills them with his life.—Van Amburgh.

PERSONALS

There has been much sickness among our church members recently, as there has been among all churches, which has interferred with church attendance. But we are thankful there has not been many deaths.

Brother Gordon Dickinson, of Woodstock, is confined to his bed, but is improving, and cheerfully trusting the Lord to restore him to his normal health.

Brother Robert Henderson has gone to East Saint John Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Charles True, of Woodstock, has been confined to her home because of colds.

Brother C. E. Robinson, of Moncton, has been confined to his home for several weeks with a sore ear, and a general run down condition. He is much missed from the services where he was a faithful attendant.

Mrs. H. S. Dow spent a week-end and over Sunday, March 24th, at Moncton, N. B. She was the guest of Mrs. S. N. Grass while in the city.

Three months more will bring us to Beulah camp-meeting time. Already many people are making plans to go to the great spiritual feast. We are having Rev. John F. Owen, of Columbus, Ohio, for our special evangelist this year. Let us all pray and believe God for the greatest camp-meeting we have ever seen at Beulah. He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think. Remember the date, June 28 to July 8, 1935.

QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 3

The quarterly meeting of this district was held with the church at Black's Harbor, March 7 to 10. The meeting began under most inauspicious conditions, there being no preachers or delegates on the opening night. At 7 o'clock we gave up hope of anybody coming and realized it was up to us to preach to a disappointed crowd. However, it was a good meeting and best of all one soul was saved. Friday night we had to preach again and Saturday Brothers Wilson and Bradley arrived. No business meeting was held but the reports were read in the evening service. Brother Bradley preached Saturday evening, delivering a convincing sermon on the worth of a soul.

The love feast Sunday morning was in charge of Brother Max Wilcox and was a time of blessing. Brother Wilson was the preacher at the morning service, giving a good holiness sermon on the Canaan Land experience. A number of souls were seekers for the blessing. In the afternoon Brother Bradley preached a strong sermon on "The Call to Holiness". More seekers were at the altar.

The closing message was brought by Bro. Wilson, who preached on the judgment. This was a most glorious service and a fitting climax to a good quarterly meeting. There were seven seekers, one sister got sanctified and came through shouting the victory. A young man and his wife were saved who were brought up in the Church of England faith. They will be baptized and will join the church.

Letters were received from Brothers Sears and Cochrane, expressing their regret at being unable to attend. We missed them but were glad to have the two brethren that came. It was one of the best quarterlies we have ever seen. The next meeting will be with the Calais church in June.

The Lord is still blessing us here. A young man was saved last Sunday and we are praying for others. We have meetings nearly every night except when there is overtime in the factory. We praise God for his wonderful power and grace that He sheds upon us.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Miriam H. Thurston

Mrs. Miriam H. Thurston, widow of Howard Thurston, passed away suddenly at her home in Sandford, N. S., Friday afternoon, March 15th, in the 80th year of her age.

She was converted at the age of twenty, in a revival held at Sandford by Rev. Mr. Knowles and united with Free Baptist Church. Under the ministry of Rev. A. Kinney she sought and obtained the experience of entire sanctification; when the Reformed Baptist Church was organized. She with her husband, became charter members. Her husband died some five years ago.

The church and community have sustained a great loss in the death of our sister. She has always been a faithful witness, by word and deed, to the power of God to cleanse from all sin. She had been prominent in the work of the church, was a Sunday School teacher all these years and deeply interested in the spiritual welfare of souls. She was a saint of God; always glad to entertain the Lord's people, giving words of appreciation and comfort to the pastor, ever glad to give of her earthly store to sustain the work. We believe she was like a shock of corn fully ripe for the harvest.

She leaves to mourn one daughter, Martha, at home; three sons, Roy and Fred of Sandford, N. S., and Herbert of Tuscaloosa, Alabama; also one brother, Charles Churchill of Darling Lake, N. S. and a large circle of other relatives and friends.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon in the Reformed Baptist Church, where a large congregation assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. Some flowers were in evidence, although she had made request that there should be no flowers at her funeral. In the place of flowers the Reformed Baptist Church at Sandford gave a sum of money in her memory, to the Sanders Passage Fund. A choir sang hymns that were favorites of the deceased, the writer spoke from words found in Numbers 23rd chapter, verse 10. "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his". The body was laid to rest beside that of her husband, in the Darling Lake cemetery, to await the resurrection of the saints.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord henceforth: Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their lobours; and their works do follow them."

To the sorrowing ones we extend our deepest sympathy.

TRUTH AND HOPE

The truth and hope of any time must always be sought in minorities. All history, whether in the field of religion or art, is a record of the power of minorities. There needs one wise man in a company and all become wise, so rapid is the contagion. Great men exist that there maybe greater men.—W. H. Weigle.

Nothing too bad to be incurable; nothing too good to be hoped for; nothing too high to be attempted; nothing so precious that we cannot afford to give it away. Yes, even that! For there is that within the hero which is so rich that he can afford to give his very life away, and be mone the poorer.—L. P. Jacks.
