

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The Editor of the Highway went to Fort Fairfield on Tuesday in company with Mr. C. P. Phillips of Woodstock, where they visited Rev. C. R. Hagerman, who is very ill and in a very weak condition. He is being tenderly cared for in the home of Rev. G. A. Rogers and his good wife, who are doing everything to make Brother Hagerman comfortable, and he is very contented, and resigned to the will of our Heavenly Father. We also called on Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ames at Fort Fairfield and found them well and enjoying the blessing of the Lord. They are expecting to attend Beulah camp-meeting.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has accepted an unanimous call to be pastor of the church at Woodstock next year.

The church at Black's Harbour dedicated their new church building on Sunday, June 16th. Rev. Holis Kimball is our pastor there.

Rev. H. L. Robertson is open for a call to pastoral work for next year. His present address is Woodstock, N. B.

Rev. H. J. S. Blaney writes that he baptized three candidates at Royalton on June 16th and received them into the membership of the church there. They are holding a praying band convention at Knoxford this week and over Sunday 23rd and are having excellent meetings.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, B. A., of Fort Fairfield, baptized three candidates there on Sunday, June 9th, and received two into church membership. Brother Rogers reports excellent meetings with souls being blessed.

Sister I. M. Keirstead is on her way to Beulah camp-meeting. She came to Royalton last week and after visiting friends there a few days, she will go to Millville and from there to Beulah in time for the Alliance meeting.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Colwell of Vancouver, B. C., have recently celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary. The Highway joins with their many friends in extending congratulations to our brother and sister, and wishing them many more years of useful service for Jesus. They have been subscribers to the King's Highway for many years. The following note from a Vancouver paper was sent in my Brother A. I. J. Ward of that place.

"Celebrating their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Colwell entertained at the dinner hour on Saturday evening when covers were laid for twelve. Married in St. John, N. B., on June 1, 1880, they are members of old United Empire Loyalist stock and are keenly interested in church work in this city where they have lived for the past twenty-five years. They have five children and three grandchildren, all living in the city. Wee John MacInnis, who celebrated his first birthday this week, is a great-grandson."

Mrs. Oliver 'Trites who is at present residing with her daughter, Mrs. S. N. Grass, of Moncton, is confined to her bed for a few days as the result of a fall she had recently. It was not very serious however and we expect her to be up again in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitten of Woodstock, N. B., went to Easton, Me., on Tuesday the 18th, to visit their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Cleaves. Mrs. C. P. Phillips of Woodstock, who has been ill recently, is much improved and expects with Brother Phillips to attend Beulah Camp-meeting.

Karl, the second son of the late Rev. I. F. and Mrs. Keirstead, has just graduated from Mt. Allison University, and received his B. A., degree with highest honors. We congratulate Karl on his success. He is specializing on chemistry and science and expects to attend summer school at Columbia University, N. Y., this summer.

A letter from Brother Charles Grant of Woodstock, N. B., says he has been suffering much lately with Rheumatism, but he is well in his soul and still interested in the Lord's work and doing what he can to speak a word to turn souls from sin to the Saviour.

DEDICATION

The new Reformed Baptist church of Black's Harbour was dedicated to the glory of God on Sunday afternoon, the 16th of June. A love feast in the morning began the day, led by Bro. Norman Cochrane of Marysville. At 10.30 Bro. Percy Green preached an edifying sermon. At the close of this service a baptism was held, three candidates being baptized.

The dedication service began at 2.30 with a large crowd in attendance. Bro. Bennett Cockrane offered the prayer of dedication and Bro. Dunlop preached the sermon. The message will not soon be forgotten by those who heard it. Our brother stressed four factors that should be true of every church—a spiritual church, a united church, a missionary church, a holy church. The people were greatly impressed with this discourse and new friends were made and prejudice removed.

In the evening, Burrell Kimball had charge of the service. Two were given the right hand of fellowship. At the close of the message an altar service was held, two souls praying through to victory. This service closed at a late hour bringing to an end a most blessed and profitable day. The readers of the Highway may be interested in a description of the church. The dimensions are 25 x 40 with 10½ ft. wall. There are four windows of frosted glass on each side and a large Gothic window of colored glass in the front. There is an outside vestibule. The inside finish is of Donnacona board which is much used for public buildings. The floor is of hardwood and the ceiling is arched. The lighting fixtures are of the latest design. It will seat 200. All who have seen it pronounce it a fine little church.

The church of Black's Harbour is deserving of credit for undertaking the erection of this church. It requires faith that is sacrificial and real courage for a small church to build at this time. God is with us and nothing is too hard for him.

We are planning on a tent meeting in Beaver Harbor 4 miles from here, after camp-meeting. They are calling for our work and we believe the prospects are good for a revival. Let us believe God.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Winnie Woodworth

On Monday, May 27th, Mrs. Minnie Woodworth, of Lower Hainesville, wife of the late John Woodworth, departed this life following a short illness, with pneumonia. Her husband predeceased her 17 years. She died in her 72nd year.

Our sister was a member of the R. B. Church in Lower Hainesville and had taken an active part since I have known her.

She leaves to mourn their loss two sons, Roy Woodworth of Tracy, N. B., and Edgar, of Gagetown, N. B.; also four daughters, Mrs. Ed. McNeil, North Devon; Mrs. Lena Palmer, Woodstock Road, Millville; Mrs. James Elliott, Lr. Hainesville, and Mrs. Jack March, Fredericton.

The funeral was conducted Tuesday p. m. by Rev. S. G. Hilyard with a short service at the home, and continued at the Reformed Baptist Church. The message was based on I. Cor. 29, 10. A choir from Upper Hainesville and Millville sang at the house, "Rock of Ages," "Rest for the Weary," and at the Church, "Will the Circle be Unbroken," "Peacefully Sleep," "Where We'll Never Grow Old," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Interment was made in the Lr. Hainesville Cemetery. To the sorrowing we extend our sympathy and prayers.

ON A SIDING

The train was late. Passengers were afraid that they would miss connections. Some were not well pleased. There the train stood on a siding. "Why are we here?" grumbled one. The conductor said, "We are waiting for Number Four." So we waited. The time did seem long. Then the rails clicked and pounded. There was a rumble in the distance, a roar near at hand, and a rush of air. Number Four had met us and gone on its way at sixty miles an hour. The siding was a tiresome place, but better after all than the main track when Number Four was coming.

God seems slow to move sometimes. King 'Saul thought so once and took things into his own hands. This turned out very badly for him. Waiting may be hard, but it will pay. We may do out best—clear the track ahead if we can. If we can not, waiting is better than rashness. Waiting may be hard, but rejection or disaster is worse.

When the danger is past, then full steam ahead and God bless you!—The Free Methodist.
