

CORRESPONDENCE

Killam's Mills

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find report of S. S. Convention held at Killam's Mills, also paper that was to be printed in the Highway. Thanks!

Hope God is blessing you in your work at Moncton. Am glad this morning for victory in my soul. Glad for his ever-abiding presence these days, and for the real edification and "go through" spirit I feel just now. May He continue to bless.

Yours in His service,

JENNIE HENRY

Skowhegan

Dear Brother Dow:

Am enclosing $3.50 to pay two years on the Highway. I have taken the paper too long to want to lose it now. It is like a letter from home and there are always so many good things in it.

Sincerely,

MRS. J. C. MacARTHUR

Kingston, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find $1.50 for my Highway.

I like this paper very much, and always enjoyed reading it. I always enjoy the missionary letters and testimonies which are a great spiritual help.

Many friends that we seldom see we can hear of through the Highway.

I wish you every success with your paper. I value it next to my Bible.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. ADINO SHAMPIER

Kingston, Kings Co., N. B.

Dear Mr. Dow:

Enclosed please find $1.50 for my renewal of the Highway. I enjoy reading its pages very much and find them very helpful.

Yours in Him,

MRS. MINNIE McDOWELL

Penniac

Coldstream, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find Money Order for the Highway.

I always enjoy reading its clean pages. It is such a help and inspiration.

I praise God that I am still enjoying His blessing on my soul and am proving Him to be the abiding Friend He has promised to be to those who trust Him.

May the Lord bless you in this great work.

MRS. CLARENCE B. GREER

Westport, Digby Co., N. S.

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway.

I look forward to its reading every issue. I like to hear about my old friends and what they are doing.

Sorry to hear about Ray being so poorly.

We used to have good services at Fort Fairfield years ago when you were pastor at Fort Fairfield.

Please give my best regards to Mrs. Dow. Trusting you are all well.

I hear Christian singing once in a while over the radio from Fredericton.

Wishing you every success in your work. I remain,

Yours truly,

CATHERINE MORRELL

June 24, 1935

I see in the heading of the Montreal Witness this suggestion or splendid motto:

Make Canada a land to love. We could have no greater honour. Then I ask myself how can this be done? How can we make the world have that respect for us and faith in us that they will really want to love us? By starting a home. How can we make our wives, our children, our homes a place to love us, also our citizens, our Canada a land to love? There is only one way, by little acts of love and kindness. But I hear someone say pray for them. Well, how did our blessed Jesus secure the love of people while on earth? By praying for them no doubt, no doubt he did that, but it was by his untiring ministry of healing the sick, giving sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, cleansing to the lepers, raising the widow's son, and Lazarus to comfort the sorrowing sisters; just one continuous round of benefit to the minds and bodies of suffering people by which he proved that he was a friend that loved them above all others. We hear Jesus saying to his followers by this shall all men know that ye are my disciples because ye have loved one another and again we hear him say the greatest commandment is "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, mind, soul and strength and the second is like unto it. "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." And again Matt. 5:44, "But I say unto you love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you and pray for them that despitefully use you, that ye may be the children of your Father who is in heaven." When Canada can do these things we will have made her a land to love and we can do this only when we let Jesus fill us with his mind and love, but in so doing let us remember that we are doing the biggest thing that can be accomplished both for ourselves, our loved ones and all mankind. It is true these are difficult things to do but are well worth paying the price for, and we hear him saying my grace is sufficient for you.

Let us all pray, pray, pray and work, work, work to this end and to Jesus' name be the praise and glory.

THE STORY TELLER

DON'TS FOR EVANGELISTS

By Rev. S. F. Clarkson

During the past years many, many times we have seen lists of don'ts for pastors, many of those compiled by evangelists. Surely we need all the constructive criticism possible, and I believe we all have profited more or less by these don'ts. After twenty years in the work as pastor, evangelist, home missionary and a user of evangelists while on circuits, I offer here a list of don'ts not always kept by some of us:

1. Don't break your word. A pastor must depend wholly on your word, for many times he knows you only by hearsay. I had one man who after definite arrangements failed to come—went to a larger place. Others failed to stay their contracted time, even though conditions were of the best. One man left because he had a toothache and no one but a home dentist could help him. A year later he wrote asking if he could come and "finish that meeting he started a year before."
2. Don't be fussy. For some of us conditions must be ideal, certain foods only can be eaten, special bedding, perfect temperature, ten o'clock breakfast, and fresh fruit in the room after services.

3. Don't talk money. Better pray through on finances. You do your best, the pastor is certainly supposed to do his best financially, but remember after all that the spirit displayed by yourself means much then, also working conditions must be taken into consideration, and last but not least, whether you have a real revival or not.

4. Don't scold and club. Nothing disgusts a pastor and people more than a scolding, clubbing, fault-finding preacher.

5. Don't make converts. Let them really go through; better one convert than a dozen deceived. And remember emotionalism is not conviction.

6. Don't feather your own nest. You are to help the pastor and church and not self.

7. Don't get big-headed. Remember your work nearly always is merely gathering that which a faithful pastor has sown.

8. Don't make your sermons up of past incidents of past meetings. Forget your past victories; present congregations want the Word and not the big "I" in the past.

Clinton, Illinois.

--Free Methodist

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION OF DIST. NO. 2

The district Sunday School Convention of Dist. No. 2 convened with the Church at Killam's Mills, June 7th at 2.30 p. m.

Rev. H. S. Mullen, president, occupied the chair and led the devotional service. The secretary, Brother Raymond Parks, being absent, Jennie Henry was elected secretary pro tem. Reports from schools of the District were read and approved.

Brother E. Watson gave an inspiring talk on Sunday School and Temperance, taking for his subject, "Remove not the old landmarks," from Deut. 19:14. He stressed the point of Sunday Schools being real Holiness Land Marks. God surely blessed in a wonderful way as he brought forth some touching remarks from personal experience. He spoke too of the depths to which the devil would lead us should we forget land marks that God has provided to be blessings along the way.

Brother Judson Sanders and Sister Annie Henry brought a message in song at this time, after which a paper on "The Responsibility of Sunday School Teachers to the Pupils," and "The Responsibility of the Pupils to the Teachers," was read by Jennie Henry.

A splendid address was then given by Brother Judson Sanders on "Sunday School and Missions." He told us of the blessing of Sunday School work in Africa. He spoke of the absolute necessity of having God in our Sunday Schools to which we could all say "Amen!"

Brother Watson then sang a solo, "It was Jesus Who Set Me Free." This was much enjoyed by all.

After it had been noted that the paper read by Jennie Henry be sent to the Highway for publication the convention adjourned having been a time of real blessing and inspiration to all.

Respectfully submitted,

JENNIE HENRY,

Secretary pro tem